Senator Ken Jernstedt of Hood River spoke to 80 Lion's Club members at the banquet dinner Saturday night in Irrigon.

The Lion's Club were celebrating their 10th anniversary as a community service club.

Bill Parker was honored with a plaque won in a membership drive when he was president of the club several years ago. It was presented to him from Past International Director Vern Hawn. Charter President Lavern Christiansen was master of ceremonies. Pete House is now president of the club.

Bill Steagell presented a floral arrangement to the club in memory of James McRae, a former member who died two weeks ago.

The Irrigon Lions have been active in community service. Their 4th of July celebration is well known in the area. They also sponsor the Easter egg hunt and usually have a Christmas tree and treats for local children. The women's auxiliary serves meals and are very active in community service. Their main charity, of course, is to help the School for the Blind, but eye glasses have been provided for local people who could not afford them.

The Auxiliary President is Joyce Pennock; Marge Christiansen is secretary.

The skating party sponsored by the 4-H Community Club was termed a huge success. There were 96 4-H members and their friends from Irrigon and Boardman who attended Thursday's party in Hermiston.

Mrs. Lena M. Knowles dies at 81

Lena M. Knowles, 81, died Nov. 20 in Hermiston.

She was born April 14, 1892 in Heppner, the daughter of Albert and Emma Osmin. She was an 11-year old survivor of the 1903 flood.

She was married to Claude G. Knowles, a cook and chef, in Heppner. They had two children, Vernon A., born Nov. 2, 1919, and Helen J. Knowles White, born March 25, 1927.

The Knowles lived in Heppner until 1943 when they moved to Montana. They returned to Hermiston in 1947.

Survivors include a son, Vernon, Hermiston; a daughter, Helen White, Hermiston; a brother Alton L. Osmin, Heppner; a sister, Bessie Sandlin, Cottage Grove; two grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Services were held Nov. 23 at Burns Mortuary Chapel, Hermiston. Rev. Charles Ashby officiated. Concluding services were held at Heppner Cemetery.

Colorful pioneer dies in Arizona

Dwight Misner, 95, former area resident, died in Mesa, Ariz., Nov. 27.

He was born in Canada on June 25, 1878. In 1898 he married Grace Neal in Michigan. They had two daughters, Mrs. Greta Gabbert and Beulah Mankin.

He was preceded in death by Grace, who died in June, 1967, and a daughter, March 5, 1973.

In 1912, Mr. Misner brought his family to Oregon and to Morrow County in 1917. He farmed north of Ione until 1933.

Mr. Misner was mentioned in Homesteads and Heritages by Giles French as a farmer who used 38 head of horses in one harness. Also, he was pictured with his unusually large team of horses in Wheat Farming, by Kirby Brumfield.

He moved to the Poulouse, Wn., area and farmed until 1942. He then raised Shetland ponies and showed them at fairs; raised Shetland mules; raced in chariot races; and was an auto dealer.

Until he was 91 years old, he drove his car and rode in the 200-mile horseback trail ride in Washington.

He retired to Mesa, Ariz., a few years ago, where he remained active until last year.

Survivors include a daughter, Greta Gabbert, Mesa, Ariz., four grandchildren, and numerous great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren.

CONNORS VISIT IN GOLDENDALE

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Connor and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Connor and four children, and Albert Connor, their father, all of Heppner, went to Goldendale, Wn., for an annual family Thanksgiving dinner at the home of Morgan Connor.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Connor and family stayed the night in Goldendale. The next day they went to Beaverton to see Mrs. Connor's father, Lincoln Nash, who was staying at the home of his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Parsons, while receiving medical treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Padberg entertained with a dinner for family members Nov. 26. Present were her son and his family, Eldon Tucker, Tanya, Tammie, David, Theresa White and Sabrina.

PLAN TO CONTACT SCHOOL STUDENTS

John Edmundson, principal of Ione Schools, has reported a rapid contact system for notifying students of school closures and other emergencies.

Bus students will be contacted by their route drivers. Town students will be contacted by designated persons; Mrs. Darcene Meyers, Mrs. Linda Prock, Mrs. Linda Granger, Mrs. Lorrene Montgomery, Mrs. Mary Holtz and Mrs. Marilyn Rietmann. Families without telephones will be contacted by messengers.

Sharing is Caring

Ski buffs can get packages

With the arrival of snow, ski enthusiasts head to Arbuckle Mountain.

Ski packages are being offered this year for 4-H members, family groups and single persons. A ski package for 4-H members include: instructions, bus trips, and tow tickets for 10 weekends for $25.

4-H members can sign up for the ski package with Joyce Bergstrom, Heppner, or Dick McElligott and John Edmundson, Ione.

The family packet includes tow tickets for the entire family for the season for $60. A single person can ski with a $25 tow ticket for the season.

Snowmobilers will meet here, Dec. 17

Four Corners Snowmobile Club held its monthly meeting at the Hermiston Eagles Club, Nov. 25.

Guests Marvin Chitty and Art Galbraith of the U.S. Forest Service answered questions regarding trails and related subjects.

A movie on snowmobile safety was shown, and a machine and rider quiz was given.

Anyone interested in obtaining snowmobile operator's licenses for under-age children should contact Bud Englehart, Hermiston, or Butch Laughlin, Heppner.

Members Butch Laughlin, Archie Ball and Harry O'Donnell will be cooperating with the Forest Service in planning marked trails, constructing shelters and posting winter game ranges.

Interested persons are invited to attend the next meeting at the Heppner Elks lodge, Dec. 17.
