

MR. AND MRS. RUSSELL TIMM

Timm-Melby vows exchanged here

HEPPNER—Lillian Susan Melby and Russell G. Timm were united in marriage at a service at All Saints Episcopal church at 1 p.m. Saturday.

The Rev. David Blackaller officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Melby of Heppner and Fossil. The groom is the son of Mrs. Florence Timm, Boise, Idaho.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full-length wedding gown of white organza and lace. Her four-tiered chapel-length veil was of net outlined with lace daisies, held in place by a satin and lace headpiece. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and blue rosebuds.

Her attendants were her sister, Mrs. Steven Jurcich, Columbus, Ohio, and Mrs. James Greiner, Mayville, Roger Timm, Los Angeles, was best man for his brother, Larry Hurst, Coos Bay, was usher.

At the reception following in the parish hall the bride and groom toasted each other in a locked arm toast from champagne bride and groom glasses, a gift of the bride's parents. Presiding at the four-tiered cake was Mrs. San Sherwood, Medford, aunt of the bride, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. James Myers, Albany. Mrs. Lillian Matthews, Portland, great-aunt of the bride, was at the coffee and tea service. Mrs. Gordon Hagedorn, Silverton, aunt of the bride, presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Harry Mathis, Canby, aunt of the bride, was at the champagne bowl. Dawn Hagedorn, Silverton and Sidney Sherwood, Coquille, both cousins of the bride, were at the gift table. Jeannine Hunt, Pendleton, was in charge of the guest book.

Following a buffet dinner at the home of the bride's parents the young couple left for a week's trip to British Columbia.

The bride is a graduate of Heppner High School, attended Blue Mountain Community College, and is bookkeeper at Buttre's Super Store, Pendleton. The groom is a graduate of Borah High School, attended Boise State University, and is in management at Buttre's Super Store.

Following their wedding trip the couple will be at home at 901 N. W. Bailey Street, Pendleton, and both will return to their positions at Buttre's.

Soroptimists plan for Christmas

At their Dec. 5 luncheon meeting the Heppner Soroptimist Club members planned Christmas giving.

The group will help the charitable efforts that are being coordinated at the Heppner Neighborhood Center with meat, canned foods and fruit as well as personal gifts.

Instead of a regular luncheon on Dec. 19, Soroptimists will have a husband and wife Christmas party at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Wallace H. Wolff, Wednesday evening, Dec. 18.

INVITATION TO A WEDDING RECEPTION

Mr. and Mrs. Don Munkers will host a wedding reception for their daughter, Kay, and David Alldritt at the Riley Munkers residence, 3655 Green St., Saturday, 2-5 p.m. All friends are invited.

Patricia Tucker an October bride

In a candlelight double ring ceremony, Tanya Lynn Tucker, daughter of George Eldon Tucker and the late Patricia G. Tucker, lone, became the bride of Robert Henry Tiegs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tiegs, Thornton, Wa., on Oct. 18, at lone.

The ceremony was read by Rev. William Arthur at United Church of Christ.

The altar was decorated with white gladioli and white carnations tipped in blue with baby's breath.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of white tiered lace with a sequin trimmed square scalloped neckline and long sleeves. The dress extended into a train trimmed at the edges with sequins. The elbow-length veil of silk net was edged in lace with sequins, and held in place by a Juliet cap. The bride carried her mother's Rainbow Bible with a bouquet of baby carnations tipped in blue with baby's breath, and accented with blue ribbon.

Maid of honor was Teresa White, sister of the bride. Bridesmaid was Tammie Tucker, younger sister of the bride. Flower girl was Sabrina White, niece of the bride. Ring bearer was Michael Tiegs, nephew of the groom. Candle lighters were David Tucker, brother of the bride, and Mike Rowell, cousin of the bride.

The maid of honor wore a floor-length empire style gown of blue satin with baby doll sleeves. The bridesmaid's dress was of the same style, made with light blue lace over taffeta. They carried bouquets of baby carnations tipped in blue with baby's breath. The flower girl wore a floor-length empire waisted white lace dress with puff sleeves. She carried a white basket of blue flower petals.

Best man was Oscar Tiegs, brother of the groom, Palouse, Wa. Ushers were David Tucker and Mike Rowell. Groomsman was Terry Largent, friend of the groom. The groom and his attendants wore white tuxedos with black pants, blue shirts and wore blue tipped baby carnations in their lapels.

Special wedding music was "Heather," played by organist Rikka Tews.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Henry Tiegs, wore a light grey dress with a printed jacket.

The wedding reception was held at the Social Room of the lone United Church of Christ.

The table was covered with a white lace cloth centered with a white three-tiered wedding cake topped with white wedding bells. It was served by Mrs. Ray Turner and Mrs. Gordon Ross, aunts of the bride. Pouring coffee was Mrs. Gladys Drake and serving punch was Mrs. Archie Padberg, both grandmothers of the bride.

Dianna Hams, cousin of the bride, attended the gift table, and the guest book was taken care of by Judy Tiegs, sister of the groom. The flower girl and ring bearer passed out rice bags to the guests.

For her going-away ensemble, the bride wore a three-piece pantsuit.

After a wedding trip to Reno, San Francisco, and other points in California, the couple will reside in Palouse, Wa., where the groom is employed by Cenex Corporation.

The bride is a 1971 graduate of lone High School and received her LPN degree from Blue Mountain Community College. The groom graduated from St. John High School, Thornton, Wa., in 1967, and served four years in the Navy.

PUBLIC INVITED TO BIRTHDAY PARTY

A party will be held for Hazel Hamlin in honor of her 80th birthday at the Elks Lodge Room, Sunday, Dec. 15, from 2 to 4 p.m. A potluck dinner will be served, with ham and rolls furnished. All friends are invited—no gifts, please.

MR. & MRS. ROBERT TIEGS

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM J. HURL

Luanne Kelly weds William J. Hurl

Luanne Kelly, Heppner, and William James Hurl, McMinnville, were united in marriage at All Saints Episcopal Church in Heppner on Nov. 23.

The Rev. David Blackaller officiated at the 2 p.m. double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Kelly, Heppner. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hurl of McMinnville.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a floor-length ivory gown with train, styled with an empire waistline, high neck and wrist-length sleeves. Lace accented the sleeves and train and the double net chapel veil. She carried a bouquet of red rosebuds, white fugi mums and carnations with baby's breath.

Shannon Kelly, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Joan Eckman and Shannon Farley of Heppner and Dalarie Philippi of Boardman. The attendants wore identical gowns of burgundy trimmed in pink and white lace and floral headbands. They carried nosegays of pink rosebuds and pink and burgundy carnations with baby's breath.

Douglas Hurl, McMinnville, was best man for his brother. The ushers were Blair Philippi, Boardman, Robert Smith, Fullerton, Ca., and Craig Latham, McMinnville.

Tonya Taylor, Pendleton, provided the nuptial music and accompanied Dena Struthers, Shannon Kelly, Jim Acklev and Bill Buckendorf as they sang "An Old Irish Blessing" preceding the final prayer.

A wedding reception was held in the parish hall of the church following the ceremony.

The bride was graduated from Heppner High School and attended Eastern Oregon State College in LaGrande. The groom, a graduate of Willamina High School, attended Oregon State University and Eastern Oregon State College.

Following a wedding trip to the Oregon Coast, the couple is now residing in Dayton, Ore.

FIVE YOUNG PEOPLE VISIT WEATHERFORDS

During Thanksgiving week Mr. and Mrs. Bill Weatherford entertained five young members of their families. Mrs. Weatherford's son and daughter-in-law, Ross and Carol Haberlach of Port Orchard, Wa., paid a surprise visit Sunday evening and Monday. Karla Weatherford came home from the University of Puget Sound, Tacoma, Wednesday to stay until the following Sunday. Ann and Ray Chenhall of Walla Walla stayed with the Weatherfords Thursday and part of Friday.

The three Weatherfords and two Chenhalls enjoyed Thanksgiving dinner in the Arlington home of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Weatherford.

Wedding reception honor newlyweds

A wedding reception was given Nov. 30 by Mr. and Mrs. Louis Carlson, lone, at the Valby Lutheran Church in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Richardson (Sandra Carlson) of Ashland, who were married Oct. 26 at a family wedding in Eugene-Bethesda Lutheran Church.

A Scandinavian theme was carried out using a three-tiered cake decorated with blue, green, red and yellow flowers, topped with a bride and groom used at Mrs. Richardson's parents wedding at Valby 24 years ago. Also served were trays of Scandinavian cookies.

Mrs. Richardson wore her ecru chantilly lace wedding dress for the occasion, and the family heirloom necklace, with fresh daisies in her hair. A fresh daisy bouquet and dark blue candles decorated the coffee table and also the piano.

Serving the cake were Mrs. Garry Tullis and Mrs. Jack VanWinkle. Pouring coffee were Mrs. John Graves, grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Robert Hope, Mrs. Walter Hill and Mrs. Howard Pettyjohn, aunts of the bride. Mrs. Richard Lindner served the punch. Joan Irens and Mrs. Rick Piper were in charge of the guest book, and Molly Becker, Carley Bergstrom, Mary Hibbard and Cheri Carlson presided at the gift table. Sally and Jacki

Sumner passed out thank-you scrolls.

Greeting the guests with Mr. and Mrs. Richardson were Mrs. Richardson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Carlson, and family, Phil, Clint and Cheri.

Out-of-town guests attended from Scappoose, Prineville, Portland, Dayville, Olex, Imbler, Beaverton, Irrigon, Pendleton, Eugene, Burbank, Walla Walla, Prosser, Missoula and New York.

Following the reception a buffet supper was served to out-of-town guests and relatives.

Christmas party for Rhea Creek

Rhea Creek Grange Committee of Womens Activities met at the home of Mrs. Walter Wright for their November meeting.

At that time the Christmas party date was announced for Friday night, Dec. 13, on the regular Grange meeting night. There will be a potluck supper beginning at 6:30 p.m., followed by the party and Grange. It is expected Santa will put in an appearance before the evening is through.

Mrs. Harold Wright will be hostess for the Dec. 19 meeting of the CWA at her home. There will be a potluck luncheon and a gift exchange.

Friday 13th Sale

10% off on all blouses.

A Christmas suggestion: give a Miss Elaine's Caftan. 16.95

A General Electric AM-FM radio will be given away Tuesday Dec. 24, 5 p.m.

Inquire for details.

Lebush Shoppe

The perfect Christmas Gift to give each other...

Diamonds.

"Something from the jeweler is always something special"

Peterson's

JEWELERS Since '58

Store Hours: 9 A.M. to 6 P.M.
177 MAIN ST., HEPPNER
PH. 676-9200

Poinsettias

Poinsettias for the Heppner area will arrive Dec. 12. Get yours early!

KNIT, PERL 2

Flowers

We will also be taking orders for door swags and wreaths.

Elma's

School Lunch Menu

Heppner Elementary School and Heppner High School

Mon., Dec. 16—Beef stew and vegetables, cottage cheese and pear half, longhorn bread, milk, butter.	Tues., Dec. 17—School's choice.
Wed., Dec. 18—Christmas Dinner.	Thurs., Dec. 19—Potatoes and gravy, vegetable salad, fruit, rolls, milk, butter.
Fri., Dec. 20—School's choice.	Thurs., Jan. 2—School's choice.
Fri., Jan. 3—School's choice.

We'd like to get to know you.

HEPPNER BRANCH
FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF OREGON

You're Invited...

Stop in and have coffee and cookies with us, and take time to select your artificial table centerpieces and novelty arrangements.

CHRISTMAS IS A TIME FOR

