SARA MILLER ENGAGED

Mr. and Mrs. Warren S. Miller of Heppner announce the engagement of their daughter, Sara Lynn, to Joseph Franklin Mitcham, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Harold Mitcham of Beaverton. The bride-elect is a graduate of Heppner High School and the University of Oregon. She has been accepted by Portland State University Graduate School to begin work in Sept. toward a Master's degree in Speech Pathology. Her fiancé is a graduate of Beaverton High School. After a tour of duty with the U. S. Navy, he is now a student at Portland State University studying Law Enforcement.

Railroader Caps Are Glamour Items at Lawn Sale

Another new item is to be offered at the Methodist Church Lawn Sale on May 19th. Along with cemetery pieces, potted houseplants, and stylish new aprons, buyers will find a good selection of clever and colorful, cotton, "Railroader" caps. These are being created by Mrs. Ida Farra and have been modeled at the Ione Garden Club's Plant Sale and elsewhere by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cutting.

These cotton caps are very carefully constructed and are completely washable. Ida cuts the stiffening for the bills from the sides of Clorox or Purex bottles. She has a nice selection of flowered, polka-dotted, and striped cottons to work with. These caps are for any age or any sex and are great for gardening, fishing and camping.

Mrs. Thompson Feted

Mrs. Helen Thompson was recently honored at a farewell afternoon party given by Mrs. Madge Bryant. Twenty friends and neighbors enjoyed an afternoon of visiting and reminiscing. Elma Harshman brought her a beautiful potted plant. Two of her oldest neighbors, Madge Bryant and Mrs. Norman Florence presented her with the guest book. Mrs. Thompson has since moved to Pendleton to make her home. She is very comfortable but would welcome visits from her Heppner friends at 516 NW Bailey.

WSCS To Become UMW

At the May 2 meeting of Heppner's W.S.C.S. it was announced that this title, Women's Society of Christian Service, is rapidly becoming a thing of the past. Methodist women everywhere are regrouping under the letters U.M.W., United Methodist Women.

Officials Visit
Two district officers of U.M.W. from The Dalles Methodist Church came to talk with the local group about the change. They asked that a celebration be planned when this change becomes official here. Mrs. Griswold and Mrs. York also gave valuable pointers on how to strengthen the group structure. The change-over must be completed before Jan. 1, 1974.

Devotions
Mrs. John Wood gave a devotional lesson "The old cocoon must go." She based her devotions on St. Paul's writings and used a clever visual showing a butterfly emerging from a cocoon.

Mrs. Effie Johnson and Mrs. Ida Farra served refreshments at the close of the evening. The major business concerned plans for the coming Lawn Sale, for possible changes to the church building, and the matter of name changing.

MRS. DUVAL TO MIDWEST
Mrs. Amanda Duval arrived home from a 10-day trip to Oklahoma and Missouri. She drove to Portland and went by plane to Tulsa, Oklahoma. She visited there with her friends, Mrs. Fey Cook and Mrs. Ruth Mills.

Mrs. Cook took her to Springfield, Mo. in her car and they both visited relatives and friends. Mrs. Duval returned to Portland and visited with her brother and sister-in-law and her grandchildren and families before returning home Sunday.

HEPPNER GARDEN CLUB will meet next Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heard.

DOTS JOTS

Our hats are off to the Kindergarten mothers who worked like beavers all week to put the merchandise out for their huge Rummage Sale. Saturday they began selling their merchandise at 5 cents a bag. It went out in droves. But still Saturday night and Sunday Volunteers were still boxing up. Boxes were packed and taken to the Neighborhood Center, Eastern Oregon Hospital wishing well, Veterans Hospital in Walla Walla, Seventh Day Adventist Dorcas Society, St. James Episcopal Church rummage sale in Walla Walla.

The "rejects" were taken to the dump late Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Paul Arbogast, chairman of the Sale, deserves a couple of crowns. She worked to the bitter end as her helpers fell by the way side. The merchandise was surprisingly very clean, not always in the best repair, but most required only little stitching.

It nearly drove me crazy as I remembered how for years I saved wool garments for the time when I was going to braid a rug. There were the most beautiful Pendleton wool skirts by the dozens out there. They would have made gorgeous pieces for a rug. However I gave up a long time ago. I filled a wool sack and sent it off to the Olson Rug Co. There it stays as a credit for the time if & when I decide to have them make me a
