DEBRA KAY BERGERSON and Roy Lee Roberts will be married Saturday, Jan. 4, 1975, 7 p.m., at the Hood River L.D.S. Chapel. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Donald G. Bergerson of Parkdale, Ore., and Mr. and Mrs. Layton H. Roberts of Heppner. Friends of the couple and of the families are invited to attend the ceremony.

Museum gets rare items

Mrs. Rachel Harnett, museum curator, is showing two recent acquisitions.

A woven wool, double-bed coverlet in navy and white made about 1850 by Linda Anne Cowgill, has just been loaned to the museum by Wavel Wilkinson, Heppner, and her twin sister, Hazel Scherzinger, Hermiston.

Linda Cowgill was the great-grandmother of twins Wavel and Hazel. The coverlet was brought to Oregon via California by covered wagon.

An unusual, large, elaborate death memorial was recently donated by the Jefferson Jones heirs of Heppner. This memorial is 20 inches wide and 32 inches high. Its frame is intricately carved and the black, gold and ivory document is under heavy glass.

The memorial is topped by a large dove with a banner in its beak reading "Gone, but not forgotten." Beneath an artistic arrangement of lilies, roses and laurel leaves are the gold-printed names J. W. Kirk and Walter W. Kirk, the ones memorialized. J. W. Kirk died at 3 months and 6 days of age on Sept. 19, 1882. Walter W. Kirk, age 19 years and 7 months, died Jan. 13, 1889. He was lost in a snowstorm in the mountains.

Beneath the facts about the two, and also printed in gold are these verses:

Precious ones from us have gone. Voices we loved are stilled. Places are vacant in our home. Which never can be filled.

God in His wisdom has recalled. The boon His love had given. And though their bodies moulder here, Their souls are safe in Heaven.

SOMETIMES it's pretty hard for Santa Claus to convince some youngsters that he had trouble with his reindeer, making him late for his regular showing. These two young skeptics obviously do not buy Santa's story!
