Patricia Witters weds Lovgren family reunion

Patricia Ann Witters became the bride of Michael Allen Edwards of Onalaska, Wash., at a 2 p.m. ceremony June 23 at the Boardman Community Church.

The double ring service was performed by Pastor Neil King before an altar decorated with two large bouquets of yellow roses and white daisies. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hilton Witters of Boardman and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Edwards of Onalaska.

Denise Henkle of Boardman played the nuptial music.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white silk organza over satin with embroidered daisies. It was fashioned with a scoop neckline, empire waist and leg-of-mutton sleeves. Her fingertip veil of illusion net was held in place with a tiara. She carried a bouquet of white daisies with a cascade.

Fran Witters of Pendleton was her sister's maid of honor, and wore a floor-length gown of print organza over green with daisies and butterflies. Bridesmaids were Debra Hug and Martha King of Boardman and Debbie Hickey of Kennewick, Wash. They wore identical gowns of print organza over yellow with daisies and butterflies, fashioned with scoop neckline, puffed sleeves and empire waist. They carried nosegays of yellow and white daisies and had daisies in their hair.

Patty Sue Flint, niece of the bride, was flower girl and Randy King was ring bearer. Patty wore a dress identical with the maid of honor. The bride's gown and those of the attendants were made by the bride's mother.

Jerry McMahan of Mossy Rock, Wash., brother-in-law of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Don Harper of Boardman, Eugene Riesley of Boardman, and Ollie Penfield of Chehalis, Wash.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Fellowship Room at the church. The three-tiered cake, decorated with yellow daisies and topped with three white bells, was cut and served by Carolyn Svatonky of Kennewick, Wash., sister of the bride. Mrs. Bob Hickey of Kennewick served the coffee and punch. Susan Ball had the guest book and Patsy Skoubo was in charge of the gift table.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Witters wore a floor-length gown of turquoise chantilly type lace over satin, which she made herself. The groom's mother wore a street-length dress of blue crepe with cowl collar, and blue lace puffed sleeves. Both had corsages of yellow roses and white carnations.

The bride is a 1973 graduate of Riverside High School and the groom is a graduate of Onalaska High School. After a trip to the Oregon coast and Northern California the couple is living in Chehalis, Wash., where the groom is employed by Modulare Industries.

For going away the bride wore a white pant suit with yellow and white checked top. Guests attending were from Olympia, Chehalis, Centralia, Mossy Rock, Maple Valley, Kent and Onalaska, Wash., and Pendleton.

MILLY EVANS VISITS SAFARI

Milly Evans is back from a visit with relatives at Gresham, Salem and Roseburg. At Roseburg, she visited the Wild Life Safari. She says it is wonderful and "There's lots more animals there than I realized." There's water buffalo, camels, zebras, tigers, lions, elephants and lots of birds.

The 100 acres formerly belonged to Marion Krebs, Mrs. Don Evans' brother.
