

Irrigon news

Muriel Ruggles of Moscow, Idaho, has been visiting her sister, Itoi Rucker, in Irrigon during the past week. She has returned to her home with her daughter, Violet Lopez, who also visited relatives in the area.

Pastor and Mrs. Robert Schmoll and family went to Sidney, Mont., to attend his high school 10-year class reunion. He also planned to visit his parents who still live there. During his absence the Rev. J. Vernon Morgan of Salem will fill the pulpit for both Sunday services and Wednesday night prayer meeting. Services are at 7 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brandt of Irrigon vacationed in their travel camper through California, visiting Disneyland.

Mrs. Al Partlow and Sheryl Partlow left this week for a vacation in Hawaii. They traveled with her sister and nephew, Mrs. Gene Berg and Ronnie, to Seattle where the Partlows took a plane to Hawaii and the Bergs went on to Canada. Mrs. Partlow is the postmaster here. During her absence Mrs. Don Eppenbach will be in the post office.

The Riverside High School class of 1964 will have its 10-year reunion July 5-6. A dinner is planned at the Boardman Grange Hall for the evening of July 5, with a picnic in the park the next day. This includes all Irrigon and Boardman students of the class of '64.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren McCoy attended the VFW convention in Medford last week. McCoy was elected state chaplain. He had formerly been inspector.

Recent visitors at the McCoy home were her sister and daughter, Mrs. Katherine Cameron and Kris, Portland.

Irrigon resident claimed

Louisa P. Horner, 85, Irrigon, died at Good Shepherd Hospital, Hermiston, last Tuesday. She was born in Illinois, Jan. 5, 1889, and had been a resident of Irrigon for the past 42 years.

Survivors are a son, John Horner, Irrigon; a brother, Truman Paulson, Enterprise; sisters, Mrs. Carl Knighten, Irrigon, and Mrs. Tom Gurdane, The Dalles; two grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Graveside services were held Thursday at the Olney Cemetery, Pendleton. Burns Mortuary was in charge of arrangements.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Ford, Irrigon, celebrated their silver anniversary with a reception and dance at the Irrigon Lions Club Hall, June 8.

The couple was married at the Presbyterian Church, Grandview, Wn., June 9, 1949. Hosts for the occasion were their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Tarter; their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Ford; and Mrs. Ford's mother, Mrs. Edith Brandenburg. A surprise guest was their son, Sgt. Larry Ford, U.S. Air Force.

Jerry Levis has sold his Lexington Standard Station to Lee Hamilton of Washington State.

Campers up late

Campers who planned to get to sleep early up at Cutsforth Park Saturday night were out of luck.

The Ione Grand Squares, a square dance club, held its annual picnic and dance at the park Saturday night. Four squares of people turned out to kick up their heels and keep three callers busy calling out the dances. Campers at the park didn't seem to mind. They came down to the dining hall to watch the dance.

A potluck picnic preceded the dance, the last regular event for the club until September. However, members will be attending dances around the state. A group plan to join with Pendleton square dancers next Saturday night in a trip to Elgin to dance to the calling of Rocky Angland.

Little League champions

The B & I Majors are champions of the Columbia Little League with a 13-3 record. Other Columbia LL teams are from Umatilla, Stanfield and Echo. Coaches were Billy Griffin, Jerry Watts and Burrell Cooley.

Rudy Montoya, Billy Schnell, Tim Griffin, David Cooley, Tom Abercrombie, Rocky Steagall and Larry Wilson were selected for All-Star tryouts from the B & I team. The first tryout will be Tuesday, July 2, 6 p.m., at the Irrigon field.

Team members other than All-Stars are Gene McKee, Scott Daniels, Jimmy Peck, Donnie Rock, Eldon Reneman and David Christiansen.

Over The Tee Cup

By R & L

After several weeks of entertaining and traveling, this past week was a time for enjoying cooler weather and the course at home, which was exactly what a dozen did last ladies' day.

Vi Lanham and Bev Gunderson were the winning duo for the morning, putting together the best combined low gross score. Marie McQuarrie won honors for her skill on the green. All other golfers accepted coffee and lemonade as their reward for games well-played.

John Edmundson and Gene Pierce hosted 20 men at the morning play Sunday. Lowell Gribble shot the low gross score; Ray Ferguson captured low net. La Verne Van Marter Sr. had the least putts; Edmundson made his long putt on number 1 a prize-winner. Dave Harrison made the KP shot on number 3; Forrie Burkenbine was a winner with his second shot on number 6 for another KP situation. Harry McCauley had the long drive for the day on number 6.

We understand that the men's Wednesday evening play hasn't gotten off the ground yet. Evening is a lovely time of day for golf here; why don't you gents give Ed Hiemstra a call and indicate to him your preference of day and hour for tee-off? There are still two months left for some excellent twilight golfing. There are several barbecues and a visitation planned for this month. If you don't have a copy of the barbecue and play schedule for the summer, pick one up from Vi Lanham, our general chairman. Our club events are more fun when everyone participates.

GRANGE MEETING IS JULY 12

Rhea Creek Grange regular meeting will be Friday night, July 12, starting at 8 p.m., instead of the usual potluck supper.

Refreshments will be served following the meeting. Mrs. Walter Wright was hostess at the CWA ladies' meeting last Thursday. A picnic at the park was planned for the July 18 meeting.

Free health exams for students

Free health examinations for pre-school and pre-high school students will be offered by qualified medical staff.

The service will be available in two locations: Irrigon Elementary School, Monday, Aug. 26; and Heppner Elementary School, Aug. 27.

These examinations are required of students entering school next term. The medical information will be sent to parents. Appointments are required, and should be made with Tiny Sweeney, Morrow County Health Department; or Birdine Tullis at the Extension Service.

Volunteers are needed to assist with the clinics. Those able to donate a day or part of a day's service should call Mrs. Tullis at 676-9642. Nurses and lab technicians are also needed.

Big summer ahead for rodeo youth

This summer 170 boys and girls from Oregon and Washington, aged 9-18, are competing in a series of seven rodeos under the Western States Junior Rodeo Association.

Representing the local area are David and Jana Steagall, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Steagall, Lexington, and Jerry Gentry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gentry, Heppner.

In the June 15-16 competition at Halfway, David placed 1st in breakaway roping and Jerry took 5th in calf roping. Jana came home from the Lakeview Rodeo, June 22-23, with 1st place honors in barrel racing. David gained 3rds in calf riding, breakaway roping and team roping with Lynn Parsons, Walla Walla, Wa. The June 29-30 Redmond Rodeo gave Jana a 1st in pole bending and 3rds in barrel race and scurry race. David secured another 1st in breakaway roping in which he is now ranking 1st in finals for the year.

Next in the series is the Hermiston Rodeo, Aug. 8-10, and the final show will be held at John Day, Aug. 24-25.
