

Spring Colors Used for Marshall-Wilson Ceremony

Susan Wilson carried a bouquet of lavender gladioli florets, yellow status and stephanotis when she became the bride of Barney Marshall in St. Patrick's Catholic Church, Heppner, May 26. The ceremony was read by Father Raymond Beard. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Wilson, Heppner. Barney's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Bud Marshall, also of Heppner. Ron Ward and Dan Marshall were altar boys.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length handmade gown of white lace over satin, fashioned on the princess style with leg-of-mutton sleeves and a high neckline. The long court train of tulle was edged in lace from the shoulders.

Maid of Honor was Ellen Cooney, Condon. Bridesmaid was Donna Bushman from Quartz Hill, California. Both attendants wore gowns styled like the bride's, made of sheer seersucker in a floral print of lilac, gold, pink, blue and green. They carried bouquets of lavender mums, pink glad florets and stephanotis.

Jim Van Winkle was Best Man. Usher was Steve Rhea. Honorary ushers were Jeff Marshall, brother of the groom; Tom Cutsforth and Kirk Robinson, all of Heppner. The groom and his attendants wore western suits.

Organ wedding music was provided by Lucia Cutsforth.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Wilson wore a blue sheath dress with a white lace coat. Mrs. Marshall chose a pink jacket a-line dress ensemble.

A wedding reception was held in the church parish hall. Sheila Cross cut the cake. Patricia Brinkley, the bride's aunt, served. Pouring were

Surprise Shower Given for Susan

Susan Wilson was honored at a surprise bridal shower in Hermiston prior to her marriage on June 26 to Barney Marshall. Co-hosting the shower were Ellen Cooney of Condon and Mrs. Bill Wilson at the Wilson home in Hermiston.

It was an informal affair with members of the family and close friends attending. Supposedly the women folk were going to the Wilsons and would be joined there for dinner by the men after a day of fishing.

When Mrs. Vernon Wilson, Susan and Nanny Kautz and Mrs. Dennis Campbell arrived in Hermiston here were the shower guests waiting for them. Mrs. Dennis Campbell of Heppner and Mrs. Matt Cooney of Condon won prizes. Ellen Cooney, Susan's maid of honor, assisted in opening her gifts.

The double heart cake was decorated in the spring bouquet colors of purple, green, pink, blue and yellow that Susan had chosen for her wedding.

The men did arrive later for dinner. With Bill Wilson were out of state friends, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Faust of Memphis Tennessee.

The Wilsons had known them when Mr. Faust was stationed at the Condon AFB. He is now graduated from college and is out west looking for employment. They like Oregon and would like to return. They visited at Condon and Fossil and hope to be back for elk hunting with the men after a day of fishing.

A Message from the CowBelles Beef for Fathers Day

A message from the Morrow County CowBelles. "Father's Day (June 17) will be here before you know it. And that means the number one man-in-your-lives deserves something extra-special...probably his favorite dinner, lots of special attention, and most likely a small gift of appreciation for just being Dad. If you're like most people, you rack your brain each year trying to think of different and thoughtful things to give him. But this year there's a unique and ideal way to make HIS day one to remember. Go to your nearest US or First National Bank of Oregon and ask for a personalized gift certificate for Dad's favorite cut of choice Oregon beef. These are available in 5, 10 and 15 dollar amounts and may be redeemed at any grocery store or meat market in the USA. A Beef Gift Certificate is a clever way to make Father's Day last a little bit longer. He can eat like a King for several days, a week, or more." Mrs. Cista Venard is CowBelle Beef Certificate chairman. She says, "Be creative. Find the quickest way to Dad's heart, with a dinner especially for him serving his favorite meat...with a gift certificate for Oregon beef."

Retrns From Alaska
Mrs. Chester Wilson reports that people in Juneau, Alaska enjoy "Plant Sales", "Little League" and Piano Recitals, just as much as people in the lower 48 states. Mrs. Wilson returned Tues. from a 10 day visit with relatives there. While there she attended a piano recital where 2 nephews, Brent 8, and Arland Fagerstrom, 16, each played a piano number.

Another interesting event was the Garden Club Plant sale where the women were lined up for at least a block, patiently waiting in the rain for the doors to open. Some had umbrellas but many were holding the cardboard boxes over their heads that they had brought along to carry plants home in. When the doors opened the better plants and shrubs quickly disappeared.

Mrs. Wilson went to the Assembly of God on Sunday where her brothers, Kent and Ivar Fagerstrom and their families are members. The Tlinget Indians, natives of Juneau, make up a portion of the congregation and most appeared to be a prosperous people. Young people from the Alaska Youth Settlement, formerly known as the Juneau Childrens Home, attend this Church.

Mrs. Frank Legner has returned from a visit with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Shultz and son Danny, of Milwaukee, Wisc. They traveled to Orlando, Florida where they went to the new Disneyland Park and toured the Florida beaches.

Chester Phillips of Monmouth visited friends and relatives in the Irrigon-Boardman area over the weekend. He has been attending Oregon College of Education and expects to receive his degree in June. He has been teaching in Sheridan on a special permit, since March. Phillips was in Irrigon to check on his property here.

Sandy Carlson, La Grande; Martin Wixon, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wilson, Hermiston; Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Mattila, Adams; Mr. and Mrs. Matt Cooney, Condon; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Pelesky, Westport; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Brinkley, Fossil; and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Froman, Condon.

They met at a dance during the County Fair when the pavilion was where the museum now stands. Their first date was a charivari for Buster Padberg.

They were married in June in Portland and have lived most of their 50 years in Morrow County. Gene was in the Chevrolet garage with his brother Raymond, served as County Commissioner and had a wheat ranch. He has been a trustee at the Elks. He likes to fish and hunt and has made several fishing trips to Canada.

Fay has been active in Bookworms, Methodist Church, American Legion Auxiliary and Eastern Star. She likes to travel and has tripped to Alaska, twice to Europe, Australia and New Zealand, Mexico and Canada. Gene accompanied her on the last trip when they went to Hawaii.

To the Editor:

In a letter from my family in Madras, the Dave Halls, they tell me the baby, Jodi Lynn, has been properly baptized in All Saints Episcopal Church in Heppner. Nancy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Richardson, her brother and one of her grandmothers came from Madras and Mr. and Mrs. John Hall from Corvallis. The godparents were Mr. and Mrs. John Hall and Nancy's brother, the latter presenting his new niece with a white Bible.
