Boardman

Announcement from the Boardman City Hall is that starting Oct. 1 garbage will be picked up Thursday instead of Saturday. Following the Sept. 29 pickup the next one will be Thursday, Oct. 4.

Winners in the ladies championship at Willow Run Golf Club Sunday were: Emma Docken, champion; low net, group one, Dorothy Kennedy; group two, Connie Clough. In the men's championship Ron Daniels was winner, and Jim Harper and Carroll Donovan tied for low net.

Men's sweepstakes winners were: John Paradiso, first; tie between Delbert Ball and Ron Daniels for second. Closest to pin on No. 17 was Jim Harper and on No. 18 Carroll Donovan.

Wednesday of last week the ladies hosted Echo and Heppner. Winners from Echo were: a tie for low gross between Lois Neyt and Holly Kletzer; low net, Laurie Hoelt; longest drive, Barbara Baggerly; closest to pin, Holly Kletzer.

Heppner winners were: low gross, Bev Gunderson; low net, Eddie Skow; longest drive, Bev Gunderson; closest to the pin, Harriet Evans.

Winners for Willow Run were: low gross, Eileen Daniels; longest drive, Kathy West of Arlington, and closest to the pin, Emma Docken.

The Boardman Garden Club met at the home of Mrs. M.I. Oveson Monday night of last week with Mrs. Frank Marlow co-hostess. Roll call was answered by naming a flowering tree.

Mrs. Roy Ball opened the meeting by reading "Dwadelings by Donna," taken from Oregon Newsletter.

The club voted to again sponsor the Bluebird group this year.

Hazel Carpenter was in charge of the program and had two poems read, "The Little Shack on the Prairie," written by Edith Boose of Vulcan, Alta., and "The Night Before Friday."

Mrs. Ball and Mrs. Walter Hayes won prizes in a game, and Mrs. Ball also received the door prize.

The next meeting will be at the home of Hazel Miller, Oct. 15, 8 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Stan Rauch are parents of a daughter, Jennifer Suzann, born Sept. 19 at the Good Shepherd Hospital in Hermiston. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Rauch of Lexington and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Baker of Heppner. Great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Julian Rauch of Hermiston, Mr. and Mrs. D.Z. Penny of Echo, Mrs. Mona Moore of Heppner and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baker of Eugene.

Mrs. Walter Wyss and her sister, Inga Anderegg of San Francisco, who have been visiting her the past two weeks, accompanied their brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderegg of Pendleton, to White Salmon, Wn., Sunday where they visited at the home of Mrs. Wyss' grandson, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Pieper.

Mrs. Elmer Messenger of Kent, Wn., former resident here, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Robinson and other friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Messenger of Lexington visited Saturday at the home of Mrs. Messenger's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ball.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Webb of Portland visited one day last week at the home of Mrs. Walter Wyss.

Boardman tour is Saturday

A visit to Desert Magic Potato Plant and the Eastern Oregon Pelleting Plant will be on agenda as Heppner-Morrow Chamber of Commerce travels to Boardman Saturday, Sept. 29.

The tour will depart from the extension office at 9 a.m. and will arrive at Desert Magic Potato Plant at 10 o'clock. Visitors will view the potato plant and farm plots of "double crop operations."

At the Eastern Oregon Farms Pelleting Plant, guides will show how corn and alfalfa are made into pellets.

Guest speaker Howard Kartchner, president of Desert Magic Farms, will conclude the tour at a 1 p.m. luncheon at Boardman's Dodge City Inn Restaurant.

Harold Kerr is in charge of the tour. A chartered bus will be used to transport those who wish to use it. Those using private cars should arrange to arrive in Boardman at 10 o'clock to join the group. The luncheon is a no-host affair, Kerr said, and any interested person in the county is invited to go on the tour.

Last rites for C. R. Lott in Mississippi

Randy Lott was called to Hattiesburg, Miss., this week due to the death of his father, C.R. Lott, 73.

Besides Randy he is survived by his wife, Edna, two sons and a daughter, all of Mississippi; Ethel McGee of Seattle; and numerous grandchildren.

Funeral services were held last Tuesday.

Mr. Lott had been ill for some time and his son, Rand, had visited him last April.

Services today for Mrs. Becket

Funeral services for Mrs. Alma B. Wehmeyer Becket, Portland, will be held Thursday, Sept. 27, at Ross Hollywood Chapel in Portland, at 1 p.m. Interment will be in Rose City Cemetery.

She was the wife of William Becket, and both were formerly of Heppner.

GENE HELIKER PLAYING IN STATE

Gene Heliker will open with the night club act, "Rick Harris, Candy and Mr. D.," at Portland's Ramada Inn on Oct. 1.

The group leaves Calgary on Sept. 29 after a successful appearance there.

Gene is choreographer for the group and plays lead guitar, coronet, trombone and sings. He always enjoys visiting with folks from home. Gene is the son of Don Heliker, Ione, and Barbara Cutsforth, Heppner.

This booking runs through Oct. 20 is probably the only Oregon appearance of the group for some time.
