

Morrow County Fair highlights

Kathleen VanSchoiack with her grand champion steer. The steer weighed 1098 and sold for $1 per pound.

Cowboy Mel Hyland goes for a ride on Spotted Wolf in the bronc riding event during Sunday's Morrow County Rodeo.

The cowboy with the six-shooter is Gordon Tholberg, just trying to get some attention for the up-coming Pendleton Round-Up. The action took place during the Rodeo Parade in Heppner.

The McElligott's, Terry, Grace, Carol and Michelle, display some of their award winning clothes at the Morrow County Fair.

Bobby McEwen knows how to enjoy a livestock sale, complete with snow cone and pipe. Bobby claims his mom knows about the pipe.

Mark Sargent and Cathy Palmer show their champion sheep at Morrow County Fair. The judge awarded the grand champion to Mark and reserve champion to Cathy.

Kenneth Gochbauer gets ready to put a leash on his pet rooster for the Pet Parade. This is the one event youngsters enjoy, because all of the entrants win.

Guy Weedman rides Honker during Sunday's Morrow County Rodeo.

Dennis Siarr takes his blue ribbon hog for a walk around the arena during the Livestock Sale.