

Ione

By EVA HAMLETT
The Ione Garden Club met at the home of Mrs. Irene Padberg at Lexington, Aug. 14.
Mrs. Kenneth Klinger and Mrs. Elsie Fox were co-hostesses. Mrs. Bill Rawlins of Heppner gave a talk on arrangements, and several members brought arrangements to be judged. They discussed having a booth at the Morrow County Fair, and Mrs. Wilma Martin was appointed chairman. Assisting her were Mrs. Kenneth Palmer and Mrs. Elsie Fox. Eight members were present and one guest, Mrs. Lyle Allen of Lexington.
The next meeting will be Sept. 12, meeting place to be announced later. The subject will be on weeds, and members are asked to bring unusual weeds to be named and classified.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Thornton of Monmouth spent from Aug. 17-27 visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Matthews.

Beth Bartalamay returned to her home at Odessa, Wn., after a 10-day visit with her sister, Mrs. Dick Sherer, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Hubbard returned home Aug. 25 after a 10-day trip to Vancouver, British Columbia. Hubbard went up for medical treatment, and Mrs. Hubbard attended the Province Annual Fair at Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. Garland Swanson arrived home Thursday from a week's vacation visiting relatives in Salem, Oswego and Portland.

Dick Snyder and Gerry Pettyjohn returned Friday from a trip to Calgary, Canada. They stopped in East Glacier Park, Mont., to visit Clint Krebs.

Carole Lee, Judith and Robin Barnhart of Redmond returned home Monday after spending a week visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sherer.

Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick Martin, granddaughter, Melene Martin of Othello, Wn., and daughter, Mrs. Al Brazell, and her children, Kathleen and Brian of Castle Rock, Wn., drove to Modesto, Ca., last week to attend the wedding ceremony and reception for Mr. Martin's niece, Janet Mason and Calvin Wilson, both of Modesto, were married in Reno, July 22. On Aug. 18, they were remarried at the Methodist Church in Modesto in the presence of family, relatives and friends. All of Mr. Martin's brothers and sisters were present for the occasion.
Before returning to Ione, Martin attended United Church of Christ conference committee meetings in Portland and Boise, Idaho.

Mrs. Ruby Johnson of Winlock, Wn., is visiting her uncle, Wallace Matthews, and family. Arriving Tuesday were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tjomsland and Mr. and Mrs. Micheal Lander and children from Roseburg. They are all on their way to Canada, and left Ione on Tuesday. Wallace Matthews accompanied them to Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Berl Akers Jr. of Pine Ridge, S.D., are parents of a son, Michael Wesley, born Aug. 15. He joins three sisters, Ramona, Rhonda and Robin. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Berl Akers Sr. of Ione and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Pond of Pine Ridge. Mr. and Mrs. Berl Akers Sr. left Aug. 16 to drive back to South Dakota, returning home the 24th.

Guests of Mrs. Ida Coleman over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Pete Crawford, Patti and Tim, Mrs. Sid Hall, the former Nancy Crawford, and son Bill, all of Portland, and Mrs. Jerry Minger, the former Linda Williams, of Sherwood.

Katherine and Karen Ekstrom have been visiting their grandmother, Mrs. Ida Coleman, for the last two weeks. Their father, Dick Ekstrom, arrived Monday to take the girls back to their home in Seattle.

Visitors over the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Connor were Mrs. Ruth Thorne and son Craig of Eugene.

Mrs. Linea Nottage of Portland came up for the Morrow County Fair and Rodeo, and is visiting friends in Ione and Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Johnson arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Rietmann Aug. 22. They returned to Salem Sunday. Johnson taught shop in the Ione school system several years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Bailey of Portland spent the weekend in Ione visiting friends. The Baileys owned the tavern in Ione several years ago.

Mrs. Elsie Fox of Lexington is cooking at Beechers Restaurant, replacing Helen Gutierrez, who is taking a week's vacation before starting cooking at the Ione School.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Childers, Lori and Roger, are vacationing at Hazard Lake in Idaho this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Morgan and Earl Morgan attended the annual Morgan reunion at Mt. St. Michaels in Spokane, Aug. 24-26. They did not have as large attendance as in previous years, and it was decided to hold the reunion in Spokane again next year so members could also attend Expo. 74.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Barnett of Portland arrived Saturday to get his mother, Mrs. Esther Barnett, and take her back to Portland for medical treatment.

Melene Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Martin, returned to her home in Othello, Wn., Saturday after visiting and traveling with her grandparents to Maupin, Lake Oswego, Castle Rock, Wn., Modesto, Ca., and attending the Morrow County Fair in Heppner. Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Martin drove her home.

Ione Junior High football practice will begin Sept. 4. All 6th, 7th and 8th grade boys planning to participate in football must have a physical and provide their own shoes. Shoes should be of a soccer style. If anyone wants more information, contact Coach Jerry Martin.

Notice to the graduation students of classes 1932 thru 1938: The reunion to be held Sept. 2 has been moved from the Ione City Park to the Ione High School cafeteria. We would appreciate those living close to bring meat or hot dishes, so those away may bring salads and desserts.

Butz to tour tussock moth area Friday

Secretary of Agriculture Earl L. Butz will take a personal look at the tussock moth infestation in northeastern Oregon and southeastern Washington on Friday, Aug. 31.
This is the first time a cabinet officer will have visited the area where many thousands of acres of forest have been ravaged by the insect.

Regional Forester Theodore A. Schlapfer, Forest Service-USA, said will go by helicopter from La Grande into the tree-killed area for an on-the-ground inspection. Earlier this month, Assistant Secretary of Agriculture Robert W. Long visited the region.

The trip to La Grande is part of a 10-day visit to Western states by Butz and his top assistants. Butz has moved Department of Agriculture office operations to the University of California at Davis until Sept. 2 in order for him and other USDA officials to make visits to Arizona, Colorado, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, Texas, Utah, Washington, and Wyoming in addition to California and Oregon.
On Aug. 30, the Secretary and his party will make visits to Spokane, Wenatchee, Battle, and Olympia, before going to La Grande and Portland.

Purposes of USDA-West are (1) to examine department programs and activities, (2) report to the people, and (3) discuss with farmers, consumers, and the general public ways to improve Department of Agriculture services.

5-year-olds to register by Friday

Parents of 5-year-old children are asked to register them for kindergarten at the Heppner Elementary school office on or before Friday, Aug. 31.

Kindergarten sessions will begin Tuesday, Sept. 4. The morning session will run from 8:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. This time is reserved for bus students so they may take advantage of the available school district bus runs for one-way transportation. The afternoon session will run from 12:30 to 2:30 p.m. This time is reserved for those children living in town or not on a regular bus route.

The first day afternoon session will run from 12:30 to 1:30 due to early dismissal.

Boardman
