

Krynn Robinson was winner of the Reserve Championship for the All-around Showmanship and also winner of the intermediate horsemanship class.

Mary Healy was winner of the All-around Horsemanship Award at the annual 4-H Horse Show held Sunday. Mary also won the top honors in the senior western equitation and in the senior showmanship class.

Mary Ann Proctor, Irrigon, won the Colt Horsemanship.

Anita Palmer won the Small Fry Division for Horsemanship at the show.

Some 4-H Horse Show winners

Nancy Miller was winner of the Junior Championship Division—pigtales and all.

Kate Evans, Irrigon, won the Reserve Grand Championship in the showmanship, intermediate division of the 4-H Horse Show.

Don Evans rodeo chairman, and Jerry Dougherty, trophy director, display the 1974 Morrow County Call Roping Saddle, that will be awarded to the cowboy winning the event. The saddle, donated by Kinzua Corporation, is handmade by Severe Bros., Pendleton.

Come to the Morrow County FAIR and

RODEO

FAIR

AUGUST 19 thru 23
FAIR PAVILION—HEPPNER

RODEO

AUGUST 24 and 25
RODEO GROUNDS—HEPPNER

Visit the Heppner Lions Club Booth for Snow Cones and Cotton Candy!

Enjoy the Many Fair
Exhibits and Enjoy the Fastest Rodeo
in the West

COLUMBIA BASIN
ELECTRIC CO-OP, Inc.

Heppner

Ph. 676-9146

Serving Morrow, Gilliam and Wheeler Counties