Over The Tee Cup

By MARIE McQUARRIE
There were certainly some very important "tee leaves" left out of the TEE CUP last week, and I take the whole blame and promise to do better from now on. All this is about the omission of reporting a scheduled barbecue at the clubhouse for Sunday, July 1.

The barbecue was a fun affair, with Hazel Mahoney and Cista Venard as hostesses. The sun did shine and the wind did not blow, so it was really golfing weather.

Four foursomes and one twosome and guests, who were there for visiting, enjoyed the day. Everyone shooting their own ball was the play. Cindy Kerr with a 40 won for the women (won't say by how many strokes she beat her dad) and Clint McQuarrie, with a 33, received the ball for the men.

A change in schedule (please note and try to understand) is on the agenda. Condon WILL NOT be here on July 8 as formerly planned. Instead, there will be a barbecue here this coming Sunday, with those listed for hosts for the 29th being the committee for heading this barbecue on the 8th. All clear?

To make it more clear - in case you have misplaced your Bar-B-Cue paper - the Ed Heimstras, John Edmundsons, Maurie Groves and Hugh Salter are on the list to head this event. A to I will bring dessert and J to Z, salad.

As to future dates, Willow Run of Boardman will be here July 22. Condon will come over on the 29th.

Soroptimists end busy year

The Heppner Soroptimists Club held initiation, installation and heard a report on Saturday evening on activities of an outstanding year.

The events followed a buffet supper at St. Patrick's Parish hall. Mrs. Conley Lanham as master of ceremonies made introductions. Guests included members from La Grande, Pendleton, Kenewick-Pasco, Coos Bay, Portland and The Dalles. The Heppner Club was honored to have Dorothy Berry, Northwestern Regional governor came from Portland for the special evening.

Charter Members

Charter members recognized were Elaine George, Eleanor Gouty, Ida Farra and Etta Parker.

For the best attendance, Justine Weatherford was presented the silver attendance bowl. Birdine Tullis gave the service report. John Maatta sang two numbers, "Shadrack" and "How Great Thou Art", accompanied by Ola Mae Grosheas.

Berta Brooks came especially from Coos Bay to install Marlene Peterson as president.

Birdine Tullis, vice president; Evelyn Sweck, secretary; Vi Lanham, treasurer; and Ola Mae Grosheas, board member. Eleanor Gouty and Madge Thomson arranged the initiation for Rita Wolff, the new member.

Last year's officers were Dorothy Heard, president; Mary Eleanor Gilman, vice president; Evelyn Sweck, secretary; Alice Soward, treasurer; Elaine George and Eleanor Gouty, board members.

Among its contributions to the community, the Heppner Soroptimist club has adopted a new long-term identifying project. The first step was accomplished this year with the construction of the planter at the north gate to Heppner. The planter is made of native Columbia River basalt and has been planted to red and white petunias. The beautifying program will continue on in towards town. Club colors, blue and yellow, were used about the room in the flowers, corsages, name tags, place cards and programs. Elaine George and Daisy Collins arranged the dinner and installation. The dinner was served by the women of St. Patrick's Church.

As we join together to celebrate this Fourth of July, let us remember that, above all, this is a day to show our gratitude to our forefathers for their great fortitude and vision in establishing this great nation upon the foundations of freedom, and their steadfastness in upholding that freedom.

Let us affirm our faith in the principles for which they stood and pledge anew, dedicating ourselves unswervingly to the ideal that liberty may ever endure.
