

MR. AND MRS. TED SHERROW

August wedding for Christie Lee Taylor

Christie Lee Taylor, daughter of Avery Taylor of Hermiston and Mrs. Clifford Wood of Heppner, became the bride of Theodore Robert Sherrow Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Sherrow of Umatilla, Aug. 11.

The ceremony was read by Pastor Gary Peterson at Trinity Lutheran in Hermiston.

For her color, the bride chose blue, green and white. Bouquets of gladiolus and mums decorated the church. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white, five-tier lace gown accented with a hoop and fashioned with long filled sleeves and a sweetheart neckline, decorated with sequins and pearls. A full-length lace train was attached. The bride wore a chapel veil decorated with sequins and pearls. She carried a cascading bouquet of blue roses and white carnations.

Maid of honor was Tana Rauch of Heppner. Bridesmaids were Peggy Ann Taylor, sister of the bride, Heppner, and Dee Ann Wagner, Pendleton. The attendants wore blue floor-length empire style voile dresses flocked with white flowers. The short puff sleeves were trimmed with flowers. They carried long-stemmed white gladiolus tied with blue bows. Best man was Michael Jewett, Cary Sherrow, brother of the bridegroom, and Richard Eldridge served as ushers and candlelighters.

Hope Lutheran offers courses

Two courses are being offered this fall at Hope Lutheran Church.

The first is a nine-week course on Genesis 1-11. The course will be designed to get at the meaning and the purpose of these chapters. This class will begin on Wednesday, Sept. 19, 8 p.m., at Hope.

The second course is a study in contemporary literature. This class will meet once a month during the school year. The purpose of the class is to read and discuss (on an informal basis) some of the books which have recently been published. It is designed to read and discuss one book each month.

This class will begin on Sunday evening, Sept. 16, 7 o'clock at Hope Lutheran Church.

For more information on either of these courses, contact Pastor Mark Johnson, 676-9940.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Crabtree, Cecil, and their grandson, Ashley McCabe, Ione, went to Pullman, Wn., Friday to celebrate Jim McCabe's 11th birthday. The Crabtrees were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Veltkamp and family.

Linda Kay Rice is married in Fossil

Linda Kay Rice became the bride of Larry Ray Conklin in a 7:30 p.m. ceremony on Sept. 8 in the Kinzua Community Church with the Rev. Howard Davis of Fossil officiating at the double ring service.

Large white baskets of white gladiolus and purple carnations, accented with large purple bows, and gold candelabra with lavender candles adorned the altar.

Organist, Mrs. Robert Kelson, accompanied Don Slinkard, uncle of the bride, as he sang, "Love Me Tender" and "The Twelfth of Never."

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard W. Rice of Kinzua and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey W. Conklin of Fossil.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a floor-length gown of organza over satin with appliqued daisies around the cuffs of the sleeves and around the bottom of the gown. Her chapel length veil had appliqued daisies and was held in place by a Juliet cap. She carried an arrangement of purple, lavender, and pink carnations, centered with a lavender orchid.

Maid of honor was Sara Bowman, who wore a long dress of lavender and white embroidered cotton. Bridesmaids were Theresa Hyatt, Mrs. Michael Ball, sister of the groom, and Janene Brown, niece of the groom.

Candle lighters were Paul Brown, nephew of the groom, and Robert Hulett. Ring bearer was Don Oylar of Bend, cousin of the bride, with Shannon Shaffer of Fossil as the flower girl.

Best man was Ken Shaffer, cousin of the groom, and ushers were Vic Bowman, Jerry Luther and Mike Rice, brother of the bride.

The mother of the bride selected a floor-length deep pink gown and wore a deep pink orchid while the mother of the bridegroom wore a floor-length gown of blue and white, and had a yellow orchid.

A reception followed the ceremony in the social room of the church. The room was decorated with lavender and purple streamers accented with white wedding bells. On the lace over lavender table, was the three-tiered heart shaped wedding cake, in the bride's colors of purple, lavender, and white, topped with a cluster of satin bells. The cake was flanked with purple candles.

After the couple shared the first slice of cake, it was served by Mrs. Don Slinkard and Mrs. Paul Oylar, aunts of the bride. At the punch bowl was Mrs. Lee Bailey while Mrs. Alice Donnelly, aunt of the groom, poured coffee. Rice bags were passed by Cynthia Bowman with Jason Shaffer passing wedding scrolls.

Maryhelen Wehrli was in charge of the guest book while the gift table was attended by Kim Humphrey, Bernadine Wherli and Kathy Jellick. The couple had a short wedding trip after which they are making their first home in Fossil.

The new Mrs. Conklin is a 1973 graduate of Wheeler High School with Mr. Conklin a Wheeler High graduate of the class of 1969 and of Blue Mountain College in 1972. He is employed by the Condon, Kinzua, and Southern Railroad.

Bookworms elect, plan meetings

After their fall potluck dinner at the Weatherford home on Sept. 11, the Bookworm Club members held their first meeting of the school year.

Inez Erwin was elected president and Lucy Peterson, vice-president. Ella Smith will continue as bookchecker and Justine Weatherford as secretary-treasurer.

Madge Thomson, Inez Erwin and Pauline Winter got together a tentative schedule for the meetings to be held on most of the 2nd and 4th Tuesday evenings this year. It was agreed that the March exchange meetings with the Lone Topic Club would continue.

The next meeting, Sept. 25 will be at Helen Currin's Butter Creek home where Florence Green will present the book review.

How to get the most from the meat dollar

Food shoppers who are interested in getting the most from their meat dollar are invited by Extension Home Economist Molly Saul to sign up for a correspondence course on meat buying.

This course, "You-The Informed Meat Buyer," is open to all shoppers in Umatilla and Morrow Counties.

The course will include information on identification of cuts of beef, lamb, and pork; meat grades and how to recognize quality; federal and state meat inspection regulations; cost per serving of the various meat cuts; seasonal supply and seasonal demand for meat; basic principles of meat cookery, and preparation and selection of poultry. Economy hints on both meat buying and meat cooking will be emphasized. Oregon State University and U.S. Department of Agriculture bulletins will be distributed with each assignment.

Information will also be given on the pros and cons of buying meat for the freezer. Those considering buying a beef for the freezer, but aren't quite sure whether the investment will pay off with money savings or family satisfaction, the course material may help in making the decision.

The correspondence course is open to all men, women and teenagers in the two-county area. It is especially suited to the needs of women who are home-bound because of small children or other responsibilities that make it difficult to attend meetings. Information has been tailored to the needs of the young homemaker who needs help to provide her family with wholesome, high quality, properly prepared meat at a cost that will fit into her budget.

The lesson material was written by Velma Seat, Extension Food Marketing Specialist, Oregon State University. Assignments will be distributed, read, and handled by home economist Molly Saul. Certificates of completion of the O.S.U. correspondence course will be distributed at the completion of all assignments. The course is noncredit and no grades are given.

The course will start Oct. 1 and continue through a period of 10 weeks. There will be five assignments, spaced two weeks apart. Advance registration must be made. The deadline for enrolling is Sept. 24. There will be a $1 registration fee to handle the cost of bulletins and supplies provided.

Those interested in enrolling are asked to telephone or write to Molly Saul, Extension Service, P.O. Box 1107, Pendleton, 276-7111. Extension 300. Enrollment may also be made through Birdine Tullis, at the Morrow County Extension Office, Box 397, Heppner, 676-9642.

Weekend movie retreat for students

On Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 22-23, the high school students from the Hope-Valley Lutheran Parish will be having a movie retreat in Portland.

They will be seeing two movies, "Jesus Christ Superstar" (which is based on the popular rock opera); and "Godspell" (based on the Gospel of Matthew). They will be leaving around noon on Saturday, staying overnight in a church in Portland on Saturday evening, and then returning to Heppner on Sunday evening.

For more information concerning this retreat, contact Pastor Mark Johnson at Hope Lutheran Church.

DR. AND MRS. FRANKLIN MERRITT

Patti Healy is wed at St. Patrick's

Patti Healy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Healy, Heppner, became the bride of Dr. Franklin Merritt, son of Mrs. Dale Oakes, Cheyenne, Wyo., and Dean Merritt, Denver, Colo., on Sept. 10.

The ceremony was read by Father Raymond Beard, at St. Patrick's Catholic Church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an ivory hand-tucked jersey empire-style gown with an ivory jersey veil trimmed in pearls. She carried a bouquet of purple carnations, pink roses and white baby's breath.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Dave Eckman, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Susan Healy, sister of the bride; Missy Merritt of Cheyenne, sister of the bridegroom; and Judy Frei of Washington, D.C. The attendants wore Victorian print pink and lavender dresses with dropped gathered waists, featuring short fluffy sleeves. They carried nosegays of baby's breath and pink and purple miniature carnations.

Best man was Andy Tillard, Douglas, Wyo., cousin of the bridegroom. Dan Dalton, Seattle; Jim Merritt, Casper, Wyo.; and Rusty Worley, Sterling, Colo., were ushers. Ring bearer was Shawn O'Rourke.

Organist was Mrs. Robert Kelly. Joe Doherty sang the wedding selections, "A Time For Us" and "Wedding Prayer." The wedding reception was held at St. Patrick's Parish Hall. Serving were Teresa Harshman, Portland; Mrs. Jon O'Donnell, Klamath Falls; Mrs. Robert O'Rourke, Pendleton; Mary Healy; Mrs. Walter Hoff, Pendleton; and Mrs. Ted Palmateer.

Sue Greenup attended the gift table and Jean and Janice Healy were at the guest book.

The bride chose a grey knit jacket, red top and cuffed grey plaid pants for her going-away ensemble.

After a wedding trip to the Pendleton Round-Up, the couple is at home in Kirkland, Wn.

The bride is a University of Oregon graduate with a bachelor of art degree in history with a degree in secondary education.

Her husband graduated from Colorado State University School of Veterinary Medicine and is employed at Woodinville Horse Hospital.

State artists to weekend

The League of Oregon Artists will hold its fall meeting in The Dalles, Sept. 22-23.

Events start with registration at The Dalles Art Center, 4th and Washington Sts., Saturday, from 10 a.m. Guided tours are planned for the afternoon. There will also be an art display with a cash award for the most popular art work.

The evening program will be slides and a talk on European art by Mark Hopkins, who has recently returned from two years in Italy. Hopkins previously spent a year in residence with Mark Tobey, world-known Seattle artist now residing in Switzerland.

The two-day program will culminate with a breakfast business meeting Sunday. Reservations for Saturday dinner and Sunday breakfast must be made ahead. More information may be obtained by contacting League Secretary Dorothy Luthy, Rt. 4, Box 179A, The Dalles, Or. 97058, phone 296-4037.

Speaker to define an Oregon woman

What is expected of you as an Oregon woman in the 70s? What are your responsibilities to yourself, your husband, your children, and your community? How do you develop and maintain a healthy self-image?

These subjects will be discussed by Roberta Frasier Anderson, Extension Family Life Specialist, Oregon State University, when she speaks in Umatilla and Morrow counties, Monday and Tuesday, Sept. 24-25.

Her topic, "you, the Oregon Woman," will be presented Sept. 24 at 130 at the Vert Club Room, Pendleton. The same program will be presented Tuesday, Sept. 25 at 1:30 p.m., in the Heppner High School multi-purpose room. Following each program there will be a coffee hour where those attending will have the opportunity to meet and visit with Mrs. Anderson.

The county-wide program is being sponsored by the Home Extension advisory committees in Umatilla and Morrow counties. It is the kick-off for the year's full and varied Home Extension program.

MRS. ROBERTA ANDERSON

Mrs. Robert Ranslam, Pendleton, and Mrs. Ken Nelson, Lexington, are in charge.

All homemakers and interested persons are invited to attend. Extension Home Economist Molly Saul emphasizes that the program is of interest to everyone, and is not an exclusive extension function.

Planners speak to Soroptimists

Are you able to explain the difference between a subdivision and an addition? Have you studied the city and county zoning regulations?

After hearing Mayor Jerry Sweeney and City Planning Commission Chairman Randall Peterson Thursday noon, Soroptimist understand more than they did about these matters.

The speakers came fortified with diagrams of the city and its recent and near-future growth. Chairman Peterson talked especially about the sub-division which is planned for the area above the Pioneer Memorial Hospital.

Mayor Sweeney continued the presentation and told about some of the highway and street changes that must come with the preliminary work for the Willow Creek Dam.

President Marlene Peterson encouraged the club members to voice questions and to make a careful effort to understand planning problems and possible solutions.

NEW DAUGHTER FOR THE GEORGE VAN SCHOIACKS

A daughter, Sharon Jean, was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Van Schoiack, Sept. 4 at Good Samaritan Hospital, Portland.

The father is a former Heppner resident, and Mrs. Van Schoiack is from Hermiston.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Murl Strain, Hermiston, and Elizabeth Van Schoiack, Portland. Great-grandparents are Martha Van Schoiack, Heppner, Elizabeth Barclay, Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. George Frank, Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Reo J. Russell spent last weekend visiting their children in St. Helens and Clatskanie.
