

People Visiting ..... Visiting Here and There

ATEMMA DRAKES
Visiting at the home of Emma Drake this last weekend were Grace Drake of Berkeley, Ca. and daughter, Mrs. Tom Ferguson from Corvallis, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Drake Jr. from Corvallis and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Drake from Midway Sub Station, Wa.

CUTTINGS HAVE GUESTS
Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ankeny of Salem stopped overnight Wednesday of last week with the Rev. and Mrs. Ed Cutting. They were enroute from Boise to their home. Mrs. Cutting and Mrs. Ankeny are sisters.
Mr. and Mrs. Cutting will be at the Ankeny home when they go to Salem next week for the annual Methodist Conference.

At Padbergs

Last weekend, Mr. and Mrs. Alford Caldera of Coos Bay and their daughter, Fara Mae Caldera visited with Mr. and Mrs. Archie Padberg Sr. Mrs. Padberg and Mrs. Caldera are sisters.
Memorial Day weekend saw more relatives at the Padberg home. Here for the holiday weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Archie Padberg Jr. of Boring, Mrs. Irene Tucker Atherton of Ontario, Mrs. Hulda Mortimore of Eugene, Edwin Tucker of Salem and Mr. and Mrs. Woody Tucker of Stanfield. Joining them on Monday were Eldon Tucker and David of Ione.

MR. & MRS. LUE WILSON
and Lita were up from Glide for Heppner's graduation. Their son, Lloyd was among the graduates. He is working at the veneer plant and plans to continue working there.
Mr. and Mrs. Wilson formerly Heppner before moving to Glide. Next month Mrs. Wilson plans to open a Fabric Shop at Glide. Glide, a small community is 20 miles from Roseburg which is the closest town. She says there is a real need for such a shop.

MRS. DAVID RIETMANN of Ione has returned after visiting a week in Los Angeles with her daughter, Mrs. Paul Frink.
Andy Devine came from Bend to work on the Wilkinson ranch. He will be joined soon by his family. Mr. Devine is a retired naval man.

Here for the annual Pioneer Picnic were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Fraters, Elmer Barnside, Charlene Morris, of Grass Valley; Vic Johnson of The Dalles; Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Ayers, Mrs. Lucille Parrish, Seattle.

VACATIONING
Merlin Cantin is on vacation from the Telephone Co. Last weekend they were first time mushroom hunters and they froze three or four gallons of Morrels.

DR. & MRS. BERNARD McMurdo of Burlington, Ca. stopped to visit his mother, Mrs. Archie D. McMurdo for a few days last week. They had been to Twin Falls visiting Mrs. McMurdo's parents and had planned to go to Canada. The weather became uninviting so they came to Oregon instead. They planned to stop in Portland to visit the Ted McMurdos and then on to Corvallis with Scott McMurdo.
The Ted McMurdos were in Heppner for Memorial Day weekend and attended the Pioneer Picnic.

MR. & MRS. CHARLES THOMASON, Tony, Paul, Dusty and Raymond went to Burley, Idaho, Memorial Day weekend. Returning with them to spend the summer are Scott and the twins, Alvin and Calvin. They are expecting another son home on leave in July.

SISTERS SHOP
IN PORTLAND
Mrs. John Turner of Baker and Mrs. Vera Rietmann of Ione spent a week visiting and shopping in Portland. Their sister Mrs. Carol Morrison of King City brought them to Ione. Later in the week, she took Mrs. Turner on to Baker.

MR. & MRS. DON CANTRELL and seven month old Susan have moved into the new house at the Dick Wilkinson ranch. They moved here two months ago from Silver Lake near Lakeview. Don is the ranch mechanic.
Mrs. Cantrell is leader for the 4-H sewing club, Snappy Snippers. Mrs. Cantrell was in 4-H at Prineville when Harold Kerr was county agent there.

MR. & MRS. PETE SLOCUM and family accompanied by Mrs. Slocum's mother of Hermiton visited here Memorial Day with his mother, Mrs. Frieda Slocum.

GUESTS AT BILL COX HOME
Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cox for the holiday weekend were their sons, Gayle from San Mateo, Ca. and Bill from Portland. They came up for Todd Cox's graduation. He is the last of the five Cox sons to graduate from Heppner High School. He will enroll at Mt. Hood Community College this fall.
Another son, John, was up from Portland the previous weekend.

MRS. FAYRE SWEET of Hazel Dell, Wa. came up to visit the Clayton Sweets and to attend two commencement exercises. Her grandson, Mike Sweet, graduated Thursday from Heppner High School and on Friday she went to Monument where her grand daughter Megan Sweet was a member of the graduating class. Saturday evening the Sweets went to Ione. Don McCarty, Mrs. Clayton Sweet's nephew was a member of the graduating class. The Grandmother Sweet, after two commencements, chose to stay home with Sheridan, the small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Sweet.

Join the Army
On Wednesday Mrs. Sweet went to Portland as Mr. and Mrs. Sweet took their son Mike to join the army. He left Thursday to fly to Fort Leonard Wood, Mo. Joining the army with him was Rick Wadholm who was also to go Fort Leonard Wood.
Donna will be a senior at Ione High School in the fall. Scott is a 1970 graduate of Ione High School. He is presently employed by Paul Tews, Ione.
An August 17 wedding is planned at Hope Lutheran Church in Heppner.

BAKED FOOD SALE
JUNE 15
The Episcopal Church Women are planning a Baked Food Sale for June 15. It will be held from 4 to 6 p.m. at Central Market. It is planned to accommodate guests, people may be having for Fathers Day. Mrs. Jerry Bunch is general chairman.

Harshmans Surprised on 40th
While Mr. and Mrs. Everett Harshman knew that their daughters were coming for their 40th Wedding anniversary on May 27, they were totally surprised when a host of others came for a potluck picnic. Teresa Harshman and friends from Portland and another daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hill of Eight Mile were in on the planning.
Surprising them were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Filer of Pendleton, Jerry Harshman family from Dayton, Wn., Dallas and Zelma McDaniel and family of Rhea Creek.
Elma and Everett were married May 27, 1933 at the Heppner Christian Church parsonage. The Rev. Burton performed the ceremony. Elwood Hastings and Gwen Walker were their attendants. They ran off to be married and first lived in the Eight Mile country where they worked for the Harlan McCurdys Sr. for nine years. The McCurdys later sold to Ivan Cox.
Then the war came along and they went to work in the shipyards at Portland. Everett didn't like the big city and came back to Morrow County before Elma did. They bought the old Cannon ranch which they later sold to John and Dorris Graves.
They owned and operated a motel at Port Angeles for several years and finally returned to Morrow County about which they say "we'll never leave again". When they came back this time they bought the Ralph Thompson place up Willow Creek where they raise sheep and some cattle. Everett also works for the ASC. They bought Elma's Apparel in 1958. This spring they did extensive remodeling to add several new lines. They purchased the business from Norah Rasmus.

Cedar Chest Given as Surprise
The highlight of a bridal shower given by friends for Susan Wilson in Heppner was a presentation of a cedar chest made for her by her future brother-in-law, Jeff Marshall, Benham Malcom and Jim Cutsforth. They had made it in Industrial Arts class. It has scallops burned into the wood on the front and brass pulls and leg tips. She packed her shower gifts in it when she was ready to go home that evening.
Hosting the shower were Mrs. Randall Peterson, Mrs. Jack Van Winkle, Mrs. Raymond French, Mrs. Robert Schiller, Mrs. Don Robinson and Mrs. Gene Cutsforth.
Assisting in opening her gifts were Ellen Cooney of Condon and Joanne Froman also of Condon. Joanne arrived home from New Mexico just in time to attend the shower. The girls were friends of Susans when she attended Condon schools.

What's Cookin
Vera Rietmann served this Berries on a Cloud at the Women's Fellowship meeting. Sounds so good and in time for fresh strawberries.
Berries on a Cloud
6 egg whites
1/2 tsp. cream of tartar
1/4 tsp salt
Beat until fluffy, add 1 3/4 cup sugar gradually. Beat on high speed for 15 minutes. Pour in 13x9 greased bake pan. Bake 275 degrees for 60 minutes. Turn heat off and leave in oven for 12 hours.
Filling
6 ozs. cream cheese, 1 cup sugar, 1 tsp vanilla. Cream until light and fluffy. 2 cups of whipping cream whipped. Fold cheese mixture into cream. Add 2 cups miniature marshmallows.
Pour over merange, cover and refrigerate for 12 hours. Cut into squares and top with berries.

To Be Married

DONNA RAYLINE FLACK

Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Van Arsdale, Hermiton and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Flack, Bend announce the engagement of their daughter Donna Raylene, to Scott E. Wilson, Ione. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Wilson, Ione.
