1 Cards of Thanks

The family of Henry W. Krebs would like to thank all our friends who have been so kind to us in this time of sorrow. Your encouraging words, gifts of food, cards of sympathy, and acts prompted by love have sustained us through this difficult period.

ANNIE C. KREBS
MR. and MRS. JAMES WEST
MR. and MRS. HENRY KREBS

We wish to thank Dr. Wolff, the nurses and staff at Pioneer Memorial Hospital for the kind care of our loved one, Norah Perlberg. Their thoughtfulness is sincerely appreciated. Also, thanks to our kind friends for their help and sympathy. God Bless you all.

IONE

The physics and algebra classes of Ione High School went to Richland Nov. 15 to tour the Hanford Atomic works.

Advanced preparation included submitting the names and birthplaces of everyone on the tour.

The group visited the fast flux reactor, the N reactor, museum, and site of the original project which helped to develop the atomic bomb.

Darrel Wilson, Beverly Wilson and Don McElligott accompanied the group. Dot Halvorsen drove the bus.

Krebs Bros. sheep returned from Montana Nov. 13. Twenty-one carloads were unloaded at Arlington. Henry Krebs reported a chinook wind came two days before they loaded out. The temperature went from 5 degrees to 45 degrees in a time period of 30 minutes. The snow melted rapidly and by loading time it was gone.

Krebs Bros. have had sheep in Gilliam and Morrow counties for 45 years. In that length of time, they have never found it necessary to keep herders' wagons padlocked. Times have changed.

After the sheep were unloaded and the herders went to their wagons to retire after the long trip, they found both wagons had been entered and the stoves stolen.

A contemporary band concert was given Nov. 15 in the school cafeteria. Miss Sherrie Bahr conducted the program of choral selections and numbers by the high school band. A cake walk was held afterwards, and proceeds went to the band fund.

The Masons hosted a banquet for the lone Cardinal football team and men faculty members Nov. 16 in the cafeteria. Lewis Halvorsen, master of the Masons, was in charge.

A Basketball Officials Clinic was held recently at the gym. Jerry Martin was in charge. A film, "Basketball Today, 1973 Edition," was shown.

Purpose of the clinic was to point out new rules in force this year. Special emphasis was placed on screening, illegal use of hands, and fouling away from the play.

Coach Del LaRue of the lone Cardinals spoke briefly on his plans for the year.

The November business meeting of Beta Omega Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha was held Nov. 13 at the home of Mrs. John Edmundson.

The social for November will be a Silver Tea to be held at the home of Mrs. Charles Doherty, Nov. 27, 8 p.m. The affair is in honor of new pledges.

The Holiday Bazaar is to be held Dec. 8 beginning at 9 a.m. at the lone Legion Hall. Baked goods, handwork and new and used items will be available.

The Junior Hi Sunday School began this season with an enrollment of nine. John Lindstrom, Brian Rietmann, Scott Sherer, Leland White, Bud Kincaid, Kristi Edmundson, Arletta Aldrich, Tammy Tucker and Liza Martin.

On a trip to the Lloyd Center in Portland with some of last year's students, the group tried their luck with ice skates. The trip was an award to last year's students for writing a play on the Crucifixion of Christ. For the new students, it was for working towards the Easter Special.

"The different stages in Jesus' life."

A DAUGHTER FOR THE NED CLARKS

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Clark, Heppner, are parents of a daughter, Sara Elizabeth, born Nov. 18 at Pioneer Memorial Hospital.

She joins three brothers and one sister at home.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Barton Clark, Heppner, and the Rev. and Mrs. Bruce Spencer, Ridgecrest, Ca.

Great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wright, Heppner, and the Rev. and Mrs. M.C. Moynihan, Lebanon.

This year's class hopes to have open discussions between parents and students. Plans are for students and parents to present questions they would like to discuss in class once a month. Opinions from parents would be appreciated by the class.
