Ione water bid may be accepted

At a special Ione City Council meeting Friday night the city accepted the water improvement system bid of Claude C. Nousen of Cottage Grove, Ore.

Nousen's bid of approximately $38,000 was about $8,000 over the amount planned on by the council.

Mayor Bob Drake said the bid was accepted by the council "with deletions." He noted that the contract has the stipulation that the city may delete portions of construction to cut down on the costs which are over the budgeted amount.

Drake said a tentative deletion would be a 6-inch water line "up the hill" in Ione. The agreement was finally reached after much consideration by the council and City Engineer Steve Anderson. It was necessary to do this in a hurried fashion due a time limit set on the bid's approval.

Drake said. The contract, complete with deletions, has yet to be signed by Nousen.
