

Kinzua news

Mr. and Mrs. Art Shoemaker and family of Boise, Idaho, arrived Thursday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Benson and family. Mrs. Shoemaker is a sister of Mrs. Benson. Friday they all went to Portland to visit their brother, Glenn Emert, and family.

A handicraft meeting was held June 19 at the home of Betty Murdock. The project for June was making decorative cats. Present were Carol Norris, Terry Todd, Wanda Dunlap, Sandy Williamson and Marguerite Stanton, with Betty as hostess.

June 19 a party was held to celebrate Mike Van Arsdale's 9th birthday. Mrs. Pat Van Arsdale and Mrs. Judy Warming took the boys to Condon for a day of swimming. Later they enjoyed cake and ice cream in the park. Those helping Mike celebrate were Craig Warming, Gary Todd, Justin Williamson, Andy Samples, Charlie Conrad, and Steve Van Arsdale.

Returning Thursday from a few days' vacationing in Reno were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rice, Lee Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Jellick and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hulett.

Mrs. Lee Ralston took her daughter Becky to Portland where she left by plane for Denver to spend the remainder of the summer visiting relatives.

Spending a week's vacation in Salt Lake City were Mr. and Mrs. John Nelson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Wright and family and Mr. and Mrs. Omar Stubblefield.

Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Arden Tripp and Billy and Mr. and Mrs. Larry O'Neill and Chad went to The Dalles leaving Chad with his grandmother, Mrs. Georgeann Larson. They went on to Portland to meet Tom Tripp of Lewistown, Mont., then on to Silverton to attend the Wednesday funeral services of Larry's mother, Mrs. Aileen O'Neill.

Mr. and Mrs. Dempsey Simms and Mike Nelson left Friday for Portland to attend the graduation of Cathy Nelson from the Bryman School. Cathy, a medical assistant, won the Ideal Girl Award. In July she will go to Salem to take her internship for a month.

Wednesday the Double Deck Card Club held its regular card party with Betty Saddler as hostess. Prizes went to Lavelle Jellick for second high score and Irene Samples won high. The pinochles went to Bonnie Campbell and Lavelle Jellick. Others enjoying the evening were, Hallie Spivey, Vi Slinkard, Naomi Rice and Roberta Conlee.

The Merry Makers Card Club held its regular card party June 19 at the grade school with Lora Hire, as hostess. Dinah Jackson won high, Sue Mattison second high, and the pinochles went to Julia Davis and Hallie Spivey. Sue Mattison won grand high for the three-month series and Irene Samples won second grand high. Others playing were Bonnie Campbell and Molly Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Mitchell and Mr. and Mrs. Ken Sewell left Friday for a weekend of fishing and camping at the Prineville Reservoir.

Marsha Freeman and Dawn Cory of Pendleton were home Wednesday for a brief visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dub Freeman of Fossil, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Cory. Mr. and Mrs. Dale Sargeant and family went to Kettle Falls, Wa., Friday to visit relatives. The children remained to visit grandparents. Mr. and Mrs. Sargeant went on to Reno for a few days.

The Wheeler County Archers Thursday night potluck shoot was held but the meeting was postponed until July 11 as a number of the members are on vacation.

Henry Spivey, Herschel Murdock, La Vina and Verlin Conner all participated in the two day—North West Sectional Shoot at Bend Saturday and Sunday. Fifty-six targets were shot Saturday and 28 Sunday. Participants were from Montana, Idaho, Washington, Oregon and California. The T-bone system was used and awards were given by the NFAA. The Oregon Bow Hunters sponsored and put on this tournament this year.

Wheeler County archers, made a good showing. In Men's Flight 6 Henry Spivey took 1st place and Herschel Murdock, 3rd. In Women's Flight 6, La Vina Conner took 1st place.

Wheeler County Archers will participate in and attend the State Field Shoot in Bend, July 13-14.

MR. AND MRS. THOMAS STEWART

Dolores Hilling is a June bride

Boardman—Dolores Jean Mary Hilling became the bride of Thomas Duane Stewart in a candlelight ceremony June 15 at the Boardman Community Church.

The double ring service was performed by the Rev. Douglas Dougherty, pastor of the First Church of God in La Grande. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hilling of Boardman, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Stewart of Irrigon.

Mrs. Albert Partlow of Irrigon was organist, and Mrs. Frank Stewart of La Grande, grandmother of the groom, was soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white chiffon over satin, fashioned with high neck, and the bodice trimmed with lace medallions and down the skirt. It had long sleeves trimmed with tiny buttons, and buttons down the back. It had a chapel-length train. Her finger tip veil was held in place by a beaded crown. She carried a bouquet of daisies and carnations.

Barbara Hilling was her sister's maid of honor, and wore a floor-length gown of pink satin with overlay of pink chiffon trimmed with dark pink and white daisies. It had a white bodice. She wore a light pink garden hat and carried a bouquet of white daisies and pink carnations. Bridesmaids were Amy Hilling, sister of the bride, Sharon Stewart, sister of the groom, and Debbie McCoy, cousin of the groom. Their gowns and hats were identical to those of the maid of honor, as were their bouquets.

Candlelighters were Charlot Hilling, sister of the bride, and Steven Hilling, brother of the bride. Cindy Hilling, sister of the bride and Tiffany Stewart, cousin of the groom, were flower girls. Jeffrey Hilling, brother of the bride, was ring bearer.

Ronald Zielinski was best man, and ushers were Larry Courtney of Portland, and Mike McCoy of La Grande and Terry McCoy of Everett, Wa., all cousins of the groom.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the commons area of Riverside High School. The three-tiered cake was topped with white doves and bells, with a bride and groom standing between the bottom and second layers. The cake was cut and served by Mrs. Vernon Russell and Mrs. Gene Trumbull. Mrs. Walter Hayes served the coffee, and pouring punch were Mrs. Delmer Hug and Mrs. Kenneth Broadbent. Diana Shields and Sheryl Partlow had the guest book and Pam and Debbie Hug were in charge of gifts.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Hilling wore a floor-length burgundy gown with pink flowers blending with burgundy flowers on the apron. The groom's mother wore a floor-length turquoise gown.

The bride and groom are both graduates of Riverside High School, and the bride is a graduate of Blue Mountain Community College in Pendleton. The groom is a graduate of Blue Mountain and Eastern Oregon College in La Grande. After a trip to Vancouver, B.C., and Everett, Wa., they are living in Everett.

Guests attended from Everett and Seattle, Wa., Portland, Pendleton and La Grande.

CORRECTION

Sue Townsend and Jim Wiegand, who were married in Portland, July 6, will be honored at a reception on Saturday, July 13, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Norman Hoxsey, 1565 SW Battaglia St., Gresham.

The Gazette-Times erroneously reported last week that the reception would be held July 16.

Friends and relatives are invited to the reception and buffet supper in Gresham, Saturday, July 13.

Rowell-Mansfield vows exchanged

Candi Mansfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mansfield, lone, became the bride of Michael William Rowell, son of Mr. William Rowell, lone, and Mrs. Ray Turner, Eugene, on June 22, at 7 p. m.

The ceremony was read by the Rev. William Arthur at United Church of Christ.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of white satin with an overlay of white lace on the bodice, empire waistline, high puffed neck, and a train of white lace. Her shoulder-length veil was held in place by a halo of red roses with red and white ribbon streamers. Her bridal bouquet consisted of red roses with white carnations.

Matron of honor Robin Humphreys, sister of bride, wore a floor-length white gown with red dots and short puffed sleeves and scooped neckline. Bridesmaids Bev Phlegley, Heppner, and Terry Taylor, lone, wore floor-length atom-red gowns with short puffed sleeves and scooped neckline. All her attendants carried long-stemmed red roses.

Attendants of the groom included Bill Fuller, Eugene, best man. Ushers were Monte Turner, brother of the groom, Eugene; Jerry Pettyjohn Earl Pettyjohn, Matt Murray and Dick Snider, all of lone.

Flower girl was Holly Humphreys, niece of the bride, and candle lighters were Leslie Humphreys, brother-in-law of the bride, and Randy Espinosa, cousin of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Dorene Mansfield wore a floor-length pink knit dress with white accessories. Mrs. Dolores Turner, mother of the groom, wore a blue and white checked suit with white accessories.

Pouring were Margret Nichols and Dorothy Holl, grandmother of the bride. Attending the gift table was Lynn Humphreys; and the guest book, Theresa Mead.

The couple will reside in lone.

Vote set on city charter

The voters will decide July 29 whether to adopt a new and updated city charter to replace the one under which the city has operated since 1918.

The Heppner Common Council Monday night read and approved City Ordinance 392, which calls for adoption of the new revised charter. The council vote was unanimous in favor of acceptance of the charter. It will now go to a vote of the people.

The new charter has been under revision for the past couple of years, and was recently ordered printed. The printed copies of the charter will be available for public inspection prior to the special election.

In other business, the council agreed to purchase a new pipe locator. The old one has been damaged beyond repair.

Lexington

Mr. and Mrs. C. Christman and family spent several days this week visiting in Montana and at Expo '74.

Florence McMillan has returned home after a week's vacation at the home of her daughter, Mrs. G.E. Irvin, and family.

The two-story ranch house once occupied by the William C. and Cleo VanWinkle family was moved last week from the Dopplemier Ranch to the Messenger lot, recently purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Elwayne Bergstrom, who purchased the house and moved it into town.

Clayton Davis of Pendleton spent the weekend at the William J. VanWinkle cabin in the mountains. They spent the time cutting wood for the winter months.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Way and family had as house guests last week her mother from Goldendale, Wn., and uncle from San Diego, Ca., who is visiting other relatives and friends in Goldendale.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Smith and children of Hermiston spent a couple of days this week at the C.C. Jones Ranch before going on to Cutsforth Park for a week's vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Petit and son of Athena were weekend visitors at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Papineau, Carol Papineau, who has been visiting them in Athena, returned home after a two-week visit.

Youths fined—drugs

Four Richland, Wn., residents were arrested Friday afternoon by the Oregon State Police on Highway 730 near Irrigon and charged with criminal activities in drugs (possession of marijuana).

Arrested were Brian Shipley Bennett, 19, Clark Allen Bennett, 22, and Colin Darryl Cooley, 18. A juvenile also arrested was released to his parents, while the other three were lodged in the Hermiston jail under $1,505 bail each.

They were transferred to Morrow County Monday and arraigned before Justice of the Peace Charles O'Connor, who fined each of the men $50 and gave them credit for having spent three days in jail. The reason for the reduced sentence was that each of the three had less than one ounce of marijuana in his possession.

J. Garland Green of Bel Air, Md., arrived here Monday for a few days' visit with the Herman Green family. He is Mr. Green's half-nephew, and says he has been trying to get to Heppner for a visit since he last saw the Herman Greens back in 1939. Since the poor guy has never seen a rodeo, he will be treated to one while here and will also attend the July 4 celebration at Condon.

We're in Morrow County every Monday

Starrett's Decor Center

• floor covering • paints • draperies

where we are LONG on COLOR

Call KIT MARTIN 567-5324 Collect for Appointment 1000 N. First HERMISTON

GRAIN FIRE INSURANCE

—The Fire Season is here.

—Don't let your season's work and income go up in smoke.

—No waiting period. Coverage bound immediately.

—See us for your Grain Fire Insurance needs.

Turner, Van Marter and Bryant

Heppner, Or 676-9113

SIDEWALK SALE

Bargains galore at GARDNER'S!

Gals Western Pants . . Half Price

Gals Western Blouses 4.⁵⁰

FOR MEN ONLY

Reg. 39.95
Wool Western COATS 22.00

Dress shirts 3.00
Dress shoes 6.00
Deck shoes 4.50

Large assortment of men's Western pants.

Cowboy Boots broken sizes Real Bargain

Gardner's Men's Store Heppner Ph. 676-9218

WOMEN BACK FROM HAWAII

Mrs. Alvin Wagenblast, Lexington, and her sister, Mrs. Randall Martin, Pilot Rock, are home after an 8-day Hawaiian tour, June 27-July 4.

The women took in many sights, tours and shows which included Pearl Harbor, the Mormon Temple, shopping centers, the Don Ho Show, a tour of the islands, a luau and the Polynesian Cultural Center. Mrs. Wagenblast's favorite was the cultural center. She was impressed with the performance and organization of the thousands of students who participate. They also witnessed a pineapple harvest, tasted the fresh fruit and saw how bananas are grown.

INTERAGENCY MEETS IN IRRIGON TUESDAY

A full membership meeting of the Interagency is scheduled for Tuesday, July 16, at the Irrigon Cafe, 11:45 a.m., a no-host luncheon meeting.

Those wishing to consolidate rides may call Del Smith, 676-5030, or Birdine Tullis, 676-9642. The agenda includes a report of the steering committee on recruitment of doctors for the area.

SEEING IS BELIEVING

Fit, comfort, and long-lasting service are among the many extra value features you should look into before buying your next pair of work shoes or boots. Come see . . . your feet will make a believer of you.

RED WING GONTY'S

BARGAINS GALORE!

Outside bargains at give-away prices

Rug samples, paint, miscellaneous items.

All furniture, Lamps, Tables, Bedroom Sets,

Card Tables are 30% OFF

Friday and Saturday only! FABRIC COUNTER

30% OFF

CASE FURNITURE

May & Main St. Heppner Ph. 676-9432