

Band Carnival Saturday

The annual Band Carnival sponsored by the Heppner Band Parents will be Saturday, April 20, at the Morrow County fair pavilion.

The carnival will include a family-style spaghetti dinner, hot dogs and refreshments; carnival booths, bingo, and a dance at 10 p.m., featuring The Streakers (Jim Ackley and Matt Greenup.)

Parents of band students decorate and man the booths and kitchen. Regular features of the carnival will include the dunk tank, country store and the jail.

Door prizes will be offered during the evening. A drawing will be held for a TV set with proceeds to go toward the 6th grade outdoor school.

The carnival has been a long-standing and successful feature of the school year, according to Marion Abrams, band parent member.

Irrigon

The Community Sunrise Service will be held at the school athletic field in Irrigon at 6:30 a.m. Easter Sunday morning.

Pastor Charles Ashby of the Community Baptist Church will be the speaker. Pastor Robert Schmoll and members of the Assembly of God will join in the service. A sunrise breakfast will follow.

A film entitled, "A Thief in the Night," will be shown at the A.C. Houghton School auditorium at 7:30 p.m. Sunday. The film is sponsored by the Assembly of God. The community is welcome to attend.

The Park Drive-In in Irrigon is now under the management of Mr. and Mrs. William Knight, who have a catering service and who specialize in doughnuts and pastries.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Wilson, the owners, plan to spend the summer in Alaska, but want to finish their new home before they leave. The first trailer moved into their Mobile Home Park this past week. The park has been under construction for the past year and four spaces have been made ready for use.

Two office spaces will be made ready for use by the first of July. One will be the Justice of the Peace office.

Senior citizens who attended the dinner at the Irrigon Lions Clubhouse at 4:30 p.m. Monday are reminded to bring their own table service. The State Board of Health requires this since there is not an electric dishwasher at the clubhouse.

Those who play bingo are asked to bring a white elephant gift to donate to the game.

Recent visitors at the E.A. Stephens home were their daughter Mrs. Ray (Jean)

Purtyman of Phoenix, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eggman of Tacoma, and May McKinney of Pendleton.

Bruce Buchanan, a student at OSU, Corvallis, spent the weekend in Irrigon visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Buchanan, and his grandmother, Josephine Buchanan.

Ada Montague spent the week visiting her daughter in Ellensburg, Wn.

There was good attendance at the dance Saturday night, March 30, given for the Irrigon Lion's Club Pee Wee Rodeo Club.

Laurie Harmon of Hermiston was crowned queen of the 1974 court. Kelly Wallis of Stanfield was first runner-up. Other contestants were Kimberly Neusser and Julie Godier of Hermiston.

Queen Idella Zetter and her sister, Princess Ida Zetter of Hermiston, and Princess Robin Stewart of Irrigon who were members of the 1973 court of the Northwest Pee Wee Rodeo Association, were present. They were not eligible to compete this year.

Live music was provided by Ernest and Margaret Jorgensen, Mildred Baker and Lloyd Berger. The Irrigon Lions wish to express their thanks to them for their services.

COUNTY STUDENTS ON OSU HONOR ROLL

Names of local students who made the scholastic honor roll winter term have been announced by Oregon State University.

A total of 629 students earned straight-A's. Another 1,573 earned a B-plus (3.5) or better to make the honor listing.

Local students on the honor roll included: Lewis D. Barnhart, sophomore, business and technology, Boardman; and Kristin S. Nelson, senior, home economics.
