Dennis McKay will be the guest speaker at the class of 1973's commencement exercises May 24 at 7:30 p.m. in the Heppner High School gym. Mr. McKay was a counselor, speech, typing and drama teacher at HHS from 1968 - 1972. He was last year's Teacher of the Year. This year he is teaching in Bend.

Penny Marquardt will be the senior class's honored guest.

"Imagine," written by John Lennon, will be the class theme, and will be sung by the 46 graduating seniors. Peach and orange have been chosen as the class colors and nose-gays as the class flowers.

Other speakers are the valedictorian and two salutatorians. Bill Jepsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jepsen, Ione, will head the senior class as valedictorian. Bill has an accumulated GPA of 3.90. He was the recipient of the second place Elks Scholarship. This year Bill served as president of H-Club and vice-president of FFA. He will be joining the East team as a tackle in the Shrine game at Baker this summer. Bill will be attending Washington State next year, backed by an ROTC scholarship. He plans on entering pre-veterinarian.

Tami Meador, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Meador of Heppner, and Kathleen Bartlett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bartlett, Boardman, tied for salutatorian honors. Both have an accumulated GPA of 3.73.

Tami is president of National Honor Society, student body treasurer, and an active member of drama club.

Kathleen is a member of 4-H livestock, cooking, sewing, and knitting. She was a princess on this year's Homecoming court, as well as being a member of the Morrow County Fair and Rodeo Court for this summer.

Seniors selected juniors Greg Davidson and Kristi Hague-wood to lead the graduation procession as grand marshals. Judy Bennett and Gary Hunt were chosen as candle lighters. Program girls will be Jean Christman and Susan Healy, and picked as ushers were Karl Harrison, Barry Munkers, Jack Chitty, Mike Prock, and John Healy.
