This "before" and "after" scene is taking place in a home in Heppner, where a young couple is in the process of remodeling their home. A home improvement loan through First National Bank can help you with your remodeling problems.

READY TO REMODEL?

WE'RE READY TO HELP.

There are some home improvement projects that are best suited to the fall and winter months. Projects that will make the hours spent indoors more comfortable for you and your family. Like the installation of a new, more efficient heating system . . . the construction of a spacious garage . . . or the addition of a party room.

Improvements made to your property usually add value far beyond your initial investment, making most any home improvement well worth the money. That's why at First National we make loans readily available for all kinds of building or remodeling projects. So you can increase your comfort . . . and your property value, too.

We'd like to get to know you.
