Robinsons celebrate their 25th

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Robinson, Heppner area ranchers, celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary, Sept. 26. A dinner party was held at Cal's Cafe with local relatives and friends, most of whom were present and participated at the Robinson wedding.

Those present besides Donald and Merlyn were Eva Robinson, Creston and Kay Robinson, Bob and Marion Abrams, Frank and Kay Anderson, Don and Margaret Evans, all of Heppner and John and Mary Campbell of Condon.

The Donald Robinsons are the third and fourth generations to reside on their ranch, formerly the M. J. Devin homestead. Later the ranch was owned by Merle and Altha Kirk, and the Kirk & Robinson ranch name was adopted in 1948.

The Robinsons enjoy a wide range of activities, particularly in livestock circles. Mr. Robinson has been open class beef superintendent for a number of years. The family is involved in 4-H and FFA affairs, and Don has recently been elected president of the Oregon Polled Hereford Association for the ensuing year.

Devin family descendants hold picnic

A potluck picnic family reunion for the various descendants of the Devin family was held Sept. 29 in the Hermiston City Park.

M. J. Devin homesteaded in Morrow County in the early days, coming here in a covered wagon. There were the largest number of descendants from Matt Devin present, as well as members from the B. P. Devin and Charley Devin families from Oregon, Washington and Idaho.

Those present from this area were Mrs. Etta Parker, Mrs. Letha Archer, Mrs. Eva Robinson, and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Robinson, Kirk and Kyle.

Labharts hurt in crash

Word has been received that former residents Bill and Jackie Labhart were hospitalized recently as the result of a head-on collision on the outskirts of Prineville.

Labhart suffered a fractured jaw and skull, but is reported making a good recovery. His wife received lacerations and bruises.

The driver of the other vehicle was cited for driving while under the influence of liquor. This was his fourth DUIL offense.

The Labharts, who were returning from a John Day wedding, are now La Grande residents. He is with the Oregon State Police.
