At the Fair Square dancing, weeds, melons

This year those who gathered in the picnic area beyond the snack shack on Tuesday evening really had their fun.

The first event was an open-to-all weed identification contest sponsored by John Jepsen, Dobyns Pest Control, Ione. Twenty demonstrated their skills. The winner was Tad Miller, Lexington, who identified all but two of the plant pests displayed. He won a book, "Weeds of Eastern Oregon and Adjacent Areas," by Xerpha Gaines and D.G. Swan. Charley Daly, Butter Creek, was 2nd with all but four correct. His prize was a can of B-11F insect repellent foam. This was a first-time contest.

The second feature was really the evening's main event, two eight-person circles displayed their square dancing techniques. The 16 dancers belong to the 4-H Square Dance Club at Irrigon, which has about 60 members led by Gladys Hobbs.

The junior square included Peggy Brandt, Jack Brasel, Cynthia Mathew, Wayne Huwe, Eddythe Brasel, Leroy Scoles, Billie Brasel and Kieran Haney. The girls wore lavender print full-skirted dresses and the boys wore in lavender shirts and Levis.

The eight senior dancers were Lisa Mittelsdorf, David Cooley, Cristy Brandt, Bobby Cooley, Jyl Hobbs, Larry Wilson, Lori Russell and Scott Daniels. These girls wore long dresses, and their partners wore color-coordinated shirts and jeans.

The squares danced to records. Each performer was rewarded with a blue ribbon and a silver-coated U.S. dollar.

The third and final event featured juicy watermelons donated by the Clarence Fredricksons, Irrigon. Several fun-type watermelon eating contests were held, as was the "melon for everyone" treat at the close of the evening's entertainment.

Bill Scott, Cal's Cafe, Heppner won the comic award for this entry. With the price of beef as it stands today, it may not be that funny. However, Bill wants to assure his customers that he is still serving beef, even though the state has approved horse meat for service in restaurants.

Over The Tee Cup Parade winners

By MARIE McQUARRIE

Golf, no doubt, took a back seat to Heppner's full fair and rodeo week, but we did have some visitors from out of town who used our course while here.

The men had their regular schedule play, Aug. 22. Low gross was won by La Verne Van Marter Sr.; low net, Bob Jepsen; closest to the pin, Dave Campbell; and long drive, Doug Gunderson.

Sunday, Aug. 26, a former Heppnerite, Howard Gilliam, son of Earl Gilliam, nearly swept the field. He had low gross, closest to the pin and long drive. Ed Hiemstra copped low net and Dennis Martin, least putts. Howard Gilliam must play a lot of golf on those long courses in Spokane, which put him in good shape for Willow Creek.

Glad you went down and joined the fellows, Howard.

Our next to the last scheduled barbecue for the summer will be held Sunday. The Bob Kellys and Clinton McQuarries will be the ones to run the play for the day. Since the evenings are cooler and it is getting dark a little earlier, it was decided to start the play at 3:30 p.m. Bring your meat(?) and enjoy yourself. A to I brings salad and J to Z, dessert.

Many thanks to Frances Doherty for turning in the men's scores for the week to the writer, all this summer. This is definitely a big help, rather than having to run down these results.

Don't forget: barbecue at 3:30 on Sunday.

Parade, rodeo on TV for two complete runs

Patrons of Heppner TV's Cable Channel 3 can watch the 1973 Rodeo and Parade in its entirety on two separate showings—Thursday, Aug. 30, 7 p.m., and Sunday, Sept. 2, 7 p.m.

Carl Spaulding, manager, said local television set owners will be able to see the whole colorful affair, just as it was. The programs will consume about three or four hours of viewing, Spaulding said, for those those who want to relive the whole scene.

Cameraman Lane Pratt of Columbia Television, Kennewick, Wn., was in Heppner both days to videotape the celebration.

Susie French underwent major surgery Aug. 27 at St. Anthony in Pendleton and is expected to remain hospitalized for about a week. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond French, Heppner.

You're on Television!

has been videotaped and will be shown in their entirety on Heppner TV's Cable Channel 3:

THURSDAY, AUG. 30, AT 7 p.m., AND SUNDAY, SEPT. 2, AT 7 p.m.

Don't Miss It!

Heppner TV wishes to thank Columbia's manager, Dick Pew, and local origination director, Lane Pratt, for making these two showings possible.

We also wish to thank Jack Van Winkle of the Sears Catalogue Store, Bill Weatherford of the Heppner Laundromat, the Rodeo Board, and all the others who assisted Heppner TV in organizing this program.

Heppner, placed third.

The buggy entered by Bill Brannon, Heppner, was rated first.

Andy Gorman was awarded first prize in the bicycle class. Steve Messick was second and Sheridan Sweek was third.

Best juvenile costumes were worn by cowboy, Steve Currin, and cowgirl, Amy Murray.

The 4-H Two Trackers club was first place in juvenile riding clubs.

QUEEN JEAN DRAWS GLOBE WINNER

After the livestock auction Thursday, Queen Jean came to the World Book display booth to draw a name. She reached up into the well-filled basket holding a collection of names and selected the slip reading Gladys A. Jones.

So, Morrow County Judge Paul W. Jones may have the whole county under his thumb, but his wife suddenly outdid him when she got the whole world in her hands.

Justine Weatherford, representative for Field Enterprises, publishers of World Book products, delivered the globe with its accompanying booklet and record to Mrs. Jones at her U.S. Forest Service office Friday morning.

YOUNG TRACTOR DRIVERS RATE HIGH IN STATE

Word has come that three Morrow County tractor-driving competitors won blue ribbons at the State Fair.

Skye Krebs was judged 2nd most skilled, and Dan Akers and Stuart Keene won blue ribbons. All three are residents of Ione.

At the county fair last week these three earned their right to go to the State Fair by winning the 4-H FFA tractor contest. In a class of eight, Dan Akers placed 1st, Skye Krebs, 2nd, and Stuart Keene, 3rd.

4-H MEMBERS RATE HIGH ON HOGS

Ratings on Hampshire market hogs were: Karen Richards, Irrigon, champion; Joe Mollohan, Heppner, reserve champion; blues to Robert Richards, Irrigon, Robin LaRue, Ione, Jerry McElligott, Ione. Red awards: Julie Grieb, Lexington, Kitty Bellamy, Heppner, and a white award to Scott Acock, Irrigon.

York market hogs, Dan Van Schoiack, Heppner, champion; Donald Richards, Irrigon, reserve champion; blue awards to Bill and Anne Van Schoiack, Heppner; Geri Grieb, Lexington, Kristi Hagewood, Heppner. Reds went to Shawn LaRue, Ione, Mary Daly, Heppner.

Grand champion 4-H market hog was Karen Richard's, Hampshire, reserve grand champion market hog was Joe Mollohan's Hampshire.

In the breeding gilt class Jackie Mollohan, Heppner, became champion and Larry Palmer, Heppner, won reserve champion. Wade West, Ione, received a red award.

PUBLIC RELEASE

Morrow County School District R-1 today announced a free meal policy for school children unable to pay the full price of meals served in schools under the National School Lunch and School Breakfast Programs.

Local school officials have adopted the following family size-income criteria for use in determining eligibility:

FAMILY SIZE	INCOME
1.....	$ 2,740
2.....	3,600
3.....	4,460
4.....	5,310
5.....	6,100
6.....	6,890
7.....	7,600
8.....	8,310
9.....	8,960
10.....	9,600
11.....	10,240
12.....	10,880
Each additional family member	640

Children from families whose income is at or below those shown are eligible for free meals. In addition, families not meeting this criteria but with other unusual expenses due to unusually high medical expenses, shelter costs in excess of 30 percent of income, special education expenses due to the mental or physical condition of a child, and disaster or casualty losses are urged to apply.

They may do so by filling in the application forms sent home in a letter to parents. Additional copies are available at the principal's office in each school. The information provided on the application will be confidential and will be used only for the purpose of determining eligibility. Applications may be submitted any time during the school year.

In certain cases foster children are also eligible for these benefits. If a family has such children living with them and wishes to apply for such meals for them, they should contact the school.

In the operation of child feeding programs, no child will be discriminated against because of his race, color, or national origin.

Under the provision of the policy the school principal will review applications and determine eligibility.

If a parent is dissatisfied with the ruling of the official he may make a request either orally or in writing to Ronald Daniels, Superintendent, whose address is Box 368, Lexington, Oregon 97839 for a hearing to appeal the decision. Hearing procedures are outlined in the policy.

A complete copy of the policy is on file in each school and in the office of the Morrow County School District where it may be reviewed by any interested party.
