HOSPITAL NEWS

Patients admitted to Pioneer Memorial Hospital this week are Madge Bryant and Donald Hough, both of Heppner; and John Madden, Lone Rock.

Helen Hinton and Ralph Burcham, both of Heppner, have been dismissed.

Only about 43 per cent of the consumer dollar spent for farm grown produce goes to the farmer, 68 cents out of each $1. spent on choice beef, 3.4 cents for the wheat in a 25 cent loaf of white bread, and 36 cents from a 10-pound bag of potatoes retailing for $1.11.

When cooking corn on the cob, particularly if not just cut, add a cup of milk (if you can afford it!) to the boiling salted water before dropping the corn, and cook in the usual way. It will be tender and delicious, and will stay that way for several hours if kept warm.

By Fenny Javer

If your climate permits, do plan to have a fall garden. Try turnips, broccoli, cabbage and cauliflower. Also onions and beets (Burpee Seed Co. Riverside, California 92502, has yellow beets and also new this year, yellow zucchini and yellow bell pepper).

A coldframe is fine for lettuce and radishes and for an early start of any transplantable vegetable.

And start planning your spring garden now. Tuck some cabbage plants among your roses - they are related you know.

Speaking of roses, master gardener Jerry Baker suggests using your old or off-color lipsticks (and what gal doesn't have 'em?) instead of pruning paint when cutting roses or pruning them. Any stems more than 1/4 inch should be painted, whatever the time of year. Lipstick does the job and can be carried in your pocket. Looks gay too!

Keep a quart jar in the refrigerator and pour into it any water left from cooking any vegetable. Use it in soups or stews, or freeze for future use. Freeze stock from cooking meats and fowls.

When cooking corn on the cob, particularly if not just cut, add a cup of milk (if you can afford it!) to the boiling salted water before dropping the corn, and cook in the usual way. It will be tender and delicious, and will stay that way for several hours if kept warm.

Sauté ground beef with chopped onion and desired seasoning, fold into white sauce in which cheese has been melted, and alternate in a casserole with sliced fresh-cooked zucchini; top with buttered bread crumbs and bake 30 minutes.

Of course, you can stuff zucchini with almost anything and it's good. Try cottage cheese and seasoned tomatoes, ground meat with tomatoes, or just Spanish rice.

And if you haven't tried Manicotti, this is a good time to do it:

The sauce can be made ahead of time, or you can but Ragout Sauce: Heat 1/2 cup oil in dutch oven, saute 1 1/2 cups chopped onion and one clove crushed garlic five minutes; mix in 1 2-pound can italian tomatoes, undrained, one can (6 oz.) tomato paste; 2 tablespoons chopped parsley; 1 tablespoon each salt and sugar; 1 tsp. dried oregano; 1 tsp. dried basil and 1/4 tsp. pepper, with 1 1/2 cups water. Bring to boil, mashing tomatoes, reduce heat and simmer covered one hour, stirring occasionally.

MANICOTTI: (You can cut recipe in half if desired)
Combine 6 eggs (at room temperature) 1 1/2 cups flour and 1/4 tsp. salt. Beat till smooth, let stand half hour or longer. Slowly heat 8-inch crepe pan or skillet, pour in 3 tablespoons batter rotating pan to spread evenly. Cook over medium heat till top is dry but bottom is not brown. Turn out on wire rack to cool. Continue cooking until all batter is used. As Manicotti cool, stack them with waxed paper between.

FILLING: In large bowl combine 2 pounds ricotta cheese, 8 oz. Mozzarella cheese, diced, 1/2 cup grated Parmesan cheese, 2 eggs, 1 tsp. salt and 1/4 tsp. pepper and 1 tablespoon chopped parsley. Stir with wooden spoon till well blended.

TO ASSEMBLE:

Spread about 1/4 cup filling down center of each manicotti and roll up. Spoon 1 1/2 cups sauce into each of two 12x8x2 inch baking dishes. Place eight rolled manicotti, seam side down in single layer; top with five more. Cover with 1 cup sauce; sprinkle with Parmesan. Bake uncovered one-half hour, at 350F, or until bubbly. If desired, freeze one-half. To serve, let stand 1 hour to thaw, and bake covered, 1 hour at 350F.

This sounds like a lot of work but it's worth it. Acres Roses Marie and Jean Stapleton serve Manicotti to their guests and they come back for more.

IF YOU GROW ROSES:

watch this column for fun ways of using them, like rose jelly, rose hip jam, rose syrup, rose vinegar and rose liquor. If you have a good Fall bloom, you might also like to try rose petal beads (always smell good) and potpourri.

CAUTION: If you use systemic rose food, do not use roses for edible purposes. By next spring, if you do not apply it again, it would be safe.
