

MR. AND MRS. DENNIS STEFANI

Jerry A. Stefani, Barbara Talley wed

Barbara Talley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Troy H. Talley, Portland, became the bride of Jerry A. Stefani, son of Mr. and Mrs. Art Stefani Jr., Ione, Oct. 20, at 4 p.m.

The ceremony was read by the Rev. Richard Cook at Evangelical Baptist Church, Portland.

Baskets of gladioli, roses, and mums in fall colors of yellow, orange, and brown, and candelabra holding white candles were on each side of the altar.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, Troy Talley, wore a white gown trimmed with white eyelet lace on the collar, cuffs and hem. The gown had puffy white sleeves, a smocked bodice and a long sash. The veil was waist-length. She carried a bouquet of white roses and carnations.

Maid of honor was Becky Talley, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Sarah Talley and Pat Pedersen, sisters of the bride. Flower girl was Kristen Pedersen and candle lighters were Dennis Stefani and Jimmy Falls.

The bride's attendants wore brown and white gingham gowns with a bodice and sash of white eyelet, and featured an empire waistline and long sleeves. They each carried a bouquet of white roses and green fern.

Best man was Jeff Turner, Eugene, brother-in-law of groom. Ushers were Virgil Morgan, Ione, and Mike Sweeney, Heppner. Ron Marrs, Portland, sang "Till There Was You," "Colour My World," and "Wedding Prayer," accompanied by Sherril Bahr, Ione, at the piano.

Mrs. Troy Talley wore a floor-length crepe dress with white collar and cuffs. Mrs. Art Stefani Jr. wore a floor-length light blue dress.

The wedding reception was held at Evangelical Baptist Church, Pouring were Mrs. Roland Bergstrom, Ione, Mrs. Teresa Turner, Eugene, Mrs. George Heath, Portland, and Mrs. George O'Neill, Tacoma. Margaret Schommer, Portland, attended the guest book.

The bride attended Portland State University and teaches physical education, English, and home economics at Ione High School. The groom attended University of Oregon and is part-owner of Stefani Athletic Supply. The couple will reside in Ione.

NEWLYWEDS TO BE HONORED DEC. 15

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Curtitt are having an open house at their home, 340 S. Main, Heppner, on Dec. 15, 1 to 5 p.m., to introduce her son, Keith, and his bride who were married Dec. 1.

Friends and relatives are invited to attend.

Sheadel-Earwood vows exchanged

Shirley Ann Earwood of Boardman became the bride of Jackson L. Sheadel of Amboy, Wn., in a candlelight ceremony at the Boardman Community Church, Nov. 30, at 7:30 p.m.

The double-ring service was performed by Pastor Neil F. King, before an altar decorated with baskets of apricot gladioli and football mums. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Ralph Earwood of Boardman, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Filer of Amboy, Wn.

The nuptial music was played on the organ by Mrs. Kenneth Earwood of Torrance, Ca., sister-in-law of the bride. Vocalists were the Harry Noble family of Hermiston.

Given in marriage by her brother, Kenneth Earwood of Torrance, Ca., the bride wore a floor-length cream colored A-line gown with lace bodice, and carried a bouquet of apricot carnations and baby orchids.

Mrs. Don Downey, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and wore a street-length dress of apricot polyester.

Candlelighters were Mark Califf of Estacada, nephew of the bride, and Ronald Sheadel, brother of the groom.

Rollo Moore of Boardman was best man. Ushers were Matthew Califf of Estacada and Wayne Downey of Boardman, nephews of the bride. Brian Kruger, son of the bride, was ring-bearer.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Fellowship Room of the church. Serving the three-tiered cake, topped with white bells and trimmed with apricot and white, was Mrs. Bill Califf of Estacada, sister of the bride. Mrs. Kenneth Earwood poured coffee and Becky Heasley was at the punch bowl. Vicky Califf, niece of the bride, had the guest book, and in charge of gifts were Renee Califf, niece of the bride, and Ruth Sheadel, sister of the groom.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Earwood wore a brown print dress; the groom's mother wore a navy blue print dress.

The bride is a graduate of Riverside High School and the groom is a graduate of LaCenter High School, LaCenter, Wn. After a trip to Mexico the couple will live at Adak, Alaska, where the groom is stationed with the U.S. Navy.

For going away the bride wore a wine colored skirt and white blouse, with beige vest.

Guests attended from Amboy, Torrance, Oregon City, Estacada, Roseburg and Arlington.

TOPS WIN PRIZES BY LOSING POUNDS

Lexington's TOPS Club has gained a challenge trophy from the Ione club as the result of their three-month losing contest. Lexington members are now within 10 pounds of the goal they set for total club loss in 1973.

At their last November meeting, Nov. 26, Mary Doherty was honored as Queen of the Month. The Horse Race Contest ended with prizes going to Irene Padberg for her win. During this contest she lost 16 pounds and qualified as a KOPS in waiting. Catie Padberg won the place prize with a 10 pound loss and Karen Springer won the show prize by losing 8 pounds.

The club has launched a new contest which they call The Sewing Basket Contest.
