

Mike Howell 'denounces' the weed

Mike Howell, Morrow County extension agent, addressed 12 members of the Lone Garden Club Sept. 12 at the country home of Wilma Martin.

Weeds were denounced as definite problems in Howell's discussion in which he stressed methods to rid gardens of the pests. Different types of sprays for different types of weeds were recommended. However, for the vegetable gardener, Howell described the "hoe in hand" method as the safest way to combat unwanted plants.

What Sally didn't know is that 10 minutes boiling destroys botulism anyway. If that much danger existed, a lot of us wouldn't be here today, because our grandmothers canned loads of beans with apparently few if any casualties.

Actually, frozen beans are better, and the 15 minutes boiling before serving automatically eliminates any such problem. But, if you do not have a freezer, by all means can your beans, using proper sterilization methods.

For freezing or canning fruit there is a new product on the market called Fruit-Fresh. You can drop the fruit as it is peeled, into water containing a few spoonfuls of the powder, and it doesn't discolor. For their free booklet, write Fruit-Fresh Recipe Offer, Dept. Many women, hearing Sally Quinn (CBS' answer to Barbara Walters) remark that she was not about to can any beans because of botulism, might just decide to do the same.

What Sally didn't know is that 10 minutes boiling destroys botulism anyway. If that much danger existed, a lot of us wouldn't be here today, because our grandmothers canned loads of beans with apparently few if any casualties.

clove of garlic, 6 peppercorns, 4 hot red peppers, 1 clove, 1 flower of dill, 1 quarter unpeeled apple, 3 or 4 green hot peppers and 2 pieces of rhubarb—in each jar. Bring to a boil 2 quarts of vinegar, 1 quart of water and 1 cup coarse salt. Pour over cucumbers and seal. May be used after five days.

ON THE SUBJECT OF ROSES:

Rose Petal Jelly
Use fresh (half opened) fragrant roses, preferably red. Half red and half orange shades gives a nice color. Do not use white, pink or yellow, or you will have green jelly. Dunk whole roses through at least two bowls of water, keeping it fresh, and put separate petals through two more rinse waters to be sure no tiny mites remain.

Pack petals tightly in crockery or similar heat resistant vessel, cover with boiling water and lid or aluminum foil. Let steep but do not boil.

until all color and fragrance is extracted from petals. Strain through thin cloth.

To 1 and 3/4 cups of this infusion, add 3 1/2 cups sugar and 2 tablespoons lemon juice (strained).

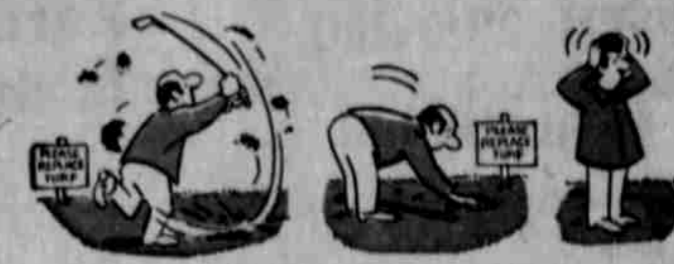

Bring to rolling boil, add 1/2 bottle of Certo, boil hard one minute, skim and pour into sterilized glasses. Makes about four 7-oz. glasses. Lovely red, fragrant and delicious.

Rose Hip Jam

The nicest rose hips for jam are the orange colored ones. A climbing rose called Coral Dawn has extra large hips that make an apricot-colored jam. When hips are ripe, remove stamen, wash and cover with water in heavy saucepan. (do not use metal). Simmer until tender. Mash with potato masher and allow to stand overnight. Sieve, but do not strain through cloth. Proceed as with Rose Jelly.
