

Five of the original 10 members of the 1942 graduating class of Ione High School met at Beecher's Cafe, Ione, Saturday night for the 32nd annual reunion. All the graduates began grammar school together and all graduated in 1942. The original class included Betty Lou Pettyjohn, Elsie Loudon, Patricia Pettyjohn, Van Rietmann, Bill Eubanks, Jim Ledbetter, Charlie Doherty, Rose Baker, Tom Huston and Roland Bergstrom. Shown here are, from the left, Bill Eubanks, Oregon City; Roland Bergstrom, Ione; Elsie Loudon, Baltimore, Md.; Charlie Doherty, Ione; and Tom Huston, Hardman.

Shakespeareans off to Ashland

Early Sunday morning the 7th Annual Morrow County Ashland Tour will start on its way toward the Shakespeare Festival.

Jane Rawlins, head of the Department of English at Heppner High, is tour leader, as she has been for all previous tours. She has made all arrangements for tickets, dormitory accommodations at Southern Oregon College, and for several special events beyond the six plays that are the central reason for the pilgrimage.

The high school students participating were all members of Linda Slusher's class on Shakespeare and his works during the last school year. One, Margie Roberts, Heppner, was awarded a $50 Shakespeare scholarship by the high school drama club. Four students and Mrs. Rawlins and Justine Weatherford will take this five-day trip. Besides Margie, the student members of the group are Cindy Rogers, Heppner, Sandy Palmer, Eight Mile, and Charma Marquardt, Lexington.

The plays to be seen are: on Monday, "Time of Your Life" and "Titus Andronicus;" Tuesday, "Waiting for Godot" and "Hamlet;" and Wednesday, "Two Gentlemen of Verona" and "Twelfth Night." "Hamlet" may be the more exciting production with Jerry Turner as producing director and Raye Birk playing the prince's part.

Writer Anthony Burgess in his recent biography of Shakespeare says that of all plays ever written "Hamlet" is the one the world could least do without.

Special extras for the 1974 group will include a tour of Lithia Park, the traditional backstage tour, and a trip to ANNUAL GRANGE PICNIC SUNDAY

Rhea Creek Grange members and friends will meet at Anson Wright Memorial Park Sunday, Aug. 11, at 12:30 p.m. for their annual picnic.

The dinner will be potluck, tea and coffee will be furnished. Each person is to bring his own table service.

The picnic replaces the regular grange meeting for August, so there will be no meeting at the hall this month.

SPECIAL CAMP AND OPEN HOUSE SET

A special camp session will feature arts and crafts at the Wallowa Lake Methodist Church Camp, Aug. 8-10.

Rev. and Mrs. Edwin Cutting will be helping with this session as they have with other events at the camp for the last several years. On Saturday Aug. 10, from 1-5 there will be an open house at the camp on Powerhouse Road near the lake.

historic Jacksonville. The school district vehicle carrying the Shakespeare enthusiasts will return through Crater Lake National Park and Bend. The travelers expect to be back in Heppner on Thursday, Aug. 15.

DALLAS WARDS ON VISIT HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Ward were house guests at the C.C. Carmichaels this weekend, renewing old acquaintances. Dallas will be remembered as an athletic director at the University of Colorado in Boulder.

A cookout was held in Camas Prairie while he was here. His father is an oldtimer and pioneer of Hardman, and they will stop to see him on their way home.

DEGREE OF HONOR PICNIC AT PENLAND

At the last Carnation Club meeting plans were discussed for the members and families of the Degree of Honor Protective Association to meet at the Gonty's Lake Penland property for a potluck picnic at 1:30 p.m., Aug. 11. Guests should bring their own table service and folding chairs. Anyone wishing transportation may call 676-9264 by Aug. 9.

The club made plans for a food sale Aug. 23 at the Degree of Honor Hall, 10 a.m.

Mileage stretcher.

There was a time when the cost of a weekend trip didn't amount to much. Times change.

Today, when every extra mile you drive runs into extra money, a little advance planning on the telephone makes real sense. Especially if you call when rates are low.

Any evening after 10 PM, for example, $1 or less, plus tax, buys you 10 minutes on the phone with anyone inside the state. You get this special rate just by dialing direct without operator assistance.

In times like these you need every money-saving mileage ingredient you can get. Like your telephone.

Lexington

Anita Davidson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Davidson, returned last week from her trip as a United Nations Pilgrimage delegate, a trip which took her to the UN headquarters.

The trip, sponsored by the Oregon Rebekah's and Odd Fellows for Oregon, was won by Miss Davidson. She was met in Portland by her brother, Greg, last year's winner from Morrow County, who brought her and her house guest, Diana Neddenriep of Reno, Nev., to Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Davidson, Mrs. Vern Viall and children of Milton-Freewater visited Expo '74 last week. They also made a trip into Idaho and visited Mr. and Mrs. Roger Anderson, at Post Falls, former Lexington residents. Anderson is employed there as an electrician.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mounts of Portland visited her mother, Mrs. Freida Majeske of Heppner and other relatives in Lexington over the weekend.

Miss Verna Dornbrack of Wassau, Wis., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Majeske, and other relatives. She has been staying in Pendleton since the death of her brother-in-law, Owens Helms. Pat Wright and Sandi accompanied Mrs. Majeske to Pendleton last week where they met Miss Dornbrack.

Greg Davidson is employed in Portland at the Washington Square Meier and Frank store.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Williams had a visitor, her sister, Rose Ann Hopkins from Vallejo, Ca., over the weekend. They visited their parents, the John Appelbergs in Kellogg, Idaho, and visited one day at Expo '74. Enroute home Mr. and Mrs. Williams spent a night in Lewiston, Idaho, where they visited Cliff's family.

Venice Hendrickson returned home Friday after a month spent in Minnesota visiting friends and relatives.

Mrs. Homer Hughes was a recent patient at a hospital in Walla Walla, Wa.

Mrs. Stuart Smith and children of Hermiston spent the weekend in Lexington visiting relatives while her husband was employed at the scene of the recent train derailment near LaGrande.
