PENDLETON DIESEL SERVICE

Jerry Schubert, Owner

A diesel engine service is indeed a valued business to the industrial, agricultural, contracting, and logging interest of our area.

It is a known fact that diesel engines are a complicated mechanism that must always be operated by those fully skilled in them, and in turn must be given maintenance and repair by men totally equipped to service them.

Pendleton Diesel Service, two blocks past bridge on the Walla Walla Highway in Pendleton, phone 276-6066; mailing address, Rt. 2, Box 80BB, is a firm well known in this area for quality diesel engine repair, overhaul and service, as well as sales.

From injector repair and parts replacement to crankshaft grinding and complete overhaul this firm excels in every way, and once you do business with them you will become a loyal patron for all of your diesel engine repair.

The copyists of this 1974 Review are pleased to recommend this able firm to all of our readers and compliment the management of Pendleton Diesel Service for their fine business policies and ethical practices.

Hermiston Good Samaritan Center

Nursing Home & Home For the Aged

The Hermiston Good Samaritan Center at 970 W. Juniper in Hermiston wishes to take this opportunity to express their thanks to all those who have been instrumental in their growth over the years. They offer short or long term care, 24 hour nursing care, special diets, complete laundry facilities, etc.

While it is true that they have become one of the leading nursing homes in the area, they had to have the wholehearted and sincere support of the community of which they are a part, for this to be possible.

Because of this, they have dedicated themselves to aiding in every way possible—all those who rely on them. As a result that much discussed word "Service" finds true meaning in the friendly atmosphere that envelopes everyone that comes to them.

The Hermiston Good Samaritan Center invites a call or a visit anytime of their facility. Their phone is 567-8337. Their doors are open to all with no discrimination towards anyone.

The writers of this 1974 Review commend them for their community minded activities and interest to the people of this area.

Pendleton Sports Center

Dick Jarvis, Manager

Sportsmen from this entire section make the Pendleton Sports Center on the Walla Walla highway in Pendleton, phone 276-6822, their headquarters for all sporting goods. This firm stocks all the necessities for the outdoor hunter and fisher. They feature a complete hunting and fishing department, a complete marine department with famous names like: Mercury Motors, Remell as well as Seaswirl boats.

For the cycle enthusiast, they have the famous Kawasaki motorcycles. Step to precision power! They feature a complete parts, accessories and repair department. Our 1975 models are on display.

Each of us should engage in some type of sport. Too many today are caught in the hustle and bustle of our 20th century living and forget the healthful value of active sports. Actual participation in sports relaxes the mind, stimulates the body, and makes you regain that young feeling again.

This sporting goods house has stocked their store with only quality merchandise. They know their customers want first class equipment and supplies and they endeavor to have only the best to satisfy their customers. Hunters, we have complete reloading equipment and supplies.

The writers of this 1974 Review suggest you go to the Pendleton Sports Center the next time you are in the market for sporting goods. Here you will find courteous service and quality merchandise for reasonable prices.

Dick Jarvis invites you to come in and browse around. No matter what you are looking for from chain saws by McCulloch to Skidoo snow-motors or Kawasaki motorcycles to the Cushman trackster, you'll find it here. Dick and the staff would like to take this opportunity to "say thanks" to their many customers in the area, and wish every success to all during the Holiday Season and the coming New Year.

The Hope Ranch

THE HOPE RANCH

Chief Apache Time and Sugar Pan at Stud

Evelyn Kirk Broun, Owner

In this area a person who is roundly respected for her knowledge and ability in horse breeding is Evelyn Kirk Broun at The Hope Ranch located on Bense Road in Hermiston, phone 567-6349.

Through her experience in this field, she has learned exactly what type of sire it takes to breed a colt that has the characteristics you are looking for.

Here, you will find at stud Chief Apache Time, an Appaloosa which was a 1974 Grand Champion, and Sugar Pan, a Quarter Horse, well recognized for their ability to carry on the strain of horse desired. She keeps on record the files of these fine registered stallions and will be more than happy to discuss any questions you might have in wanting to bring your mare to foal.

Chief Apache Time and owner-rider Evelyn Kirk Broun, Hermiston, have raced their way to the 1974 Grand Champion Race Horse honors in the Greater Western Appaloosa Regionals. The five-year old Appaloosa stallion was named top point winner in the northwest's five-club region for short distance races during the year. Evelyn accepted the award during the Horse Heaven Hills Appaloosa show Sept. 8 in Kennewick.

To qualify for the award, the horse topped approximately 20 competitors racing at the 200, 440 and 660 yard distances during approved G.W.A.R. shows. Points were accumulated according to finishing position and the number of horses in each race.

The editors of this 1974 Review are more than pleased to bring to the attention of our readers this well respected woman and her keen abilities in horse breeding. Without hesitation, we give our complete recommendation to Evelyn Kirk Broun and The Hope Ranch.

Hiersche's Nursing Home

Don Hiersche, Administrator Emogene Hiersche, R.N.

The Hiersche's Nursing Home is located at S.W. 37th & Hailey Ave. in Pendleton, phone 276-3374. Here they offer complete care of the aged, sick, and convalescent.

This nursing home is well located, has plenty of sunshine, never enough noise to bother the sick, yet near enough town so friends and relatives of guests can call without inconvenience. Heating, ventilation and sanitary arrangements are most completely planned for the comfort of each guest and all methods are approved by the supervising medical authorities.

All rooms are light and cheerfully decorated, and have that home atmosphere which has a good psychological effect.

Their food is prepared by a specialist on diets under the most sanitary conditions, giving the guests well balanced meals, nourishing and appetizing, for rebuilding the health and strength so necessary for the inactive person.

This and the surrounding territory is very fortunate in having a nursing home. "So like a home." The authors of this 1974 Review are proud to make particular mention of this well-run nursing home who open their doors to all

THANKSGIVING

For Friends and Family... Home and Hearthside... Be Grateful!

Pause in the midst of the fun and the feasting... reflect for a moment or two... and count up the things you're glad about.

Probably they're the same things that inspired the Pilgrim Fathers: food, fellowship, and a sense of caring, sharing and purpose.
