NEW PAINT

Les Brannon is spray painting the barns out at the Fair Grounds barn red. The seats in the grand stand are being sanded. Vic Greshens is fixing the barbecue. All this in readiness for the big days in August. The repaired barbecue got its christening with the Father of the Year barbecue Saturday evening.

BRUCE BERGSTROM won the drawing for the blender at the Jack VanWinkle Sears First birthday.

FROM TRINIDAD

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Grasser enjoyed a visit last week with friends from the island of Trinidad. Mr. and Mrs. William Jensen, stopped by accompanied by their daughter, Nancy, a student at Walla Walla College and her mother Hazel Jahn of Grande Ronde. They arrived in the northwest in time to attend their sons commencement at Walla Walla College. They were going on to Redmond to visit a brother, Melvin Jahn. The Jensens are missionaries and work out of the hospital.

They said devaluation had not hurt them on the island. They got two US dollars for one of theirs. As they looked at Mrs. Grasser's flowers, Mrs. Jensen noted "how nice it is to have just ordinary weeds". They have such exotic plants as split leaf philodendron, hibiscus, and orchids that have to be pulled as weeds.

MIKE BENGE was home last weekend. He left Friday for New York for more speaking engagements. His sister Joan Hughes had hopes to have some of the records to sell that Mike played on Mike Benge Day at the Fair Grounds. However he took them all with him to New York. Joan says she'll try to get some more for those who had indicated they wanted the record.

FROM INFANCY TO AGE 18
The USDA estimates it costs $2,900 to feed a boy, $2,300 to feed a girl at today's prices. This does not include snacks away from home or take into account rising food prices. Milk, with all its essential nutrients is still the best food buy at about 15 cents a pound.
