

Pink, Roses Accent Schiller-French Wedding

Ann Marie Evans, a cousin of the bride from Irrigon, was flower girl. Seth Miller, Cousin of the bride from Boring, was ring bearer. Bonnie and Bobby Schiller, the groom's sisters, were candle lighters.

Jerry Roberts, a friend of the groom from Portland, was best man. Don Isom, Pendleton; John Schiller, the groom's brother; and Melvin Ashbeck, Echo, were ushers.

Wedding music was provided by Elaine Abbott, Pendleton, at the organ, and Joe Doherty, vocalist.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. French wore a long blue dress, styled on the old-fashioned side with long sleeves, flared skirt and dark blue belt. Her corsage was of blue and white roses. Mrs. Schiller wore a long gown of light blue crepe with a corsage of pink rosebuds.

The color scheme of light and dark pink was used at the reception following the ceremony in Pendleton's Elks Club. Rosebuds centered the tables.

Cutting the cake were Mrs. Vern Evans and Mrs. Larry O'Roark, aunts of the bride. Punch was served by Cathleen and Erin Evans, cousins of the bride. Serving champagne punch were Mrs. David Peterson and Mrs. Joe Rivera, aunts of the bride; Mrs. Bob Fetsch and Mrs. John Dubuque. Coffee was served by Verina's aunts Mrs. Bud Walton and Mrs. Archie Munkers. Marie Evans and Carolyn O'Roark, cousins of the bride, attended the gift table. Mrs. Bill Brewster was in charge of the guest book. Scrolls were distributed by Angela Evans and Julie O'Roark, cousins of the bride.

For going away, the bride wore a white and pink pant suit with white accessories and a white knit hat. After the wedding trip, the couple is at home on the Tony Vey ranch on Buttercreek. Verina graduated from Heppner High School in 1967. She attended Blue Mountain Community College for two years. Before her marriage, she was employed at Credits, Inc., in Pendleton.

Mr. Schiller graduated from Echo High School. He served in the Navy, then returned to the ranch, where he has been living for over a year.

When Albert James Wright made his initial visit to Oregon recently he was privileged to have his picture taken with his mother, Mrs. David Wright (Linda Pettyjohn); his grandmother Mrs. Jim Pettyjohn (Lola Ann McCabe) his great grandmother Mrs. Lonnie McCabe (Ruth Keene) and his great-great-grandmother Annie Campbell Keene. Annie will be 85 in Aug. She is blind but she knits. Some of her things she had made were available at the Ione Auction.

Elks Conduct Services

Heppner Elks Lodge No. 358 conducted funeral services and graveside services for Dale Brown at Longview, Wa. Saturday afternoon. Going down were Clint Agee, Bob Mahoney, Darrel Padberg, Claude Graham, Jerry Anderson and Don Ball.

Mr. Brown formerly farmed in the Eight Mile country. He was active in the Elks and was for three consecutive years Elks State Champion trap shooter.

Uranium Mines Help Arthritis

Mrs. Merritt Gray and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Mabel Gray have returned from the uranium mines at Boulder. Both of them find the sessions in the mines help their arthritis. They went by way of Spokane to take Mabel's sister, Mrs. L. E. Mikesell, to her home.

Maxine went into the mines three times a day for a total of 29 times. An elevator takes people 85 feet down into the ground and then there's a short walk to the big room. Car seats are arranged about the room where people can read, visit even knit. Maximum time people are allowed to stay is a little over an hour. Temperatures are 65 degrees. Heat lamps provide heat and people have blankets over their knees.

Three years ago a woman entered the mines in a wheel chair. In three days she had improved enough that she was able to walk. She comes from Pennsylvania every year for treatments.

The season is not as far along as in Heppner. Lilacs are just coming into bloom. They had a heavy frost one night and there was fresh snow on the surrounding peaks. It's good country for rock hounds.

There were many Amish people there from Pennsylvania, Iowa and Arkansas.

Heppner Garden Club Chartered

"Action for this earth we share" in the national environmental improvement program was the message given the members of Oregon Garden Clubs at its annual convention held recently in Salem. More than 470 members from all over the state gathered on the campus of Willamette University bringing with them handsome floral offerings, year books and scrapbooks for the competition and most of all a desire for action to keep our state beautiful and to encourage others to do so.

The World Gardening chairman reported that in the past year Garden Club members had planted 23,000 trees and 6000 shrubs in Oregon.

Heppner Garden Club was honored by having its charter ratified and President Edwin Cutting was recognized by the assembly. There are 303 garden clubs federated in Oregon and the state is divided into 17 districts.

TO HERMISTON

Mrs. Berke Gentry and Dawna, Mrs. Don Munkers and Donna took Mr. and Mrs. John Hopper to Hermiston June 15. The Hoppers stayed to spend a week in Hermiston with their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hopper. They brought his parents to Heppner on the 22nd.

Mrs. Ray Britt, Mrs. Tom Troxell and Kevin of Spray stopped to visit the John Hoppers Monday afternoon.

They, at Cannon Beach Saturday afternoon, we went into all the shops on Sandpiper Square. Just clever places. Something was said about where I was from... Eastern Oregon... "Oh where it's hot and dry"... come to find out the gal was from Milton-Freewater. She said "When you came in I thought you looked like Judy Heard's mother." She was formerly Louise Solwald. She with another young woman had just opened up the shop. They were both hand loomed shawls and pochos. They had done some clever things with platts and driftwood.

At The Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Morgan of Ione were at the All Oregon banquet Saturday evening along with some other Wheat League people. Ivin Mann spoke at the dinner. The dinner speaker was Thomas R. Shepard, Jr. editor of Look magazine.

Good News

Marcia Young was in this week and says they'll be Adult Swim from 6 to 7 o'clock every evening at the Pool... except Mon. and Sunday. Now I am delighted. Charlie and I can swim fast after work and go home and eat all cool and refreshed. When we could go to 10:17 we never did get to go. Because we couldn't go home and eat and wait and swim before going to an 8 o'clock meeting. I am so glad pleased with the 6 o'clock adult swim.

Money and Volunteers Needed at Neighborhood Center

Methods of funding the Neighborhood Center programs were discussed at the meeting of the Advisory Council meeting Monday evening at the Center.

Committee Urges AA

The newly formed Alcohol and Drug Committee for Morrow County met June 14 and elected Rev. Mark Johnson as chairman. Their first action was to recommend the reinstatement of Alcoholics Anonymous in Morrow County. The committee is an outgrowth of the Mental Health Committee following the Oregon Mental Health Division's Alcohol and Drug Section requirements that every county have a group of citizens to review their county's problems regarding alcohol and drugs and make recommendations.

Attending the meeting were Rev. Mark Johnson, Carolyn Davis, Jerry Sweeney, Jack Loyd and Bob Abrams. Ruth Mudder, also a committee member, was not present at this meeting.

Special guest, Bart Murray, of the alcohol treatment team at Eastern Oregon Hospital gave an explanation of the hospital's program and agreed to act as a consultant to the committee. The major emphasis of his presentation was the need for adequate follow-through in the community by the Mental Health Services and Alcoholics Anonymous.

The importance of AA and the rehabilitation of the alcoholic can not be over-emphasized. For more information regarding AA meetings call the Mental Health Office at 676-9161. Information will be kept confidential.

Jane McRoberts going off the Main Stream program, will no longer be available as an aide at the Neighborhood Center. This will necessitate using more volunteers. Volunteers are needed very much. Volunteers may work a half day or all day from 8:30 a.m. until 5 p.m. Orientation classes will be given to acquaint volunteers with their duties. A log of the day's activities and answering the telephone are two of the tasks that need to be done.

Mrs. Bob Roberts began cooking the Wednesday night suppers the first of June. They have served 127 persons in the last four weeks for an average of 30 people per week. There have been two and three volunteers. She uses dried eggs and milk and other abundant foods that are available. Potatoes for the entire year were donated by D.O. Nelson. Mrs. Bob Lowe usually makes hot breads for the supper using the flours, oatmeal and cornmeal that are available in the abundant foods. The Elks contributed food from their picnic which has been put in the freezer for future use.

LIMITED TIME ONLY Home-Steeds & Heritages only $5.00.

Baskets of pink gladioli and pink taper candles decorated the altar of St. Mary's Catholic Church in Pendleton for the June 9 wedding of Verina French, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond French of Heppner, and Tony Schiller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Schiller of Echo. Rev. James O'Conner performed the Nuptial Mass, assisted by Rev. Raymond Beard, Heppner.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length A-line gown of white organza over taffeta with appliques of chantilly lace and seed pearls. The gown had long, sheer sleeves and detachable chapel-length train trimmed with lace. A finger tip veil of tulle, trimmed in lace, was attached to a crown of lace and pearls. She carried a bouquet of baby pink rosebuds, white carnations and baby breath over her mother's prayer book and a handkerchief, a gift from her grandmother, Nettie Denfon.

Susan French was Maid of Honor for her sister. She wore a floor-length gown of light pink dotted Swiss accented with long, sheer lantern sleeves. A wide-brimmed white hat with a dark pink ribbon completed her outfit. She carried a long stem white rose.

This will be followed by a potluck picnic at the Courthouse Park.

Early Thursday enroute to Seaside for the Publishers convention, we stopped at Arroyo to have breakfast the same time as Mayor Foster (don't recall some rough and tumble days at Hardman). He was hauling wood off the mountains and stopped to make an inquiry at a mountain home. A young man came to the door that had a face Mr. Foster said looked like beefsteak. "What happened to you?" His answer, "It was at Hardman last night. There were seven fights and I was in nine of them."

Small World

While Charlie was at the board meeting Thursday afternoon, I jaunted down the boardwalk. I stopped in a little Mexican import shop. The gal had lived at Pendleton, and her maiden name was Welch. Later I told Charlie about it and the next day I took him back to meet her. Charlie had played with her brother when they were little guys in Pendleton.

JUNE'S BIRTHSTONE
The Pearl
The Alexandrite
and
The Moonstone

The only gem that attains its perfection in the sea, the Pearl is the Queen of Gems. Its special gift is vitality.

The Alexandrite lives two lives in color. By day it is a splendid green, at night it becomes a columbine red. It is an especially favorite stone for men's jewelry.

Still another birthstone for June is the Moonstone. It was regarded as a love charm during the waxing of the moon, an augur during the moon's waning.
