

DORINDA TAYLOR, KEITH CURNUTT

Dorinda Taylor to be married Dec. 1

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Taylor of Lexington have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Dorinda, to Keith Curnutt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Curnutt of Heppner.

The wedding will take place Dec. 1 at the home of the bride-elect's parents in Lexington.

Miss Taylor attended school in Connell, Wn., and Heppner. She is at present employed on the family ranch at Lexington.

Mr. Curnutt, a graduate of Heppner High School, is employed by Kinzua Corporation.

The couple plan to live in Heppner following their marriage.

Lake Oswego home for Ralph Martins

Lake Oswego is the first home for Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Martin following a double ring ceremony in the Wesley Methodist Church in Modesto, Ca., Oct. 6.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Smith of Modesto are parents of the bride, the former Nona Smith. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick T. Martin of Ione.

The bride made her own gown, which featured a floor-length design with fitted bodice, camel sleeves, scoop neckline embroidered in seed and wheat pearls with chantilly lace ruffle, and shoulder-length illusion veil held in place with lily-of-the-valley and petite French bow. She carried a bouquet of garden greenery, a single yellow spider mum, and Stephanotis.

Connie Smith, Modesto, was maid of honor for her sister, and Mrs. Myrna Starkel, another sister, Ronan, Mont was matron of honor. They wore ankle-length gowns featuring yellow bodice and floral crepe skirts. Candelighter, Laura Dias, Modesto, wore a similar gown. Dean Wilson, also of Modesto and a friend of the bride, assisted in candle lighting.

Melvin Martin of Othello, Wn., stood as best man for his brother, Al Brazell, Castle Rock, Wn., brother-in-law, was groomsmen. Ushers were Arland Merchant, Richard Miller, and Argel Smith, brother of the bride, all of Modesto.

Two hundred guests honored the newlyweds at a reception in the church social hall.

Going away outfits were matching burgandy suits. Immediately after the reception the couple left to drive to their Lake Oswego home.

On Sunday, Oct. 21, an open house reception was held for the newlyweds in their lake-side home at which more than 100 relatives and friends from Modesto, Ca., Roseburg, Ione, Corvallis, Dallas, Oregon City, Portland, Forest Grove, Seattle, and Castle Rock, Wn., attended.

BRIDAL SHOWER FOR BARBARA TALLEY

A bridal shower was given for Barbara Talley Oct. 11 at the home of Mrs. Art Stefani Jr. Mrs. Jerry Martin and Mary Langston were hostesses. Twenty-four guests were present.

Strawberries, "a favorite food of the bride, were used for the theme. The napkins and cake were decorated with strawberries. The hostess gift was a cookie jar in the shape and color of a large strawberry. The flowers and mints were strawberry colored. Two of the games played involved strawberries. One of the gifts was a strawberry huller.

Out of town guests included two great-aunts of the groom, Mrs. John Stefani and Mrs. Fred Stefani, from Canby.

Mail even earlier for Christmas this year

The Postal Service is urging patrons to mail as early as possible for the Christmas holidays.

Hubert Wilson, Heppner postmaster, recommends the following mailing deadlines to insure Christmas delivery of domestic and overseas parcels and greetings.

Nov. 10 - Surface and space available mail SAM to armed forces in South and Central America, the Congo and Liberia; surface mail to armed forces in Belgium, Denmark, England, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Italy, Norway, Netherlands, Portugal, and Spain.

Nov. 17 - Parcel Air Lift (PAL) to all of the above named countries.

Nov. 20 - Space Available Mail (SAM) to Japan, Korea, Philippines, Vietnam, Asiatic and Pacific Area.

Nov. 27 - PAL to all of the above countries.

Nov. 30 - PAL mail for armed forces in Canada, Greenland and Alaska.

Dec. 1 - Air mail greetings and parcels to armed forces in South America, and all out of the United States forces.

Dec. 8 - Air mail to Canada and Alaska for parcels and greeting cards.

Dec. 10 - Parcel post to in the United States.

Dec. 15 - All greeting cards in the United States.

Dec. 20 - All greeting cards must go air mail to be delivered by Christmas.

Rebekahs elect officers

Officers were elected at the Oct. 19 meeting of Sans Souci Rebekah Lodge.

Elected were: Ola Ruggles, noble grand; Helen Kruger, vice-grand; Betty Rood, treasurer; and Opal Cook, financial secretary. Esther Bergstrom and Ola Ruggles are the retiring noble grand and vice-grand.

Visitors were Irene Padberg and Elsie Fox of Holly Rebekah Lodge.

Mary McMurtry reported on her official visit to Bunchgrass and Holly Rebekah lodges to hear elective officers qualify for their offices before being installed in January. She was accompanied on the visitations by Frieda Slocum and Esther Bergstrom.

A letter was read from Jeanne Dobbs of Pendleton, who is taking a course on Shakespeare at Blue Mountain Community College.

The Country Store is a project to raise money for a per capita tax due in December. Members having white elephant articles are asked to bring or send them to the IOOF hall where they will be placed on sale.

Cheer cards were sent to Linc Nash, Alice Luttrell, Margaret Thomas, Elsie Ayers, Mattie Rood and Genia Huston. Ola Ruggles was hostess for the evening, serving sandwiches and coffee from tables decorated in a Halloween theme.

The next meeting is Friday, Nov. 2.

GRAND MASTER TO VISIT IOOF LODGES

Grand Master Ken Ovegard will make an official visit to Willow Lodge No. 66 and Lexington Lodge Monday evening, Nov. 5, at 8 p.m.

This will be an open meeting with the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs. Grand Marshal Elmer Olson will also be present.

Get Set For Winter With a New 31" Kelvinator "No Frost" Refrigerator-Freezer

16 cu. ft. 150-lb. freezer $264.00

Freezer Features:

- No Frost Cold
- Automatic Ice-maker Kit
- Twist Ice Trays & Rack

Refrigerator Features:

- No Frost Refrigeration
- Meat Pan and Cover

Columbia Upholstery

Kelvinator appliances - custom upholstery. Free pickup and delivery. Free estimates. 110 S. 11th Hermiston, 567-3231

Joan Christman is an October bride

The United Methodist Church, Heppner, was the scene of the Oct. 5 wedding of Joan Christman and Scott McDaniel.

The Rev. Edwin Cutting read the ceremony.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father, and given in marriage by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cedric Christman.

The bride wore an old fashioned ivory satin gown accented by embroidered lace on the sleeves, bib front and stand-up collar. She wore a tiered veil trimmed with pearls. She wore a gold ring given to her great-great-grandmother on her wedding day and a cameo necklace belonging to her great aunt. Her bouquet was of orange daisy mums.

The bride was attended by her sister, Jean, as maid of honor, who wore a gown in the bride's colors of brown and orange, with picture hat to match. Her dress, as was the bride's, was styled and made by their mother.

Jon Hedman was best man and Rick McDaniel, brother of the groom, and Carl Christman, brother of the bride, were ushers.

Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Cecil McDaniel of Burns.

Music was provided by Pauline Miller at the organ. Ginger and Dixie McDaniel, sisters of the groom, were in charge of the guest book. Patty Daly and Jill Struckmeier attended the gifts.

A reception was held in the social rooms of the church following the ceremony, with Mrs. William J. Van Winkle and Mrs. Riley Munkers in charge. A three-tiered cake topped with a miniature bridal bouquet was made by Lyn Haguewood. Mrs. Cliff Whitten, great aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Greg Sorenson, cousin of the bride, served.

MR. AND MRS. SCOTT McDANIEL

Mrs. Kenneth Batty, aunt of the groom, and Delsie Chapel of Ione poured.

Honor guests were the couple's grandmothers, Genevieve Saling, Helen Christman, Agnes Davis and Ethel Robinson.

The couple left for a trip to Yellowstone Park. They will make their home in Burns.

Guests present were from Hood River, Beaverton, Lone Rock, Burns, North Powder, Hardman, Ione, Lexington and Heppner.

Mrs. Jones is elected

Mrs. Charles C. Jones of Lexington, president of the Morrow County unit and secretary of the regional unit of the Oregon Lung Association, has been elected to fill a position on the state board.

Mrs. Jones was elected at the Oct. 17 meeting of the group in La Grande.

The association showed the new Christmas seals, and a cassette and television program was presented showing how a cassette program could benefit hospitals and doctors who could watch and observe the techniques of specialists in various medical fields.

A Laerdal suction was recently given by the Morrow County Lung Association to the local hospital, which was accepted by Dr. L. D. Tibbles. It is used to help remove objects from the windpipe and also matter that blocks lung air intake.

TOPICS CLUB HEARS MRS. GLEN ROHDE

The Topic Club met for a dessert luncheon at the home of Mrs. Milton Morgan, Oct. 24. Five guests were present. Roll call was "Bring and Brag" for which members brought old or treasured items and told about their special meaning for them.

The program was given by Mrs. Glen (Joyce) Rohde of Echo. She spoke on "Antiques and Collectibles" and brought several items to illustrate her speech. Mrs. Rohde is a collector of Heisey crystal and she displayed several items from her collection.

Yearbook wins 1st place

Four members of the Ione Garden Club attended the meeting of Blue Mountain District 10 of Oregon Federation of Garden Clubs held in Pendleton, Oct. 24.

Those going from Ione were Mrs. Lee Pettyjohn, Mrs. Fredrick Martin, Mrs. Edith Nicholson and Mrs. William Ling.

Mrs. Royal Cambers, Pendleton, presided over the meeting. Two state officers attended, Mrs. Raymond Elmstrom, president, and Mrs. C.M. Johnson, recording secretary. Both women are from Portland.

The Ione Garden Club was awarded 1st place for its yearbook entry.

The program was presented by Mrs. Fredrick Martin. She gave a slide illustrated report on the Desert Flora Preservation project. Mrs. Martin stated that 37 species of flora have been listed and their blooming periods determined in the 3-acre site along the Oregon Trail where it crosses the Bombing Range road.

As an entertainment feature Mrs. Martin showed some slides she had taken at the national convention when it was held in Seattle last May. The title of her presentation was "A Glimpse Behind the Scenes."

Her educated mind will appreciate Seiko.

Case joins matching bracelet in one-whole line. Yellow top stainless steel back. A splendid graduation gift. Ask for No. ZW442M-171. Only $69.50

"Something from the jeweler's is always something special"

Store Hours: 9 A.M. to 5 P.M. 177 MAIN ST., HEPPNER PH. 676-9200

YOUR BEST FOOD BUY THIS WEEK IS BEEF

All beef prices are drastically reduced. Now is the time to buy.

THIS HEARTY DINNER STARTS WITH A BUDGET CUT OF BEEF

BARBECUE BEEF SHORT RIBS

Cook, covered on top of stove or bake in the oven for tender, juicy beef.

- | | |
|------------------------|-------------------------------|
| 3 lbs. beef short ribs | 1/2 cup water |
| 1 finely chopped onion | 3 Tbsp. Worcestershire sauce |
| 1/4 cup vinegar | 1 tsp. prepared mustard |
| 2 Tbsp. sugar | 1/2 cup finely chopped celery |
| 1 cup catsup | 2 tsp. salt |

Cut short ribs into serving pieces. Brown slowly in heavy skillet; turning frequently. Pour off fat. Combine remaining ingredients and pour over short ribs. Cover and cook slowly 1 1/2 to 2 hours until tender. Or bake in moderately slow oven (350° F.).

Sponsored by the Morrow County Livestock Growers

For additional beef recipes, write...

a delicious, nutritious suggestion from the OREGON BEEF COUNCIL Imperial Hotel, Portland, Oregon 97205