

HHS Senior Awards spark evening with "Imagine" as theme

Seniors in blue robes and the girls carrying nosegays of peach and orange, the class colors, marched in to the music by the High School Band directed by Larry Hildebrandt at the Thursday night commencement. Greg Davidson and Kristi Haguewood, juniors, were the grand marshals.

Father Raymond Beard gave the invocation and benediction. The Rev. Ed Cutting gave the Baccalaureate address "work now for your monument". Salutatory addresses were given by Kathleen Bartlett and Tami Meador. Bill Jepsen in his valedictory address gave the rising costs of education from $600 a year to over $1000 a year per student in Morrow County. He thanked the taxpayers and hoped that as members of the class became taxpayers, they would in turn be able to provide as good an education for the young people as they had had and then "now I bid you farewell".

The audience thoroughly enjoyed the rendition by the seniors of their theme song, "Imagine".

Awards
Presentation of awards during a commencement exercise is always one of the highlights. New this year were Grants-in-Aid to the seniors of Morrow County High Schools from the Carl W. Troedson estate. The interest will be used each year to aid students in furthering their education. Recipients

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis McKay and daughters, Robin and the twins, Jennifer and Kimberly, here for commencements at Heppner High School and Ione High School. Mr. McKay gave the Commencement address at Heppner.

Ione High has 16 Graduating Seniors

Ione graduation was held May 26 at 8:00 p.m. with 16 seniors receiving their diplomas.

The processional, recessional and other music was played by Darrel James, former music teacher at Ione.

The invocation was given by David Warren. Kathleen McElligott delivered her valedictory address and the salutatory address was given by Gregg Wilson.

Special music was presented when Mr. and Mrs. Darrel James sang "Friends" accompanied by Mrs. Bill Rietmann. Guest speaker was Dr. Harold Beggs, former principal of Ione.

Don McElligott presented the diplomas. The benediction was given by Melissa McElligott. The honor guard was formed by the junior class.

The following poem was written by Cassandra Chapel.

summing up, in her mind's eye, the graduation.

Graduation '73
I stood in awed silence
The speaker had said "Amen".
The kids I loved so dearly
Were now Women and men.

In the light I saw them coming,
To pass through the honor guard.
Going forth to meet their future
In a world that's mighty hard.

I knew they were leaving forever
The school days of Ione high
A tear slipped down from my eyelash.

As we said our last goodbys,
I know not what will happen
As they take their place in time.
But I know they will have many blessings,
And knowing them has been mine.

LIMITED TIME ONLY Home-steads & Heritages only $5.00.

The varsity rally squad, elected after tryouts in April, consists of next-year juniors Judy Healy, Marjie Roberts and Mary Healy; seniors Toni Toll and Donna Bellamy.

Spring Musical Presented by Band and Chorus

Gift Presented
Mrs. Dale Boner who has worked as president of the Band

Parents and who is moving from Heppner was presented with a gift from the band.

The Spring Concert presented by the Heppner High School band and Chorus was delightful even though it was put on under adverse conditions. Several "regulars" were absent but those participating tried nobly to fill the gaps.

The Band

There was a change of pace frequently that provided a welcome variation. Anita Davidson as one of the student conductors led the band with a great deal of authority. Mary Abrams also took her turn with the baton effectively.

The band played Charter Oak March, Chorale, Latina, St. Anthony Divertimento, Bacharach and David, Storefront Lawyers and Sounds of the Three Dog Night. On two of the songs, Larry Hildebrandt, director joined the band to play the guitar.

High School Band members were: Flute - Kerry Coppock, Lisa Collins, Twilla Riddle; Clarinet - Charma Marquardt, Dena Struthers; Bass Clarinet - Juanita Wilson; Alto Sax - Dana Sweek, John Luciani, David Worden, Kelly Harrison.

The Chorus

The Chorus also presented a variety program from contemporary, some very American, the theme from Fiddler on the Roof, folk music, spirituals and closed by singing an Old Irish Blessing a capella.

Kristi Haguewood and Juanita Wilson gained experience as accompanists as they took turns with Mr. Jepsen Director, in playing the piano.

The Chorus sang the Exodus Song, I thank you God, The Pasture, Choose Something like a star, Consider Yourself, Sunrise, Sunset (Fiddler on the Roof) They call the wind Maria (Paint Your Wagon), Black and White and Poor Man Lazarus and the finale Old Irish Blessing.

Mrs. Dale Boner has just been presented with a gift of appreciation from the Heppner High School Band. She received a set of glasses.
