She was met in Honolulu by her son Elmer Mulkins and his daughter Mary. They returned with her to Seattle and she drove home from there. Two Join Army

JEFF MARSHALL
Jeff Marshall has three months to say good-bye to his family and friends.
Jeff has enlisted in the Army Medical Service under the Delayed Entry program.

"The advantage of enlisting in the delayed program is to allow the young man or woman to reserve the school of their choice and the area they would like to be assigned," said Sergeant Jerry Schmadeka, local Army representative.

Jeff enlisted for the Eye, Ears, Nose & Throat Specialist School and selected Fort Carson, Colo. as his choice of assignment.

He is a 1973 graduate of Heppner High School, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Marshall, P.O. Box 151, Heppner, Or.

RICHARD WADHOLM
Richard Wadholt recently enlisted in the US Army. Richard enlisted on May 31, 1973 and is now in Basic Training at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri. Rhea Creek Grange News

"What is more enjoyable than a day in June especially when that day is spent on a picnic in the mountains," so say the Committee of Womens Activity of Rhea Creek Grange. The ladies met at Anson Wright Memorial Park on Thursday for a day of visiting, good eating and of planning summer grange projects.

Anyone wishing to plan or construct a booth for the grange at the County Fair is asked to contact Mildred Wright, Chairman.

The shingling of the Grange Hall was reported completed with a special "thank you" given to those who have contributed in time and money to make this possible. To Harold and Kenneth Wright for the use of their tractor and truck and other aid making it possible to do the job at this time, and to Bob Stevens, Marion Hayden, Gerald Bergstrom, Elmer Palmer, Barton and Ned Clark, and Rudy Bergstrom, also Don Heliker and Larry Sullivan. Now they are waiting for rain to test their work.

There will not be a potluck supper before Grange at the July 13th meeting. The meeting will start at 8:00 p.m. with refreshments afterwards. The CWA will hold their meeting on July 21st at the home of Muriel Palmer, an afternoon meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Barton Clark attended State Grange at Grants Pass as delegates from Pononia and Rhea Creek this past week. Both told a few highlights of her week there and some of her experiences on their trip to Japan. The people of Japan were most courteous and she enjoyed her trip there.

Mrs. Ray Wright shared the history of an uncle and his family, the Cuppers, who came from England in the eighteenth century and settled in the Monument area. They made their home on Cupper Creek, as it was named after the family.

Those attending were Evalyn Farrens, Olla Ruggles, Pearl Wright, Oma Cox, Ray and Eva Wright, Walter and Mildred Wright, Velva Bechtolt, Judy, JoJean and Johnny Stevens, Mary Wright, Beth Clark, Enma Drake and Muriel Palmer.

Hardman Reunion Pleases Many

By CASSANDRA CHAPEL
Time stood still for a few hours on Father's Day when 105 Hardmanites gathered at the Hardman Community hall for a reunion.

The day started with invocation by Wayne Leathers followed by a potluck noon dinner. This dinner featured all the best from the kitchens of those who attended. Wayne Leathers of Long Creek, was Master of Ceremonies, telling some of his early experiences as a boy in Hardman. (We are still wondering who the gal was he danced his first dance with.) He gave a detailed and amusing account of his first plane ride.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Leathers were in charge of the plans for the reunion and many thanks go to them from all who attended. Wayne gave special thanks to Margaret Prophet Rutledge for her fine job of advertising, to Sam and Debbie McDaniel for cleaning the hall and to Juanita Carmichael - for her help and support.

After dinner, old time dancing followed. Music was furnished by Earl Cramer and Wally Ralston of Hermiston and Mrs. Clarence Howell of Irrigon.

Johannes Home From Minnesota

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Johannes are glad to be home again after a vacation trip as far east as Swansville, Minnesota. Here they attended a family reunion on Father's Day. While they were there Mrs. Johannes' mother and sister and brother-in-law came from Green Bay, Wisconsin to meet them.

Enroute to Minnesota the Heppner couple had gone through Glacier National Park and into Kevin, Montana. Here they visited a brother Mr. Johannes hasn't seen in 30 years. Business took them to Thunder Bay, Canada before going to Minnesota.

Mrs. Clarence Howell of Irrigon.

The out of state home comers were - Harold Cox of Dallesport, Wash.; Bernard Cox of Lyle, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Archie Leathers and family of Boise, Idaho; Mrs. Margaret Thomas of Walla Walla; Mrs. Sylvia Leathers Lake formerly of Southern Calif., who has recently moved to Union.

Tad Osborn of Toppenish, Wash.; Joe Bowden of Fresno, Calif. (who came the farthest to spend the day with old friends.)
The oldest person there was Frank Howell of Monument and the youngest gal was Janeal Griffith who is a few months old.

Name plates were worn as time has a way of making changes. The same officers were held over for next year.

Dreaming of the days of Yore Happy Memories to recall We will meet again in '74 At the Hardman Community hall.
See you then and bring someone!

Anna Davenport, former Spray residents, Mrs. Venie Anderson of Brookings was the oldest guest present. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Stirewalt had the most children present.

Approximately 600 guests were present for the two day school reunion. People came from Oregon, Washington, California and Idaho.

In 1976, another reunion has been scheduled.

The reunion committee is to be congratulated on the success of the event.
