Over The Tee Cup

"On the Road" should be the title of this column this week, for that's where Willow Creek golfers have been spending a good share of their time recently. Six local golfers participated in the Round-Up Amateur Tournament in Pendleton, Sunday, June 9. Lowell Gribble and Morrie Groves brought home honors for Willow Creek. Congratulations, gents!

Also on Sunday a large group of WC golfers went to Condon for invitational play. Gary Hunt led the pack with an 85 to win low gross and KP. Doug Gunderson captured 2nd low and Francis Doherty netted 3rd. C.C. Carmichael won 1st low net and long drive; Mike Mills and Conley Lanham tied for 2nd low.

On the distaff side, Vi Lanham earned the low gross and KP awards; Harriet Evans nabbed low net and long drive prizes.

Wednesday the ladies will be traveling to Willow Run to challenge the course. Good luck, everyone—and thanks for proving to us that the gas shortage is indeed over!

Tuesday play saw seven women out to "do their thing." Dee Gribble won a ball for least putts on four specified holes. "Anonymous" was rewarded for the most strokes on No. 9—we'll give her name when she wins something that indicates the kind of fine and improving game she's really playing.

Tuesday, June 18, we will be hosting ladies from four clubs in the area. Chairman Dee Gribble anticipates approximately 50 golfers will attend this event. Coffee and doughnuts will be served at 8:30; tee-off time will be 9:00 with a shot-gun start. We're asking all local female members to attend. If you don't want to golf, your help is desperately needed in the kitchen. This is our first invitational in several years, so please help us make it a big success.

FFA wins 2nd at livestock show

Heppner High School's Future Farmers of America chapter fared well in competition at the Eastern Oregon Livestock Show in Union last weekend as it won second place.

The FFA squad was made up of Sandy and Judy Bennett, Kelwayne and Kristi Hagewood and Rhonda Sargent. Alternates attending were Bill VanSchoiack and Mark Sargent.

In individual showing it was the Sargent family "all the way" as Rhonda and Mark took top honors with their sheep.

In the FFA competition Mark claimed honors for reserve grand champion market lamb, champion crossbred ewe, grand champion senior sheep showmen, and reserve grand champion all-around senior showman.

In the 4-H judging Rhonda was awarded grand champion market lamb, reserve champion senior showman and reserve champion all-around sheep showman.

The FFA will be competing as a team at many of the fairs and competitions this summer.
