

MR. AND MRS. DAVID HANNA

Sandra Lynn Holm, David Hanna, wed

Sandra Lynn Holm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Holm, Dallas, became the bride of David Lee Hanna, son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Hanna, Heppner, Aug. 11, at 2 p.m.

The ceremony was officiated by Pete Unrau in the Evangelical Mennonite Brethren church in Dallas, Ore.

The church was decorated with baskets of white gladiolus, daisies, and chrysanthemum tied with yellow bows. Brass candelabras with yellow candles adorned the altar at which the couple lit white memory candles. The pews were trimmed with yellow bows.

Organ music was provided by William Stapleton. Erik Vorguild played the guitar and sang the selections, "First Time Ever I Saw Your Face" and "For All We Know."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an A-line dotted swiss gown fashioned with a subrina neck trimmed in Venice lace, full bishop sleeves and attached long train, edged at the bottom with a Venice lace ruffle. Her elbow-length veil of Venice lace was crowned with a camelot cap. The bridal bouquet was a cascade of white carnations, yellow garnet roses and gypsophelia.

Maid of honor was Jeanin Holm, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Christine Bonn, Kendra Wilfing and Sue Greenup. The attendants wore floor-length yellow dresses embossed with flowers, short puffed sleeves, accented with moss green velvet ribbons tied at empire waists. They wore yellow picture hats and carried nosegays of yellow daisy chrysanthemums, pink miniature carnations and white staccos. Lennie Hanna acted as his brother's best man. Ushers were Terry Corbin, Doug and John Dubuque. The bride's brothers, William and Kevin Holm were candlelighters. Ringbearer was Kerry Rilling.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Holm wore a mint green polyester crepe dress with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Hanna, wore a double knit green and beige print dress with beige accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of white carnations with yellow garnet roses.

In the church reception room, the bride's table was decorated with brass candelabras with yellow candles centered with yellow and white daisies and gypsophelia. The four-tier wedding cake was topped with fresh flowers and circled with white daisies. The bride's aunt, Mrs. W.L. Wang, served as hostess. Mrs. Dale Sturm and Mrs. Arlie Holm, aunts of the bride, cut the cake. Mrs. Terry Christman, Mrs. C.B. Boylan and Miss Abra Muller poured. Scrolls were given by Lorene and Lynnette Sturm. Favors: Arlene Holm and Kelly Rilling.

Out-of-area guests included Sumiko Onosato of Yokohama, Japan, who chaperoned visiting Japanese 4-H students to Heppner.

The bridegroom graduated from Heppner High School in 1965, attended Blue Mountain Community College for two years and is currently employed at Kinzua Veneer Plant.

The bride graduated from Perrydale High School in 1969, Emanuel School of Nursing in 1972, and was employed at Emanuel Hospital. She will be a part-time employee at Pioneer Memorial Hospital.

After a wedding trip to Yellowstone National Park, Benchland, Mt., the couple is at home in Heppner.

Kindergarten group set fund raisers

The A.C. Houghton Kindergarten Association will have a booth at the Boardman Harvest Festival, Sept. 8, and will serve dinner at Willow Run Golf Course, Sunday, Sept. 9, as fund-raising projects.

The group will also have a Hunter's Breakfast in Boardman the evening before the opening of deer season.

There are 16 students enrolled in kindergarten, which begins Tuesday, Sept. 4, and follows the same calendar as the school district.

New officers of the organization are: Jim Graham, president; Perry Pummel, vice-president; Janet Cooley, secretary; and Marilyn Stewart, treasurer. Elaine Nelson will again be the kindergarten teacher.

The next meeting of the group will be at Riverside Junior-Senior High School, Tuesday, Sept. 18, 7:30 p.m.

Campaign set for Breath of Life

The Breath of Life Campaign will be held in Heppner, Sept. 10-16. Volunteer workers will ask for donations from area residents.

The funds collected will be used for research on children affected by damaging diseases such as cystic fibrosis, serve asthma, chronic bronchitis and childhood emphysema. Children's lung diseases diagnosed early can receive specialized treatment.

The five warning signs of these diseases are: recurrent wheezing, cough heard frequently for more than two months, pneumonia more than one during childhood, excessive appetite -- but poor weight gain, and clubbing (enlargement) of the ends of fingers.

The following volunteers will be making house to house calls: Mrs. Mike Saling, Mrs. Charles Heard, Mrs. Stanley Cox, Mrs. Frank Hamlin, Mrs. Paul Heinrich, Mrs. Arnie Hedman, Mrs. William Heath, Mrs. Ries Schultz, Mrs. Elmer Steers, Mrs. Don Munkers, Mrs. Clayton Sweek, Mrs. Don Bennett, Mrs. Riley Munkers, Dianna Cox and Kay Munkers.

Bookworm Club meets Sept. 11

The Heppner Bookworm Club will begin its 1973-1974 year with a potluck dinner at W.W. Weatherford home on South Court St. at 6:30, Tuesday evening, Sept. 11.

Marian Brosnan is handling arrangements for the supper. The evening program will include election of new officers and the planning of the year's activities.

This historic literary club is limited in its membership to 12 persons who are serious readers and who enjoy sharing book reviews.

John Rawlins and rattle-snakes, who left Heppner Aug. 21, arrive in Ithaca, N.Y., on time for a 2 p.m. meeting of Cornell University teaching assistants on Friday, Aug. 24.

Antique cars on parade

If you've never seen a 1906 Sears & Roebuck automobile, the kind you used to order by mail, you missed the high point of the antique car entries in the parade Saturday morning.

The old car purrs like a well-fed kitten for its owner, Harold Peck. Winners in the antique car division were:

1st, Ed McCallum, Hermiton, 1921 Ford delivery hack, 2nd, Clinton Shultz, Hermiton, 1929 Ford Sedan; all-round, Harold Peck, Heppner, 1906 Sears & Roebuck.

BEVERLY DOHERTY BAKES BEST WHEAT LEAGUE CAKE

Seven women entered the Morrow County Wheat League cake baking contest.

The winners were: 1st, Beverly Doherty, Ione; 2nd, Betty Christman, Heppner; 3rd, Mrs. Melvin Moyer, Heppner. Mrs. Doherty will now go to compete in the state Wheat League contest.

Mrs. Doherty's name will be the first name engraved on a new Wheat League Cake Winner's plaque donated this year by O.W. Cutsforth.

This fall when she competes during the State Wheat Grower's Conference, Mrs. Doherty could win $100 with this year's chocolate chiffon cake.

Summer ends, meetings are resumed

Quite a few women's clubs are scheduling meetings these days as their members swing into fall activities.

Wednesday, Sept. 5, at 7:30 p.m., the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Heppner United Methodist Church met in the church basement.

Saturday, Sept. 8, at 11 a.m., the Heppner Branch of AAUW meets in the Robert Duncan home on Aiken St. Ernest V. Joiner, editor-publisher, will speak. Fall activities will be discussed.

Monday, Sept. 10 at 8 p.m., the first fall meeting of Ruth Chapter, O.E.S., will be held in the Heppner Masonic Hall. Lorraine Ladd, worthy matron, will preside.

Tuesday, Sept. 11 at 6:30 p.m., the Bookworms will gather for a fall potluck at the W.W. Weatherford home on South Court St. New officers will be elected.

Joan Christman to be married

Mr. and Mrs. Cedric Christman of Hardman have announced the engagement of their daughter, Joan, to Scott McDaniel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil McDaniel of Burns.

The bride-elect is a 1973 graduate of Heppner High School. Her fiance graduated from Heppner in 1972 and is employed as a logger for Sam Hurd, Burns.

An Oct. 5 wedding is planned.

Marianne Pettyjohn will be married

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Pettyjohn, Ione, announce the engagement of their daughter, Marianne, to Joseph E. Sharp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Sharp, Prineville.

Miss Pettyjohn is a 1971 graduate of Ione High School. She attended Central Washington State College in Ellensburg and will transfer to Oregon State University this fall as a business education major.

Mr. Sharp is a graduate of Crook County High School in Prineville and Oregon College of Education at Monmouth. He is an English teacher and head wrestling coach at Central High School in Independence.

No wedding date has been set.

MR. AND MRS. CARL BAUMAN

Bauman-Fisher rites read in Eugene

In a double ring ceremony, Margaret Fisher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl O. Fisher, Eugene, became the bride of Carl J.D. Bauman, son of Mr. and Mrs. C.J.D. Bauman, Heppner.

The ceremony took place at St. Paul's Catholic Church in Eugene, Aug. 18, at 11 a.m. Father Scott of St. Paul's read the service.

The bride, given marriage by her father, wore a white batiste, floor-length gown fashioned in empire style, with bell sleeves, scooped rounded neck with a white collar, and eyelet trim around sleeves, collar and hem.

Maid of honor was Sarah Fisher, sister of the bride, and Elaine B. Twigg, Costa Mesa, Calif., was bridesmaid. The bride's attendants wore pink and white checked gingham floor-length dresses, featuring empire waists, smocked sleeves and white pique collars. They carried nosegays of pink roses, pink carnations and white daisies.

Jennifer Whitbread, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a floor-length pink and white checked dress with a white pique collar and carried a small basket of white daisies and pink roses.

Best man was Jack C. Holt, brother of the groom, and John C. Fisher, the bride's brother, was usher.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Decorations were prepared by Mrs. Keith Rodman from her garden.

Serving were Mrs. Richard D. Blickenstaff, Mrs. Monte Montgomery and Mrs. Keith Rodman. Johanna Fisher, sister-in-law of the bride, was at the guest book.

After a honeymoon at the family cabin on the McKenzie River, the couple are at home in Anchorage, Alaska.

The bride attended Southern Oregon College. The bridegroom attended the University of Oregon and UO law school, and is now an attorney.

Sgt. David Wright and wife, Linda, and baby son, A.J., have moved from Wichita, Kas. to Heppner. David has been discharged from the Air Force and has returned to help his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wright, run the ranch.

Dean Wright and wife, Cindy, have left Heppner to attend college at Treasure Valley. Dean will be taking agricultural courses and will play football. Cindy will be employed by the Ontario public school system as a teacher's aide.
