

Duane Alderman Featured In Pendleton Record

A pastime that started as a hobby has become the life work of Duane Alderman, Pendleton. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Alderman of Heppner. Duane's interest in "buried treasure" began with screening for arrowheads. Now he has a store "Treasure Hunter Supply" at 101 S.W. Emigrant. He was recently featured in an ad and story by Arnold Raymond in the Pendleton Record. Duane is married to the former Norma Guyer of Heppner who helps him in his work as well as do their three sons, David, Dennis and Danny. They

Auxiliary to Host
Girls State Tea

By CASSANDRA CHAPEL
The Ione American Legion Auxiliary will host district 6 Girls States tea Saturday May 12 at 2:00 p.m. All previous Girl's States are invited as well as this years girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Peterson and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Peterson and family attended the wedding of Mr. Tom Skuzeski on Saturday April 28th. Tom is a nephew of Herb and Bob.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wright of Baker are here for a months visit with Mrs. Wright's mother Mrs. Ida Grable.

Ione residents were saddened to hear of the death of two former residents, Jack Hynd Sr. and John Jackson.

Willows Grange
WAC of Willows Grange will meet at the home of Mrs. Larry Prock with Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen as co-host. This will be an all day meeting. Members are to bring desserts and salads.

The Willows Grange called a special meeting Sunday afternoon for the purpose of initiating the following candidates: Mary, Kathleen, and Peter McElligott, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Snider, Barb Palmer, Kevin Gutierrez and Cassandra Chapel. There was a potluck at 6:00.

A grange visitation will be held at the Rhea Creek Grange Friday May 11. Willows Grange will furnish a Hee Haw program.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew M. Vincent of Portland were weekend visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Heimbigner.

Recently the TOPS Club met at the home of Mrs. Wayne Hams for the initiation of officers. Mrs. Carmen French made corsages for the officers.

OSU Mother's Weekend
Those attending the Mother's Day weekend in Corvallis were: Mrs. Roland Bergstrom, Mrs. Henry Krebs Jr., Mrs. James Pettyjohn, Mrs. Dick McElligott, Mrs. Eddie Gunderson, and Mrs. Lewis Carlson. While they were visiting there they attended the Carpenters in concert, Interfraternity sing, in the afternoon they attended a judo tournament, water polo, a track meet, and international folk dancing exhibition, arts and crafts fair which had items to sell. The rabbit races were very interesting, the proceeds of which went to the childrens farm home of Corvallis which netted $2300. Cheryl Carlson was a cheerleader in this event and she also sang in the concert.
