

Gene & Fay Honored on 50th Karen Crowell Honored at Shower

Gene and Fay Ferguson at their 50th wedding anniversary party Sunday at the United Methodist Church in Heppner.

In spite of wind and other functions at Hardman and Cutsforth Park, many friends and relatives enjoyed meeting and visiting at the 50th wedding anniversary for Gene and Fay Ferguson Sunday. Their three children and their families and many other relatives were here for the joyous occasion. Their sons are Ted Ferguson of Gold Beach, Dick Ferguson of Seattle and their daughter is Mrs. Jim Rousenfel (Nancy) of Boring.

Gene's sister Vida B. Estelle came from Anderson, Ca. It was the first time in 28 years that she had been in Heppner. When asked if there were any changes she exclaimed "I should say so." She accompanied her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Burney Dillard. Gene's brother Raymond Ferguson of Heppner, their cousins Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Ferguson of Eureka, Ca. and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gardner of Forest Grove and Fay's cousin, Virginia Meek of Portland all came.

The women of the United Methodist Church prepared luncheon, for 36 for the family and out of town guests preceding the Reception. They had decorated the room with summer flowers. The dessert for the luncheon was a fisherman's cake for Gene's benefit.

The reception cake was a five tier orange and gold creation made by Mrs. Bill Zinter. Serving the cake were Mrs. Paul Gardner and Mrs. W. W. Weatherford. Serving the coffee were Mrs. Raymond Ferguson, Mrs. Meek and Mrs. Dick Ferguson. Serving the punch were Mrs. Robert Kelly, Kathy Zinter and Mrs. Dorothy Cockburn, the latter of Milton-Freewater.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Van Atta will be here from La Grande this weekend. They will visit her mother, Mrs. Charlotte Doherty, Mrs. Van Atta is the former Bonnie Kessell who graduated from Heppner High School in 1968.

They will play and sing at the Elks Club Saturday night. He plays the guitar and Mrs. Van Atta plays the piano.

Married to Marry

Billie Marie Wood and Eugene Doherty were married in a June 9 ceremony in St. Patrick's Catholic Church by Father Raymond Beard.

Mr. and Mrs. Delmer Crawford of Hermiston extend a cordial invitation to friends in the area to attend the wedding of their daughter, Cynthia Jean, to Bernard Falconer, son of Mrs. Fred Baker, Hermiston, and Earl Falconer, Pendleton.

The summer ceremony will be performed Saturday, June 23 in St. John's Episcopal Church in Hermiston. A reception in the parish hall will follow the 11:00 a.m. ceremony.

Cynthia is a grand daughter of W. C. Crawford and Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Ely of Ione.

Question: How do you treat perspiration stains on white permanent press shirts?
Answer: Sponge the area gently with household ammonia. After a few minutes, rinse it out thoroughly, then wash. If the stain is not pre-treated, washing and drying may permanently set it.

New Patsy Tom at Mental Health Center

Patsy Tom, Mrs. David Tom is the new secretary-receptionist at the Mental Health Center. She only recently moved to her home on Rhea Creek just above Heaths. Her husband is associated in the Peck and Tom Farms.

Patsy isn't used to Eastern Oregon's treeless hills since she hails from the Willamette Valley. She graduated from Albany High School and in 1972 from Oregon State with an English major.

She likes to sew and cook. She gives her recipe for Wagon Wheel cookies in this week's "What's Cookin'." She says they are chocolate and chewy. She likes to do some painting. She likes the prettiest she sees of old barns.

"This country isn't she has farm chores to do, she feeds 40 chickens, a steer that's about to be butchered and a couple turkeys.

Patsy Tom.

Two Eastern Stars Chapters Consolidate

At the June stated meeting of Ruth Chapter No. 32, Order of the Eastern Star, on June 11, a resolution was adopted agreeing to consolidate the chapter with Locust Chapter No. 119 of Ione. The Heppner chapter was chartered in 1895, that of Ione in 1915. The name of the consolidated chapter will be Ruth Chapter No. 32, and meetings will be held at the Masonic Hall in Heppner.

The degrees were conferred upon Shirley Deeter, whose mother-in-law, Beulah Gomillion, former Worthy Matron of Ruth Chapter, acted as courtesy candidate.

Gifts were presented by the Officers Club to outgoing Worthy Matron Ruby Becket and outgoing Worthy Patron Marion Hayden.

The members of Ruth Chapter attended the meeting of Locust Chapter the following evening, June 12, in Ione and the officers for the coming year were chosen.

The elective officers will be Worthy Matron, Lorraine Ladd; Worthy Patron, Claude Graham; Associate Matron, Lota Tibbles; Associate Patron, Dick Wilkinson; Secretary, Carmelita Halvorsen; Treasurer, Marilyn Childers; Conductress, Lois Hunt; Associate Conductress, Mary Bryant.

Elective and appointive officers will be installed at an open installation ceremony at the Masonic Hall in Heppner on the evening of July 6, at 8:00 p.m. The public is invited.

Ex-Lodge Member Recalls Nursing Days

Highlight of the Sans Souci Rebekah Lodge's regular meeting June 15 was the reading of a letter from Mrs. Lulu Hinton, a veteran member of Sans Souci, who entered the IOOF home in Portland in May of this year.

Mrs. Johnson was born in 1879 on Butter Creek near Heppner.

Another Old Time dance

Another Old Time Dance will be held at Hardman June 30. This will be a Cliff Aldrich benefit. All proceeds will go to Cliff who is still in the hospital since he was seriously burned in a recent accident. He is in Pioneer Memorial Hospital and will be there for about another month.

There was a big crowd at Saturday's first Old Time dance. People came from Hermiston, Portland, John Day, Fossil and Condon as well as Heppner. Supper was served at midnight.

Varsity Cheer Leaders sold their pies in short order. They could have sold 60 pies.

Music was by a group of old timers who like to play old time music.

WHAT'S COOKIN'

This recipe for Wagon Wheel cookies comes from Patsy Tom and is one of her favorites because they are chocolate and chewy.

WAGON WHEEL COOKIES

2 cups sugar
 4 eggs
 2 tsp vanilla
 1/2 cup melted shortening
 4 sq. melted chocolate
 2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
 2 tsp baking powder
 1 tsp salt
 1/2 cup chopped walnuts

Beat eggs, sugar and vanilla. Add chocolate and melted shortening. Add sifted dry ingredients. Chill several hours in refrigerator. Roll in little balls. Roll in powdered sugar. Bake at 350 degrees in a greased pan for 10-12 minutes. Patsy usually takes them up before they are quite done because they are chewier that way.

Mary McMurry gave an informative delegate's report on her recent trip to Rebekah Assembly in Salem. While there, she took instruction from the Assembly President to serve for District Deputy President of Dist. 20. Her commission was read by the secretary, and she was escorted to the center of the floor to receive lodge honors. The N.G. then presented her with a gift from the lodge.

Frieda Slocum lit a candle and paid tribute to Canada, our neighbor to the North.

Cheer cards were reportedly sent to Charles Ruggles, Marty Buschke, Alta Stevens, Ima McDaniel and Esther Bergstrom.

The state president asked that the lodge's namesake be exemplified, and this meeting be planned around REBEKAH. Opal Cook gave a reading on women of the Bible, and asked the members to read the 24th Chapter of Genesis soon.

A Triple Link meeting followed the regular session. Jo Huston was hostess for the evening, assisted by Opal Cook. Lodge will reconvene in September.

At an earlier meeting, Clara Gertson entertained the members with pictures taken on her recent three-week vacation in the Holy Lands.

Harbor was attacked. "We wore our life jackets day and night for the rest of the way," she remembered.

After nursing duties at the U. S. Naval Air Station and Ford Island at Pearl Harbor, Mrs. Johnson retired following the end of World War II. Among her valued mementoes are certificates of honorable service from the Navy, various medals and her American Legion membership pin and hat.

She is now a freshman member of the Eugene Branch of the National Association of Retired Federal Employees. The 93-year-old Mrs. Johnson is the group's senior member. She lived in Honolulu since her retirement 23 years ago. Upon her arrival in Eugene, she lived with her daughter, Claire Clarke, until entering the IOOF home.

Many items were on the agenda at the Rebecca meeting since this was the last before summer recess. Noble Grand Esther Bergstrom named committee heads as follows: Good of the Order, Mary Batley; Fraternal Press, Pearl Wright; Publicity, Opal Cook and Community Service, Frieda Slocum. These committees serve from June 1 to June 1 of the following year under state committee chairmen.
