GROUND BROKEN BY COLUMBIA BASIN FOR CONDON SUB-OFFICE

Columbia Basin Electric Co-operative, Heppner has broken ground at the site of the new sub-office building in Condon. The building will have a 4,445 square foot area. Total costs are to approximate $55,000 for the building. New Osha requirements have increased costs of construction. Inside storage facilities will be 1,500 square feet which will house extensive inventory of transformers, conductor, line hardware and various line materials. There will be an additional 695 square feet of storage over the office area. Four bay truck storage is also included in the building plan. McCormack Construction Company, Pendleton, is the general contractor, and the project should be moving along well during the next few weeks.

BMCC Looks to Building

The Blue Mountain Community College board of education Wednesday night set in motion the first step toward possible completion of the college's campus facilities.

In a unanimous vote following appearance of a 13-member student body delegation, the board authorized the college president to conduct a study to determine needs and costs of a physical education facility.

If finally approved, the study could lead to a bond issue to finish the campus that was started almost 10 years ago.

Following formal presentations by the students requesting early construction of the facility, college President Wallace McCrae told the board the students were not asking for an expansion of the facilities or for a new program.

"A physical education facility has been in the original plans for the campus for over 10 years," McCrae said. "If we had followed those plans the building would have been completed by now and the campus would be completed. As it is," he continued, "we are behind in our building program and all the students are asking is that we finish the job."

Students who appeared before the board included student body presidents for this year and next year, secretaries for both years, treasurers for both years, next year's vice president and campus newspaper editor, and several others.

They expressed concern that many activities could not be offered because of scheduling problems and that many students, most in the vocational-technical areas, could not benefit from the physical education program because of the time and distance in getting to the classes. No facilities are available on campus for physical education. The college currently leases facilities at the National Guard armory in downtown Pendleton.

The students said that scheduling classes at the armory created many problems because of competition for armory facilities by other agencies. Facilities available there are often either inadequate or unavailable, they said. Classes are often cancelled, they added.

Some of the students said completion of the campus would probably attract more Umatilla and Morrow county students, resulting in a net increase in enrollment. One student said BMCC compares well with other community colleges in the state in every area except "our lack of a PE facility." All of the original community colleges include PE facilities on the campus.

AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY CRUSADE

The theme of the American Cancer Society's April Crusade is: "We want to wipe out cancer in your lifetime." Those nine words speak volumes. They tell of a trend in the medical attack on cancer which gives reason for hope.

In the late Thirties, fewer than one in five cancer patients was being saved. Today one of three hit by cancer is saved. With knowledge now available, medical and scientific opinion says that one of two cancer patients can be saved if treatment begins in time.

The last twenty years have seen important advances in the treatment process. Improved surgical techniques, radiation therapy, and drugs have given doctors and researchers much hope for the future.

There can be little difference of opinion about what is needed for the final conquest of cancer. As the scientific efforts broaden, it calls for more money for cancer centers, more money for brainpower and more money for equipment.

When an American Cancer Society volunteer comes to your home, remember the goal: "We want to wipe out cancer in your lifetime." Please give generously. Also if you would like to help in the drive by calling on a few homes within your area, please call 676-9940 within the next few days. Your help in this manner will be greatly appreciated.
