

Phil Carlson (22), Ione, appears to be trapped by Lane Savage (52). Carlson was able to break away and go for good yardage.

Ione surprises Touchet, 28-22

The Ione Cardinals defeated the Touchet Indians, 28-22, in a non-conference game Friday afternoon at Ione.

The Indians took a quick 14-0 lead in the first quarter over the Cards, but the Cards rallied in the second quarter on two TDs by Aaron Klinger and tied the score 14-14 at the half.

In the third quarter Klinger scored another TD and the PAT to give the Cards a 22-14 lead.

The Indians came back to score on a 45 yard run by halfback Howard Mums. Teammate Britt Watson added the extra point and the game was tied at 22-22.

The Cards scored in the third quarter only to have the play nullified because of a penalty.

In the fourth quarter both teams see-sawed back and forth, and when the Cardinals were knocking on the goal line, an interception by Lane

Savage, Touchet, on the 3 yard line prevented the Ione score.

The Indians tried to move the ball, but the Cardinal defense held and the Indians were forced to kick.

With one minute left in the game, Phil Carlson scored the winning TD for the Cardinals on a 15 yard run. The try for the extra point failed as the gun sounded ending the game. Final score, Ione 28, Touchet 22.

Ione Homecoming is Oct. 18-19

Ione High School's annual homecoming activities will be Oct. 18-19.

The events will begin with a noise parade on Oct. 18 starting at 12:30 p.m. from the high school, touring the town area, and returning to the school for a pep assembly at 1 p.m.

At 7 p.m. there will be the bonfire and the traditional lighting of the "I" with the freshman class in charge of preparations. Cocoa and cookies will be served in the cafeteria after the pep rally.

The homecoming game against Culver will be Oct. 19 at 2 p.m. The Queen will be crowned at halftime.

The homecoming dance will be from 9 to midnight in the high school cafeteria. Music will be provided by The Rolling West.

JVs lose to McEwen

Heppner JVs lost 34-0 to McEwen Monday afternoon in Heppner.

"McEwen did everything right and we did everything wrong," stated Heppner Coach Dale Conklin, "although Joe Kenny and Mike Orwick played a good defensive game against the tough McEwen team."

The JVs final game will be against Sherman Monday, Oct. 22, at Moro.

Ione GAA installs

The Girl's Athletic Association of Ione High School installed its officers and initiated 14 girls into membership with a candle lighting ceremony Oct. 11 in the cafeteria.

Miss Barbara Talley was in charge of the event.

Installed were: Mary Pat McElligott, president; Kay Bergstrom, vice-president; Barbara Palmer, secretary-treasurer; Carol Holtz and Marilyn Warren, heads of sports; Janice Edwards, sergeant-at-arms; and Katherine McElligott, representative.

The candle representing girlhood was lighted by Joan McElligott, comradeship by Cassandra Chapel, and sportsmanship by Kathy Gilbert.

New members are Debra Palmer, Donna Palmer, Joan Doherty, Debra Patton, Von White, Dawn Peterson, Laurie Childers, Vicki Edmundson, Arlene Cannon, Rose Blasdel, Teri McElligott, Candi Mansfield and Arlynda Aldrich. Sherrie Bahr played two piano solos, "Intermezzo" and "Awakening in the Woods."

4-H Family Night and potluck dinner will be held Thurs., Oct. 18, 6 p.m., A.C. Houghton School. Everyone is welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Brewster of Bandon visited for 10 days at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Pastor and Mrs. Neil King.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Pieper and children Patty and Danny of Portland were weekend visitors at the home of Mrs. Pieper's mother, Mrs. Walter Wyss. Pieper and Danny went on to the mountains to hunt deer.

Cardinal end Mike Warren breaks through the line to get at Indian quarterback Britt Watson. Watson was thrown for a loss on this play of about 6 yards. The Cardinals went on to win the game 28-22 in the last minutes of play.
