DOROTHY KREBS IS IONE CORRESPONDENT

Mrs. Henry (Dorothy) Krebs is the new correspondent for the Gazette-Times in the Ione area.

Readers wishing to furnish community news through Mrs. Krebs may telephone her at 422-7108.

Albert Ranjattan from Trinidad and Tobago, West Indies, was a special guest speaker at the Ione schools, Oct. 5.

He gave a slide presentation to elementary students in the morning and to high school students in the afternoon.

Ranjattan is a participant in the Professional Rural Youth Leaders Exchange Program. His professional position corresponds to that of a 4-H Extension Agent in this country. During his tour of Oregon, Ranjattan has stayed with host families in Oregon City, Albany and Ione. He will proceed to others in Madras, Portland, Corvallis, Roseburg and Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick McElligott were the host family for his stay in Ione.

Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick Martin attended the wedding of their son, Ralph, and Nona Smith of Modesto, Ca., Oct. 6. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Martin and later joined by Mr. and Mrs. Al Brazell of Eugene.

The group were guests of Fred's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Mason, Modesto.

On the return trip, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Martin attended the 50th wedding anniversary of Fred's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Marshall of Forest Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pettyjohn and Rev. and Mrs. William Arthur recently returned from a 12-day trip to the Hawaiian Islands. Paul attended a week-long convention of the Oil Heat Institute held at the Maui Surf Hotel on Maui. At the conclusion of the convention, the group visited some of the other islands and ended their stay on Oahu.

Four Ione High School graduates are members of the Oregon State University Marching Band.

Serving as assistant director is Jim Swanson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Garland Swanson, who graduated from Ione in 1969.

Band members include Sheri Carlson, class of '72, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Carlson; Gregg Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Wilson; and David Warren, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Warren. Gregg and David are 1973 IHS graduates.

Mrs. and Mrs. Garland Swanson announced the arrival of a granddaughter, born Oct. 5, in Auburn, Wn., to Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Swanson.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Miller, Salem, were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Garland Swanson. Mr. Miller is Mrs. Swanson's brother.

Mrs. Del LaRue is recuperating at her home from a recent tonsillectomy performed at Good Shepherd Hospital in Hermiston.

Several college students were home for the weekend to go hunting. Among them were Earl James Pettyjohn, Joe McElligott, Clint Krebs, Peter McElligott and Mike Collins.

Connie Emert, former Ione resident, is reported making a good recovery from a recent injury sustained in a car accident. She suffered a fractured 6th vertebrae in her back.

Mrs. Jerry Ripka and son, Salem, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sherer.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hodgson of Athena were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Jepsen.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Crum of Morton, Wn., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Jepsen. Mrs. Crum is a sister of Evelyn Dobyns and the daughter of Mrs. Grace Ware, now deceased.

Mr. and Mrs. Gar Swanson and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Miller of Los Angeles recently returned from a 10-day trip to Canada. They drove to Banff, Jasper and Kamloops. They left their car at Kelona, B.C., and flew to Vancouver and Victoria. They visited relatives and went sightseeing. Their return trip was by plane to Kelona and by car to Ione.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Roach of Portland were visitors Oct. 7 at the Lewis Halvorsen home. Mrs. Halvorsen was maid of honor when Mr. and Mrs. Roach were married 28 years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Harr of Pendleton and Earl Padberg were visitors at Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen's Monday.

The combined Eastern Star chapters of Heppner and Ione honored past matrons and patrons with a potluck supper Oct. 8 at Heppner.

The Magill Ranch at Cecil has been sold to Mr. and Mrs. David Cheney of Portland. The new owners took possession Oct. 1. Mr. and Mrs. Cheney will continue to live in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo G. LaVoie (Karen Nelson) will live on the Cecil Ranch and work for the Cheney's.

David Cheney is a retired Air Force jet pilot. He owns his own plane and will travel between his home and ranch by plane. Cheney is a nephew of Roy Philippi of Arlington.

Mr. and Mrs. Magill had ranches in the area for 28 years. They are moving to Prineville where Stan will manage a ranch in that area. Mr. and Mrs. Leland Magill, who had been working for his parents, have moved to Lindstrom Bros. Ranch, where he is now employed.

The junior class of the United Church of Christ has made plans for a Halloween party to be held the last Sunday in October. There are 17 enrolled in the class. The class is taught by Mrs. Bob Rietmann.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rietmann were hosts for a dinner honoring two of their sons' birthdays on Sept. 30. Brian's 14th birthday was Sept. 30 and Mark's 17 birthday was Oct. 1. Others present were Mrs. Margaret Hurst, Mrs. Shirley Anderson, and David Anderson, all from Arlington, and Mrs. Vera Rietmann, Joe and Gregg Rietmann, all of Ione.

Mrs. Jim West was hostess for a luncheon, with Mrs. John Doherty as special guest, at her home, Oct. 3. Mrs. Doherty is district director for the Make-It-Yourself-With-Wool contest.

The annual contest is sponsored by the Oregon Sheep Growers to encourage the use of wool in home sewing. Winners of the Junior and Senior division are awarded a trip to Portland to compete in the state contest. The sub-division winner is awarded a sheepskin rug.

Mrs. Doherty was in the Ione area to make arrangements with the participants from Morrow County. The contest is scheduled for Nov. 10 in the Blue Mountain Community College auditorium.

John Rietmann is a member of the Oregon College of Education at Monmouth Marching Band. The group will perform next weekend for homecoming events. John, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Rietmann, is majoring in general studies.

Marianne Pettyjohn was a first place winner in women's barrel racing at the Yakima Rodeo last weekend. She is now attending Oregon State University.

Coach Gordon Meyers had the cast removed from his leg last week. He sustained a broken leg just before school started.

Louis Carlson, Phil and Clint, drove to Klamath Falls over the weekend to view the facilities of Oregon Institute of Technology. Phil is considering going to school there next year.

Dennis Stefani placed first in the 11-year-old division of the punt, pass, and kick competition held at Hermiston. He will now compete at The Dalles.

Two Ione youngsters have been on crutches. Darrin Padberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Padberg, broke his leg in two places. He is reported doing well, but will need to have the cast on for two more weeks. Anne Murray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rod Murray, sustained a badly bruised leg in a fall. She hopes to be able to abandon her crutches very soon.

Friday, Oct. 12, is a scheduled teacher in-service day. There will be no school. The Ione football team will play Touchet at 2 p.m. at Ione.

The only newcomer to the Ione faculty this year is Marvin Peterson, industrial arts teacher.

Peterson is a native of Tacoma, where he attended Lincoln High School. He attended college at both Central Washington State College at Ellensburg and Eastern Washington State College at Cheney. He obtained his bachelor's degree in 1973.

Mrs. Peterson (Kathleen) also attended Central Washington State College, and is a lab technician.

Mr. and Mrs. Peterson both enjoy bicycling on 10-speed bicycles. They are looking forward to doing some "rock-hounding" while they are in Morrow County.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Rietmann were host for a dinner held at their home Sunday to honor the 90th birthday of Mrs. Mabel Anson, a grandmother of Mrs. Rietmann. Mrs. Anson is from La Grande.

Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Del Anson and son, Steven, from Hermiston; Mr. and Mrs. Terry Thornburg and daughter, Terri Lee, and Joe and Jerry Rietmann. The honored guest, after the party, boarded a bus for Portland.

Class officer elections were held recently at the Ione High School.

Elected were: seniors, Doris McCabe, president; Kay Bergstrom, vice-president; Joan McElligott, secretary; Phil Carlson, representative; Teena Stefani, concessions chairman; juniors, Sherri Wilson, president; Tom Gates, vice president; Barbara Palmer, secretary; Charlie McElligott, representative; Mike Warren, concessions chairman; sophomores, Skye Krebs, president; Terri McElligott, vice president; Arlynda Aldrich, secretary; Todd Peterson, representative; Katherine McElligott, concessions chairman; freshmen, Vicki Edmundson, president; Ashley McCabe, vice-president; Joan Doherty, secretary; Bill Tews, representative; Kathy Kincaid, concessions chairman; 8th grade, Jan Peterson, president; Leland White, vice president; Grace McElligott, secretary; Susan Thompson, concessions chairman; 7th grade, Lisa Martin, president; Arletta Aldrich, vice-president; Janet McElligott, secretary.

Students in both elementary and high school posed for individual school pictures, Oct. 3.

The Ione Girl's volleyball teams played Riverside Tuesday and Helix on Thursday of last week.

The teams are coached by Barbara Talley. Her summation of the week's game is that they won some and lost some and they had a lot of fun participating.

The 6th grade class and its teacher, Clifford Williams, participated in a Conservation Field Trip to Bull Prairie, Oct. 4. The group observed some of the measures being taken to conserve land and water resources. Some of the topics covered were: forest soils, range management, outdoor manners, fire control, timber stand improvement, commercial forest management, tree identification and wildlife.

Refreshments will be served.

Ione school to study its needs

An organizational meeting of the Ione Schools Long Range Planning Committee was held Oct. 4 in the Ione High School library.

Officers elected were Bob Rietmann, chairman; Mrs. Roland Bergstrom, vice-chairman; and John Edmundson, secretary.

The purpose of the committee is to study both immediate and long range needs of the Ione schools. One of the major concerns is providing adequate school facilities in view of projected developments in Morrow County that might bring several more families to the area.

Serving on the committee are Don McElligott, Gene Rietmann, Bob Rietmann, John Edmundson, Mrs. Lindsay Kincaid, Darrel Wilson, Mrs. A.A. Stefani, Mrs. Roland Bergstrom, Mrs. Lee Palmer, Mrs. Marvin Padberg, Harold Holtz, Larry Prock, Charles O'Conner, Garland Swanson, Robert Drake, Mrs. Henry Krebs, Rev. William Arthur, Don Heliker, Lewis Halvorsen, Mrs. Elmer Ladd, Burl Akers, John Jepsen and Mrs. Del LaRue.

The next meeting of the committee is scheduled for Nov. 5 at Ione High School.

100 turn out to welcome teachers

The Ione Cardinal Club held its first meeting of the school year Sept. 27 in the school cafeteria.

The meeting served to welcome new returning teachers to the Ione Schools, and a tea table was prepared in their honor. About 100 attended.

John Edmundson, principal, introduced the faculty. A corsage was presented each lady. The corsages had been made by the Ione Garden Club. First grade students, under the direction of Mrs. Bob Rietmann, presented a unison poem. Sherrie Bahr, music teacher, used the 2nd grade class to demonstrate methods used to teach music to elementary students. It was Miss Bahr's birthday, and at the conclusion of the demonstration she was presented with a cake. Scott Barnett, a 2nd grade student and son of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Barnett, made the presentation. The cake was in the shape of a grand piano and had been made and decorated by Mrs. Bill Zinter.

The Cardinal Club is a non-profit organization whose purpose is to be of service to the Ione Schools. The club is now conducting its annual membership drive. Membership is open to anyone who is interested in helping the Ione Schools regardless of whether they have children in school or not. The money collected from dues of one dollar per person goes directly into a scholarship fund that is awarded annually to a senior graduating from Ione High School.

Membership chairman is Mrs. Bob Rietmann. She is assisted by Mrs. Pete Cannon and Mrs. Bill Rietmann.
