

Flood alert here Monday

The U.S. Weather Service notified the Morrow County Sheriff's Office Monday afternoon that a flood alert was in effect for the Willow Creek-Shobe Canyon watersheds.

There was no heavy rainfall on the watershed, and the alert was cancelled. Don Gilliam, Morrow County Grain Growers, who reports to the weather service from this area, said the Heppner-Lexington area received 47 inches of rainfall Monday afternoon and night. It is unusual, he said, to get rain this late in the summer. It is the rain that usually arrives the latter part of June, he reported.

Farmers in the upper areas may benefit from the rainfall, but Gilliam said it would be of no benefit to those in the Lexington section. The only inconvenience to farmers, unless the rains persist, is that they are kept out of the fields.

Intermittent showers covered Morrow County again Tuesday, with approximately .10 of an inch falling in Heppner.

POST OFFICE GAINS MORE PATRONS

Heppner's population is growing, if postal patrons is a good barometer.

Postmaster Hubert Wilson says his office is serving 200 families on rural routes compared to 132 a year ago; 35 families get mail through general delivery; and 58 more post office boxes have been recently installed to take care of the demand.

Box rentals total 613 as compared to 555 a year ago.
