Dallas Couple Honored on 60th

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Horton of Dallas were honored last Sunday on their 60th wedding anniversary. The two of them are enjoying very good health at 82 and 83 years of age and had a grand day. Their children hosted the day which began at morning worship at the Dallas United Methodist Church. The pink rose on the altar was dedicated to the Hortons. Their children are Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick Martin of lone, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Horton, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Horton and Mr. and Mrs. John Todd, all of Roseburg.

A reception was held in the afternoon with more than 100 stopping in to visit. Many old time pictures were enjoyed by the guests. Mr. Horton's father was a photographer. Mr. Horton had taken pictures of their first home up the Walla Walla River at the old power house. They also displayed early day pictures of Mrs. Horton cooking on the old cook stove and washing on the board and many others. Another picture that created much interest was a "family Family Tree

Mr. and Mrs. Horton have 14 grand children and 14 great grandchildren and two more are expected soon. All were present except for one great grandchild who was home with the measles and a grand daughter. Mrs. Martin and her niece arranged pictures of all the children, grandchildren and great grandchildren, framed by a leaf, on a tree. This made a huge display of pictures about 9 x 9 feet. Ralph A. Frank D. Ruig of Portland. The bride is the daughter of George and Helen Gutterrez of lone. The groom's parents are Mrs. Roy Phipps of The Dales, and Richard Gillette of Pendle-

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a dress she made of white velvet, high waisted with low cut neckline and leg-a-mutton sleeves with Hardman Reunion lace and pearl trim. Instead of a veil she wore a ring of flowers, which matched the brides bouquet, consisting of baby roses, stephanitis, and ivy.

The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Lena Payne, of Cascade Locks was matron of honor, and wore a long dress of mint and moss green crepe.

Bridesmaids were Tanya Tucker of Ione, and Linda DeShirulia, sister of the groom, from Portland. Each of the bridesmaids wore long sleeved dresses in floral designs of gold, brown, mint and moss green.

Junior bridesmaids dressed in long green mint dresses with ruffles were Cathleen Gutierrez, sister of the bride, from

of the groom, from Pendleton. Best man was Scott Palmer of The Dalles. Altar Boys were Kevin and Kim Gutierrez, brothers of the bride, from Ione. The groom, best man and ring bearer wore white tuxeodo's and mint ruffled shirts.

Ring bearer was Craig Gutierrez, brother of the birde, from Ione, who carried the wedding band which had belonged to the bride's mother. The brides engagement ring. the diamond reser in a new mounting, came from her grandmothers engagement

Reception was held in the church parlor, which was decorated in the brides colors of mint and moss green, and flowers of baby roses and carnations with stephanitis and

The couple left for a short wedding trip to the Hood River Village Inn, and to Timberline Lodge at Mt. Hood.

The bride graduated from Jone High School and Blue Mt College in Pendleton, and is now working as a dental assistant to Dr. Keilman in The Dalles, until August when she will join her husband.

The groom graduated from The Dalles High School and will be leaving for the Army the 29th of June and will be stationed at Fort Polk, Lousiana

Control & Conservation Spots Viewed

A very interested group of Morrow County Wheat growers toured the Roger Palmer farm the evening of June 6 reports Harold Kerr. The tour participauls saw a series of silt dams which have restored what was once a severely eroded draw. The newly created fields bave beer seeded to grass and alfalfa and provides more feed for the Palmer livestock as well as protection for the nearby fields. The group also saw examples of good crop management as well as strip cropping and diversion difebes on nearly all of the cropland.

The tour also viewed barley and wheat variety plots at the Frank Anderson rauch.

The cheat grass plots at Rudy Bergstrones were of special interest because of the very real possibility that some new chem-

Diggings from the mines are treeless mounds. Recently they have started planting trees on them. It takes years for the vegetation to grow but recently they have started to treat the chemicals left in the soil in the mining process to make them fertile. They visited Ngorongoro

Crater and went down 2000 feet to the Boor of the crater over a narrow and steep one way road. Many many kinds of animals were seen and always where the animals concentrated the grass has been over-grazed.

A 300 acre lake in the floor of the crater was the home of 2 million pink flamingos.

They saw 19,000 foot Kilamanjaro and Mt. Kenya. Animals they saw: jackals, Impalas, Wart-hogs, Cape Buffalo, lynx, lions, elephants, monkeys, bush pigs, giraff, zebra, antelope and crocodiles. Orchards of citrus fruits. oranges, lemons, limes and grapefruit. Fields of hay, cotton and coffee. Landscaping was beautiful with many many kinds of flowers. Lots of birds.
