

MR. AND MRS. DALE HEDMAN

Hedman-Jones vows exchanged here

Altar flowers of delphinium and daisies formed the background at the wedding of Bobbette Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Jones, and Dale Allen Hedman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnie Hedman, all of Heppner.

The Rev. David Blackaller and the Rev. Dirk Rinehart performed the ceremony at All Saints Episcopal Church, Heppner, Sunday, June 16, at 2 p.m.

Two large baskets of delphinium and daisies framed the altar entrance and the pews were adorned with bouquets of daisies tied with blue bows.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white floor-length gown fashioned of organza over peau, re-embroidered with Venice lace. The bodice was accented in lace with motifs throughout the gown and styled with high neckline, princess waistline and bishop sleeves. The full skirt was edged with a bottom ruffle. Her mantilla veil of English illusion net and camellia cap were trimmed in lace matching the gown. The bridal bouquet was baby white roses, blue delphinium and stephanotis.

Matron of honor Kathy Hedman, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, wore a blue organza gown floored with white daisies and tied at the empire waistline with blue satin ribbon. Bridesmaids Dee Hedman, sister of the bridegroom, and Shanny Farley wore matching gowns and each carried a nosegay of daisies.

Allen McCabe served as best man. Ushers were Steven Jones, brother of the bride; Mike, Jon and Steve Hedman, brothers of the bridegroom; and Bill Jepsen.

Ann Rinehart was flower girl with Michael Jones, brother of the bride, and Timmy Hedman, brother of the bridegroom, lighting the candles.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Jones chose a long white silk screen print in blue and golds with an accordion pleated skirt. Mrs. Hedman, mother of the bridegroom, wore a

Sue Townsend weds Saturday

Sue Townsend, and Jim Wiegand will be married Saturday, July 6, in Portland.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hershall Townsend, formerly of this area. A reception and buffet supper will be held for the couple July 16, 6 p.m., at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Norman Hoxsey, 1565 SW Battaglia St., Gresham, with friends and relatives invited to attend.

Pre-fair Fun Day July 9

All 4-H girls, their leaders and mothers are invited to attend a pre-fair fun day July 9 at Heppner Elementary School.

A full afternoon of "girl talk" and modeling training will be provided the girls by Extension Agents Cheri Jo Carter, Kathy Jamieson, Debbie Barker and Kathy West, clothing and knitting judge. A number of local clothing leaders will also assist with the training.

Girls should plan to be on hand to register from 12:45 to 1:15 p.m. Mothers and friends are invited to come to the elementary school at 2:30 p.m. to see a style revue by members and enjoy a tea served by the foods clubs led by Pat Pettyjohn, June Lindstrom, Gladys Hobbs and Leann Rea.

Gilliam County 4-H girls have been invited to attend the training, according to Birdine Tullis, extension program assistant. As a special added attraction the style show will be video taped and the girls will be able to view themselves on TV as models. The training is planned to help the girls and get them in the mood for fair events.

Library schedule changes

Because of the July 4 holiday the library will not open Thursday evening.

The A.A.U.W. Monday morning children's story hour will skip the Monday following the 4th, July 8, and will resume its regular schedule of stories at 10 a.m. on Mondays the rest of July and August.

Mrs. Harnett has opened the museum on Thursday evenings the last two weeks especially to accommodate enrollees from the Tupper Youth Camp who come into Heppner on Thursdays.

Some Heppner residents who have not visited the museum on its Saturday and Sunday schedule have found the Thursday evening opening convenient. Mrs. Harnett will not open the museum this Thursday, as it is understood that the Tupper youth are taking a field trip and will not be in Heppner—however, she is considering Thursday evening openings again beginning July 11.

Program for older 4-Hers

Two Morrow County 4-H members have been selected to serve at Oregon State Fair this year in a new program allowing older 4-H members to serve as teen staff, according to Birdine Tullis, extension program assistant.

Anita Davidson, Lexington, and Christine Evans, Heppner, will go to Salem to assist with fair events Aug. 30 through Sept. 1. Both girls have participated in 4-H contests at the state fair in the past. Members must make application through the County Extension Office to be considered for the events. Any older member interested in participating as teen staff this year should call the extension office immediately for application forms.

EASTERN STAR TO INSTALL

Ruth Chapter of the Eastern Star will hold its installation at 2 p.m., July 7, at the Heppner Masonic Temple.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Halverson will be installed as Worthy Patron and Matron.

SUMMER READING FOR OLDER KIDS

The library now has reading folders ready for "older" children—those too big for the Monday story hours.

Anyone in the 9 to 13 age group is invited to come in and get a reading record and "doodle book" from the librarian; and to talk to her about these booklets made possible by the county extension office.

GYM OPEN FOR WEIGHT CONTROL

The Heppner High School gym will be open to the public Thursday evenings from 7 to 9 p.m. for weight workout and conditioning, starting July 11. Persons interested in the course are requested to bring their own towels.
