Guess we women should get a little better organized and get to playing together. No use in letting the men have all the fun-how about it? If you have a family to feed and still want to golf on Tuesday at 5:00, how the club house, which was their final fling for the season as a team. They used the outdoor barbecuer for their meat and all had a great time. As has been said before, we are fortunate to have a member of the faculty, Tom Shear, for a golfing coach.
