

Junior Rodeo photos . . .

Tim Daly, Heppner, tosses his lariat around the calf's head in the senior boys calf roping event of Saturday's Junior Rodeo.

Dee Dee Karl, Bend, Ore., shows girls are not necessarily the weaker sex. Here she "sets a fine bull" in the senior girls cow riding contest Saturday at the Junior Rodeo.

It wasn't easy for Marie Yocom to stay aboard her calf last Saturday when he left the ground with all four feet. Marie managed to stay on top for a few seconds more before she finally hit the dirt in the junior girls calf riding contest Saturday.

Graduation exercises have been "big" at the Bill Marquardt home the past weeks. A daughter, Charma, graduated from Heppner High School, followed by the exercises at Pullman, Wn., where a son, Rick, received his master's degree in science and arts from Washington State University. His parents and family, grandmother Norma Marquardt, and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. T.E. Messenger, went to Pullman to be present. He will teach in Connell, Wn., next year. A daughter, Norita, received her diploma from Blue Mountain College in Pendleton Sunday, and a son, Bruce, graduated last week from the US Navy school with an electronic technician, (radar) 3rd class rating. He is visiting his parents and friends this week from San Diego. Also graduating from Heppner were the Carl Marquardt daughters, Carlita and Lolita.

Graduating from Blue Mountain Community College are Bobby VanWinkle, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. VanWinkle, who with his grandmother, Cleo VanWinkle, were also present for the exercises. Craig Munkers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Munkers, also received his degree, and his parents were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Rick Marquardt and son of Pullman visited with his brother, Bruce, one day last week.

Florence McMillan and Freda Majeske returned Friday from Portland where they were delegates to the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon. They were delegates from Holly Rebekah Lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Padberg, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Martin, Lexington; Mr. and Mrs. Dean Ausman of Asotin, Wn.; and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Bissinger of Pendleton enjoyed several days last week at Expo '74 in Spokane.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Munkers were Portland callers last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam McMillan of Portland were Morrow County visitors over the weekend with friends and relatives, and attended the auction and barbecue dinner at Lone.

Mrs. Bill B. Marquardt and family and Mrs. Carl Marquardt and Carlita were Portland visitors Monday, taking Billie June Owens to the plane for her home in Eagletown, Okla.

Mrs. Myra Peck is a patient in Hiersche's Nursing Home in Pendleton.

The Lillian C. Turner Foundation met at the Lexington Grange Hall at 6:30 p.m. Saturday starting with a potluck dinner. Following the meeting a business meeting was held with the chairman, William J. VanWinkle, presiding. The purpose of the meeting was to elect a board of trustees and to grant a loan for this year. Directors elected were William J. VanWinkle and Irvin Rauch of Lexington, Jack VanWinkle of Heppner and Clayton Davis of Pendleton. Delpha Jones is secretary. Membership dues are still $2 and may be sent to either the secretary or chairman. A board of directors meeting is planned for September with the annual meeting date being changed to the first Saturday in May of each year.

The Committee on Women's Activities met at the home of Mrs. O.W. Cutsforth Monday. Plans were made for a picnic at the Cutsforth cabin, June 30, at which time any grange businesses will be transacted. There is no June 17 meeting. A club meeting and potluck luncheon will be held at the Norman Nelson Ranch on July 2 at 12:30 p.m. Refreshments were served and Mrs. Marquardt won the door prize. Present were Delpha Jones, Florence McMillan, Hilda Yocom, Betty and Carlita Marquardt and Jean Nelson.

The PNG Club met at the home of Mrs. Archie Munkers Wednesday with Catie Padberg acting as co-hostess. A dinner was served after which the ladies spent the afternoon in visiting. Those present were Freida Majeske, Delpha Jones, Ruth Robinson, Hilda Yocom, Leila Palmer, Ruth Robinson, Donna Papineau, Gladys VanWinkle and Florence McMillan. Door prize was won by Delpha Jones.

Camp for children 9 to 12

One of the highlights of the 4-H year for members 9 through 12 years of age is the 4-H camp which will be held this year during July rather than the traditional last week in June.

Pre-registrations to attend were mailed to all eligible members last week, according to Birdine Tullis, extension program assistant.

Counselors will be needed for the camp, and older 4-H members wishing to serve as counselors should contact the extension office at once. A number of new events and activities are planned for camp this year.

Deadline for the registrations will be June 26, with a charge of $10 per camper to accompany the registration.

GOT A MINUTE?

We're not much in the horn-blowing department, but when 2,000 families most of whom are your neighbors, subscribe to the weekly Gazette-Times, there must be a reason.

We admit to being a lively newspaper, with strong opinions on everything from Acid Heads to Zambesian Headhunters.

Some people think the cost of $5 a year for the Gazette-Times is a bargain, when you consider that it's less than a cup of coffee a week. Others aren't so sure!

If you'd like to see what the Gazette-Times is up to, send $5 ($6 outside Oregon). If you don't have $5 on you, we'll charge it against your next fall's wheat crop.

OK? Sign here and return to Gazette-Times, Box 337, Heppner, Ore. 97836
