

Judith Dee Jones weds in Ashland

During an afternoon ceremony July 7 at the First Baptist Church in Ashland, Judith Dee Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marcel Jones, became the bride of David Paul Denning, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hollingshead of Lost Lake, Ca.

The service was performed by Pastor Roy Kooshian, assisted by Tim Denning, brother of the groom.

Preceding the service a program of music was furnished by Mrs. Roy Kooshian, organist. Karen Peterson sang "One Hand, One Heart." Music of the bride's mother's favorite song, "My God And I," was played as she was escorted to her seat, and the groom's mother's favorite song, "Higher Ground," was played as she was escorted to her seat. "Joy" was played as attendants walked down the aisle.

For benediction prayer, Mrs. Kooshian played the "Lord's Prayer."

The bride walked to the altar with her father, who gave her in marriage. She wore a floor-length dress of organza accented with lace and seed pearls. A Juliet cap with lace and seed pearls held her veil, extending into a train. She carried a white Bible covered with lace and topped with a bouquet of stephanotis, centered with mums. For something old she carried in her Bible an old lace handkerchief belonging to her grandmother.

Charlene Kaldahl was maid of honor, and Monica Jones, sister-in-law of the bride, and Elizabeth Seat, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids.

They wore mint green empire waistline dresses covered with tiny flocked flower buds. The dresses were lined with mint green, with mint green sash with bow in back extending to floor. They carried nosegays of stephanotis and mint green carnations and ivy.

Dale Favre served the groom as best man. Ushers were Ron Jones, brother of the bride, and Wendel Seat, brother-in-law of the groom.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the recreation room of the church. The room was decorated with fresh cut flowers, ivy and candles. A three-tiered cake was topped with fresh tiny mint green and white carnations surrounding a gold cross with two rings entwined.

Mrs. Herman Green friend of the bride, and Mrs. Paul Jones, aunt of the bride, served the cake. Mrs. Floyd Jones, aunt of the bride, and Sue Andrews poured coffee and tea and Mrs. Jesse DeQuine was at the punch bowl. Margaret Green helped at the gift table and Linda Shofstall was in charge of guest book.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Jones wore a mint green dress with lace coat and the groom's mother wore a blue and white dress with blue jacket.

After a short wedding trip the bride and groom will be at home in Ashland where the bride is teaching special education in the Ashland elementary school and the groom is employed with the Bureau of Land Management in Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Frederickson are shown here following their marriage at Boardman on June 30. After a wedding trip to California, the couple are at home in Irrigon.

Buzz and Kate Lynch treat their employees

An unusual picnic was held at Cutsforth Park, Sunday, July 22. It was given by Buzz and Kate Lynch for their employees, and they also furnished all the food and beverages for the picnic.

The picnic started out to be for employees only, but ended up with half the townspeople attending. Most of the women brought salads and desserts, but Buzz furnished over 70 pounds of fried chicken for the group, which totaled over 100 people.

In order to have the picnic, the couple just closed the doors to their establishment. Sunday is a good business day, especially for restaurants and bars. "I have a good bunch of employees and they need a day off once in a while just to relax and have a good time," Buzz said.

Everyone present participated in some sort of activity. They pitched horseshoes, played baseball, had sack races, fished, even had a sack race for those over 60. This was not the type of picnic where only a handful of people do all the work while the rest sit around and drink beer and complain about the food!

Youngsters were told tales by older citizens about the days when elk and deer were shot "just a ways from here."

Some children even tried their hand at fishing. Some of the youngsters roasted marshmallows and weiners for older folks, then sat around waiting for more stories about "the good old days."

This picnic may become an annual affair.

Gene Garrett, 5, and Marty Brannan, 6, put their feet together as they race toward the finish line in the sack race. Scenes as this were common during the Lynch picnic at Cutsforth Park, Sunday.

Soroptimists are hosts to the 'Court'

Each member of the Morrow County Fair and Rodeo Court spoke of the summer's happenings when they were guests at the Soroptimist luncheon Thursday.

Even though she doesn't swim Queen Jeanne Daly enjoyed the all-day swim party at Lehman Springs.

Princess Kathy Bartlett mentioned the fun-day at Portland and eating at the Rhinelander. Princess Kathy Gilbert told about the taped interview made for TV. Later they were guests of Princess Patricia Hughes at breakfast and saw themselves on television. "I didn't say it that way," was the most common remark. Sherri Kemp told of their upcoming trip to Chief Joseph Days and the gondola ride.

Everything had been said by the time Princess Patricia was reached, and she said "It's a great summer."

The Court was recently honored at a luncheon given by the Tillicum Club at Boardman. They toured the "recycled depot" which the Rupe Kennedys have transformed along original lines into a home.

The two chaperones told how they really get to know the girls as they travel from one event to another. Donna Peterson said "funny things keep happening, but they happen to me." Clista Venard, who has no children, treasures her associations with the court as "her family."

Mothers of the girls were also guests at the luncheon, as was Ernie Ceresa, photographer for the Gazette-Times.

Surprise dance honors the Gene Halls

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hall, Heppner, were hosted at a surprise dance at Hardman, July 3, to celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary.

There were approximately 75 guests and relatives present.

Gene Rietmann and his group, Lone, furnished the music, playing old-time favorites.

The surprise dance was the idea of the Hall's two sons, John and his wife Terry, and Dave and Nancy.

Refreshments of punch and cake decorated for the Silver Anniversary, were served.

Also in attendance, but too young to offer any congratulations was Jodi, the Halls' six months old granddaughter.

Prior to the dance a dinner was held for the Halls at the Ethel Mahoney residence. The dinner was attended by relatives and close friends of the couple, June 30.

Club in study session

Over 100 varieties of flowers, shrubs trees, vegetables and weeds were identified in Mrs. Fred Martin's yard, where the lone Garden Club held its July 11 meeting.

Mrs. Martin divided members into groups for the contest to identify and categorize the plants as annuals, bi-annuals or perennials.

Heppner and lone delegates, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cutting and Mrs. Van Hubbard, gave their views on the state convention held at Salem in June.

Mr. Cutting was impressed with this year's flower arrangements. For each arrangement on display, the arranger made one in the same likeness while the audience observed.

Mrs. Cutting reported on a program concerning lichen, which is a large group of mosslike plants consisting of algae growing in close association in patches on rocks and tree trunks. It is not a parasite and does not affect the material on which it grows. Its value in relation to ecology is that its growth determines the amount of air pollution present. It is sometimes used in flower arrangements and displays. Look closely at some of the old "barn" picture frames and you will find it there, too.

A special farewell and good wishes written by Vida Heliker to Bobby Driscoll, Bebe Munkers, Rita Wolff, and Doris and Edwin Cutting (lone Garden Club members who are joining new affiliated Heppner Garden Club) was read by Mrs. Lee Pettyjohn.

Mrs. Gar Swanson presented Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cutting (Heppner members who attended) with corsage and boutonniere she had made.

Members and their guests, Mrs. Elsie Fox, Lexington, enjoyed a salad luncheon at noon. Mrs. Wilma Martin and Mrs. Fred Martin were hostesses for the day.

The remainder of the afternoon was spent enjoying slides of the regional and national convention shown by Mrs. Martin.

Next meeting will be Aug. 8. Place and program to be announced later.

IONE W.A.C. PLANS AN AUG. 5 PICNIC

The Ione W.A.C. met at the city park July 20 and planned a picnic for Grangers and their friends, Aug. 5 at 4 p.m.

Five dollars was sent by the organization to the Dream of the Deaf, and members learned that Mary McElligott has won the C.W.A. scholarship from this area and that Mrs. Berie Akers has been appointed chairman for Dist. 6.

A report was given on State Grange proceedings. Hellen McCabe won one of the door prizes.

Next meeting is the Aug. 5 picnic.

PORT OF MORROW HAS NEW HOME

The Port of Morrow Commission has moved its office to No. 1 Marine Drive, the old Boardman Depot, on the waterfront at the entrance to the Port lands.

Regular Port meetings are the second Thursday of each month at 4 p.m. in the post office at Boardman.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Flatt are at home in Condon following a wedding trip to Hawaii. The couple were married in June.

Padberg reunion to meet a visitor

Forty members of the Padberg family gathered for a reunion Sunday at Ione Park, and to honor a visiting kinsman, Kriemhild Padberg of Hamburg, Germany.

Miss Padberg has taught English at the gymnasium in Hamburg, equivalent to the American high school, for the past five years. She is here on a 2 1/2-week visit, after which she hopes to visit other American cities on her first trip to the United States.

Miss Padberg was impressed with the surplus of teachers in the U.S. "It is quite different in Germany, where there is a shortage of teachers in all subjects," she said.

Among those attending the reunion were: Mr. and Mrs. John Eubanks, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Harr, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Halverson, Mark Halverson and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Padberg, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Rea, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin

Padberg, Mrs. Pearl Kruse, Michael Missetich;

Mrs. Eva Griffith, Mrs. Colleen Padberg, Luke Padberg, Wade, Buster and Bill Padberg; Mr. and Mrs. Archie Padberg; Mrs. Orris Padberg, Mr. and Mrs. Elden Padberg, Jill Padberg, Earl Padberg, Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Kincaid and Ralph Kincaid.

PATTI HEALY

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Healy of Heppner are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Patti, to Dr. Frank Merritt, son of Mrs. Dale Oakes of Cheyenne, Wyo., and Dean Merritt of Denver, Colo. Miss Healy is a Heppner High School graduate and received her B.A. degree from the University of Oregon. Dr. Merritt is a graduate of Colorado State University School of Veterinary Medicine, and has an equine practice near Seattle. A Sept. 10 wedding is planned at St. Patrick's Catholic Church.

MARTHA PIERCE

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Pierce are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Martha, to Dennis McQuinn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don McQuinn of Spray, Ore. The couple plan a late summer wedding.
