

P. O. BOX 315
BOARDMAN, OREGON 97818

Extends its congratulations to the 1974 Harvest Festival Queen and her Princesses. When the Court presides over Boardman's Harvest Festival this Fall we believe that we will have contributed much to the agricultural production to which the Festival is dedicated. We are partners in a great agricultural development; let us work together to make it great for all of us in this area . . .

Eastern Oregon
Farming
Co.

The best things in life aren't free. We have to work hard to be good citizens, and to develop a good community where we can all enjoy the best living and working climate. We need to be recognized for our efforts, and be proud to tell the world about them. Which is why we use this space to recognize and congratulate the 1974 Harvest Festival Queen and Court which will be telling our story around the country this year.

Boardman picks a . . .

. . . Harvest Queen

Meet the 1974 Harvest Queen and her Princesses. From the left, Princess Etta Lou Christianson, Queen Denise Henkle and Princess Debbie Christianson. The Queen and her Court will reign over the Harvest Festival this fall.

These eight Riverside High School students vied for the 1974 Harvest Queen title Saturday night at the high school auditorium. Contestants appeared in formals, changed for the talent contest, and were back in formals for the judges' decision. From the left are: Cynthia Matthews, Denise Henkle, Mary Dixon, Barbara Hilling, Etta Lou Christianson, Debbie Christianson, Pam Hug and Amy Hilling.

DESERT MAGIC, INC.

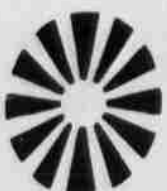

Desert Magic is proud of the 1974 Harvest Queen and Court selected Saturday night to carry the story of this magic land to other people in other places. There is a story to tell, and Desert Magic is part of the story. The eyes of the agricultural world are upon the Boardman area, where amazing progress is being made in the science of food production to feed the world.

HOWARD KARTCHNER
President

TECHBUILT
CORPORATION

Salutes Boardman's 1974 Harvest Queen and Princesses . . . Civic pride is the foundation upon which to build any city; and building is what Techbuilt Corporation is all about. . . When you see Techbuilt think of architects, engineers and constructors who design and build the finest commercial and industrial buildings in the Pacific Northwest. Techbuilt is proud to be a part of this growing Boardman area . . .

200 - 112th AVENUE N.E.
BELLEVUE, WASHINGTON
(206) 455-5990 98004

We join with other agricultural and industrial interests in support of community projects such as the selection of the 1974 Harvest Festival Court Saturday night. You may Count on Boeing Agri-Industrial Company to join in and support the worthwhile projects of Boardman and Morrow County. Ten years ago we at Boeing had a dream about the future of agriculture in this area. That dream is near reality today. This is our home, too, and we hope to be good citizens of this community in the years ahead . . .

BOEING

Agri-Industrial Company

Boardman, Ore.