

Lone High grads in reunion

By EVA HAMLETT

The turmoil of today's world was forgotten and the pages of time returned to the 1930s on Sept. 2 when the graduating classes of 1932-33 gathered at the Lone High School cafeteria for a reunion.

Registration began at 10 o'clock, and name tags were given. Time has a way of changing outward appearance, but inwardly the same spirit and friendliness of 40 years ago still prevails.

Classmates attending were: 1932—Frances Ely, Salem; Ralph (Gibson) Isackson and Jean Huston Dobbs, Pendleton; Muriel Patterson Palmer, Heppner; Joe Engleman and Lewis Buschke, Ione.

1933—Margaret Ely Akers, Ruth Keene McCabe, Charles Carlson and Charles O'Connor, Ione. 1934—Robert Botts, Hermiston; Claude Brashers, Lyle, Wn.; Raymond Lundell and Leo Young, Eugene; Theodore Thompson, Washington, D.C.; Foster Odum, Arlington; Alfred Nelson Jr., Berl Akers, Donald Heliker and Earl Pettyjohn, Ione.

1935—Harriet Heliker Bolman, Seattle, Wn.; Ellen Nelson Mason, Oregon City; Dimple Crabtree Munkers and Alice Patterson McCabe, Heppner; Clifford Yarnell, Madras; Howard Eubanks, Arlington; Dot Crabtree Halvorsen, Eva Swanson Hamlett, Paul Pettyjohn, and Lloyd Morgan, Ione.

1936—Charlotte Ferguson Mannen, The Dalles; Miriam Hale Leavengood, Albany; Ruth Kitching Payne, Lebanon; Harlan McCuroy Jr., Pomeroy, Wn.; Eugene Normoyle, Portland; Mildred Lundell Morgan, Ione. 1937—Merle Baker, Clifford Carlson, and Wallace Lundell, Portland; Joyce Carlson Darst and Charlotte McCabe Lundell, Eugene; Bert Mason Jr., Oregon City; Rollo Crawford and David Baker, Ione.

1938—Ruth Voorhees, Portland and Jane Huston Rawlins, Heppner.

Teachers present were George Tucker, Spokane, Wn., and Mrs. Frances Stewart Carlson of Ione. Guests, other than husbands and wives, were Mrs. Beulah Lundell and Susan Normoyle of Portland; Terri O'Connor and Bill Busby of Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Rietmann and Mr. and Mrs. John Edmondson of Ione.

Around 11 o'clock, Mr. Edmondson, principal of Lone Schools, took those who have been away for a long time on a tour of the grade school and new high school buildings. Many were amazed at the changes in the grade school, which once housed both grade and high school.

At noon, after grace was given by Alfred Nelson Jr., a potluck dinner was enjoyed. Seated at the head table were Mr. and Mrs. George Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. John Edmondson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carlson, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Nelson Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen.

If an "Oscar" had been given, Dot Halvorsen would have earned it for her performance as master of ceremonies.

After welcoming the group, she introduced Mr. Tucker, who was principal here for seven years. Eva Hamlett introduced the reunion committee, Charles O'Connor, Margaret and Berl Akers, Fred Nelson, Dot Halvorsen, Paul Pettyjohn and Mildred Morgan. She also introduced John Edmondson and his wife, Pat, Ernest Joiner, publisher, and Ernie Ceresa, photographer, Heppner Gazette-Times.

Letters were read by Harriet Bolman from classmates who wrote letters on their activities but who were unable to attend. They were Charles Lundell, Fremont, Ca., and Opal Finn Todd, Paramount, Ca. Incidentally, Opal was celebrating her 30th wedding anniversary the same day. Many were disappointed that two teachers, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Riggs, Salem, were unable to attend, a letter was read from them, and also from former principal Antone Lindstrom of Milwaukie.

After a brief moment of silence, a memorial was given by Dimple Munkers in remembrance of Nortan Lundell, Norman Everson, Paul Smouse, Leo Lieuallen, Walter Bristow, Jane Collins, Myrtle Green and Herbert Davidson, classmates who have died.

Awards were given for the one coming the greatest distance, which was a year's subscription to the Heppner Gazette-Times, won by Ted Thompson of Washington, D.C. Other gifts for the oldest teacher (not in age years but in time taught here) went to George Tucker; most children to Bob Botts and Dave Baker; most grandchildren to Ruth McCabe; changed the most in looks, Leo Young; and quite a number participated in the next category, baldest man present, Charles O'Connor.

The afternoon was open to the public and many from Ione, Heppner, and other areas attended the program which consisted of talent from the classes. Tucker gave a short speech on where he had been since leaving Ione, and about his family. Don Heliker and Bob Botts sang some of the old songs, with Bob accompanying on the guitar. Dimple Munkers gave a reading she learned when in high school. Gene Normoyle, accompanied by Wallace Lundell, sang several songs, followed by Dot Halvorsen with a reading. The group sang the school song, and Dot and Harriet, former cheerleaders, led a couple of yells. They were a little rusty, but were able to compete with the younger high schoolers in spirit, which was prevalent all day long.

The remainder of the afternoon was spent in visiting. Greetings were sent from several who planned to come, but were ill. Dr. Ralph Thompson, Henry Buschke and Bruce Keene were all ill.

As the evening dwindled away, there was a note of sadness of parting, but most old grads felt that this was one of the most enjoyable days of their life, and will hold a front page in their book of memories.

There were no goodbyes, only exclamations of, "See you all in 1978!"

event most mentioned was: On the last day of school, about 6 o'clock in the morning, all high school students would come dressed in heavy coats, and with the food they were to bring, and pile into trucks for a day's outing in the mountains. Along towards evening they would pile back in the trucks and come into Heppner to attend the movie at the Star Theatre, then home, tired but happy.

As the evening dwindled away, there was a note of sadness of parting, but most old grads felt that this was one of the most enjoyable days of their life, and will hold a front page in their book of memories.

There were no goodbyes, only exclamations of, "See you all in 1978!"

There were no goodbyes, only exclamations of, "See you all in 1978!"

Boardman residents view harvest produce before it was auctioned off during the Boardman Harvest Festival. Proceeds from the auction went to the Boardman Kindergarten.

Driver license fees going up, naturally

The Motor Vehicles Division says it will cost more to drive a car in Oregon beginning Oct. 5.

New fees approved by the 1973 Legislature to make the state's driver license program self-supporting take effect that date.

People who apply for a motorcycle endorsement on or after Oct. 5 will pay a new fee. They will pay a one-time $3.50 fee to have a regular driver's license endorsed to operate motorcycles.

Increase on other driver license fees will range from a low of 50 cents to a high of $6.

An instruction permit to learn to drive will increase from $1 to $3. An original driver's license fee will range from $3 to $6, depending on how near the applicant's birthdate is when the license is issued. It will cost $4 to renew a driver's license. The $1 increase is the first basic driver license fee increase since 1922.

The highest fee increase will be for reinstatement of a license that has been suspended. That fee will go from $2 to $6 with the added fee intended to cover costs of personal service of suspension notices when a certified mail notice is returned by the post office.

Other fees to be collected are: original chauffeur license, $2 to $6, depending on the applicant's birthdate; combined original driver-chauffeur license, $5 to $12, again dependant on the applicant's birthdate; combined driver-chauffeur renewal, $6.50; and duplicate license when lost, stolen or mutilated, $2.

Cost for obtaining certified driving records will increase from $1 to $2.50.

The agency estimates that the fee changes will produce an additional $2,248,000 in revenue during the 1973-75 biennium and will mean the agency will no longer have to "borrow" from motor vehicle registration fees to support driver license activities.

Earl Hallock dies in Salem

Earl D. Hallock, 83, died recently in a Salem hospital.

Mr. Hallock was born and raised in Heppner, attended schools here, and worked in the old Farmers & Stock Growers Bank that went out of business during the depression of the early '30s.

He was manager of the Central Oregon Production Credit Assn. in Redmond, Wn., for 21 years before moving to Salem in 1957. In Salem, he served as assistant manager of the Willamette Credit Assn. for several years and was also trustee in bankruptcy for the Federal Court.

Surviving are the widow, Virginia Lee; two sons, William of Redmond, Wn., and David of Belleville, Ill.; and four grandchildren.

Mr. Hallock resided at 840 Ree-Del Court NE in Salem.

Heart attack claims former Heppnerite

Former Heppner resident, John (Jack) Aiken, 45, died of a heart attack Aug. 31, in Riverside, Ca.

He was born in Heppner, April 5, 1928, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Aiken. His father preceded him in death.

Mr. Aiken attended Heppner schools until he was high school age. He moved to Bend and graduated from Bend High School.

He was the owner of a realty business in Riverside at the time of his death.

Survivors are his wife, Carol; son, Jeffrey; daughter, Mimi; his mother, Mrs. Muriel (Peggy) Pearce of 5503 N. 48th, Tacoma, Wn.; aunts, Mrs. Faye Prock and Mrs. Morris Elder, both of Heppner; and numerous cousins in the area. Besides his father, Paul, a sister, Jane Aiken, and a daughter, Rebecca, preceded him in death.

Funeral services were held in Riverside, Sept. 4.

MONMOUTH — Chester Phillips of Boardman, a 1973 of Oregon College of Education, has taken a teaching position in Sheridan.

Phillips will teach language arts and coach football at Chapman Grade School in Sheridan.

COUNTY GET PAY OFF IN FOREST EARNINGS

Oregon and Washington counties with National Forest lands will receive nearly $60 million in receipts from National Forest earnings in fiscal year 1973, an all-time record.

Morrow County's share is $112,350.25.

DR. NORENE'S VETERINARY HOSPITAL WILL BE CLOSED From Sept. 18 thru Sept. 25

In Heppner Every Thursday at Lott's Electric
T.V. SERVICE
RCA TRAINED TECHNICIANS
VIDEO-TECH, INC.
 461 A E. Main St., Hermiston 567-3882

The Energy Crisis—Real or Imagined

Blue Mountain Community College in concert with the public utility industry and the school systems of our two county area will make a one night presentation free of charge to the citizens of Heppner dealing with the energy crisis.

Background information to understand the reasons for our present electrical energy shortage will be made available. Additional information to allow the individual homeowner to determine the cost of electricity in the home as well as tips to both conserve electricity and save money will be reviewed.

The program will be held at the Heppner High School cafeteria on Monday, September 24, from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m.

It is free of charge, and the public is encouraged to attend.

Heavy Hand Split Shakes

while they last

$30 per sq.

1/4 x 4 x 8 sanded plywood 3.49
 Pre-hung doors 22.50
 Cedar siding, per 1,000 100.00

TUM-A-LUM LUMBER
 Hermiston 567-5588

Bob and Jan Oswalt

of

THE OFFICE

Ione

Thank You

for making our open house such a huge success last week. We are so appreciative that we are making this ad worth on the price of one of our large, delicious pizzas. Just clip this ad, bring it to The Office in Ione, and have a ball!

50¢

Blue Mountain Community College

—Adult Education and Community Service— 1973

HEPPNER-LEXINGTON

BASIC PHOTOGRAPHY Starts Sept. 24 - Monday 7-10 p.m. Instructor: Shear. Tuition: $15.00. Senior High School

The course is for the beginning and amateur student of photography. Theory and laboratory procedures will be combined to develop a working knowledge of the basic principles and fundamentals of general photography.

FARM HYDRAULICS Starts Sept. 24 - Monday 7-10 p.m. Instructor: Timmermann. Tuition: $15.00. Senior High School

A course designed to give the student a detailed knowledge of hydraulic power transmission in fluid flow brakes, pumps, power steering units, fluid couplings, torque converters and power accessories.

ACCOUNTING PROCEDURES Starts Sept. 26 - Wed. 7-10 p.m. Instructor: Pilgrim. Tuition: $15.00. Senior High School

A continuation of class started in spring. Includes bookkeeping cycle with special journals and subsidiary ledgers as well as an introduction to automated data processing.

SLIMNASTICS Starts Sept. 25 - Tues. & Thurs. 7-8:30 p.m. Instructor: Doherty. Tuition: $15.00. Junior High School

The course is a personal improvement and body conditioning program for women to learn to exercise properly and maintain a good physical condition through exercise and proper diet.

PAINTING AA290 2 Cr. Starts Sept. 25 - Tues. 7-10 p.m. Instructor: McDevitt. Tuition: $15.00. Lexington School Building

Course will introduce the student into the use of oil color and other painting media.

Students may enroll, pay fees, and purchase books at the first class meeting. A minimum of ten students is required for each class. For additional information, call Earnest Teal, Lexington School District Office, 989-8123. Registration will not be accepted after the second week of classes.

ADULT BASIC EDUCATION, GED, and ADULT HIGH SCHOOL DIPLOMA PROGRAMS are being conducted in Heppner. For more information, call Anne Doherty 676-5050.