

MR. AND MRS. GAY HARSHMAN

Harshman-Eubanks vows exchanged

In a small family wedding, Patty Eubanks, daughter of Mrs. Alice McCabe, Heppner, became the bride of Gay Harshman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Harshman, of Heppner, Dec. 29 at 2 p.m.

The ceremony was read by Rev. Forest Godin at the home of the groom's parents on Willow Creek.

The bride wore a long gold colored gown and carried a nosegay of red and white carnations and baby's breath with white streamers.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Dave Barnett, Ione. Best man was Jerry Boschke, Pilot Rock.

Mother of the bride, Mrs. McCabe, wore a long skirt and blouse ensemble. Mother of the groom, Mrs. Harshman, wore a long rose colored gown with matching jacket.

Following the wedding, friends and relatives attended the reception which was also at the Harshman home. The house was decorated with poinsettias, carnations, and on the mantle, red candles in silver candelabra with red carnations and holly.

Pouring were Teresa Harshman, sister of the groom, and Kelly Mahon, sister-in-law of the bride. Arletha McDaniel attended the gift table and Sandra Hill the guest book.

For her going-away ensemble the bride wore a mint green pant suit.

After a wedding trip to Pendleton, the couple is at home in Heppner where the groom is employed at Kinzua Corporation and the bride at Pioneer Memorial Hospital.

Grange Master to visit here

State Grange Master W. C. Harris and Mrs. Harris will visit Willows Grange, Jan. 19.

Since this will be his official visit to Morrow County, all Grange members are urged to attend. Harris will discuss plans for the Granges and legislative matters for the coming year.

There will be a potluck dinner at 1 p.m. with the meeting to start at 2 o'clock.

IONE NEWS

The Women's Fellowship of the United Church of Christ will hold its annual sewing meeting Thursday, Jan. 23, at the church, beginning at 10 a.m.

All church women are asked to participate, and should bring their sewing machines and other sewing equipment. A potluck salad luncheon will be served at noon.

The sewing projects from this meeting will be donated to the state hospital in Pendleton.

The Ione Grand Squares will meet Friday, Jan. 17, at the Grange Hall. Dancing will begin at 8 p.m. and a potluck dinner will be served at 10:30 o'clock.

The Ione Long Range Planning Committee will meet Wednesday, Jan. 22, 8 p.m., in the high school library. The public is welcome.

DAVID HALLS HAVE A NEW DAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. David E. Hall of Madras are parents of a baby girl, Linda DeAnn, born Dec. 23 at Mountview Hospital in Madras. She joins a sister, Jodi Lynn, 2 years old.

The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hall of Heppner and Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Richardson of Madras. The great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Ball and Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Hall, both of Heppner, and Mr. and Mrs. John Richardson of Lakeview and Mr. and Mrs. Chet Kennedy of Palm Springs, Ca.

Idaho choir coming

Morrow County music lovers should mark their calendar now for Feb. 8.

The College of Idaho Tour Choir will give a concert that day at 5 p.m. in the Heppner High School Cafeteria. The 60-voice group sings a wide range of music, from madrigals to classical and modern. No set admission will be charged, but concert-goers may make donations at the door.

Following the concert, a spaghetti supper will be served in the cafeteria to enable the public to meet the singers before going on to the Mustang basketball game with Maupin to be played here.

The group is sponsored by the local chapter of AAUW. The concert program will be published next week.

Art show at high school until Jan. 30

"Nostalgia U.S.A.," an art show sponsored by the Statewide Services of the University of Oregon Museum of Art, is on display in the Heppner High School Library.

The show will run through Jan. 30 and will be open for the public on Tuesday and Thursday evenings at 7:30.

The program is made possible by the work of Librarian Marian Abrams. Other similar art exhibits sponsored by Statewide Services are set up throughout the state. Donations will be accepted at the library to assure other such programs in the future.

Irrigon

Irrigon's Mayor Chester Wilson received word on Jan. 8 from Sen. Mark Hatfield's office that a $40,000 grant and $100,000 loan had been approved in Washington by the Farmers Home Administration for the City of Irrigon's Water Improvement District.

The present water system has many deadend lines which will be looped into a grid to assure better water pressure to all users. It will also provide for an additional storage tank, pump house and pump improvements.

Bids have been called for and the bids will be opened at a special council meeting, Jan. 31.

Bruce Buchanan left for London, England, on Jan. 2 to continue his education.

He will study for three months in London then spend three months in France. He will receive credit from his studies in Europe towards his college degree from Oregon State University, where he is a senior.

During the summer months Buchanan drove a tour bus as a tour guide in Anchorage, Alaska. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Buchanan, Irrigon.

Recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. LaVern Christiansen were her brothers, Mr. and Mrs. Kelsey Dunn of Little Rock, Ark., and Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Dunn and family of San Jose, Ca., and Bessie Dunn of Richland, Wa., mother of the family. Also visiting while relatives were here were members of their own family, daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Cooley and family, Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Christiansen, all of Irrigon. Their daughter, Mrs. Mike Creighton and family of Baker spent several days here.

Pastor and Mrs. Robert Schmoll spent the past week at the World Evangelism Deeper Life Conference at San Diego, Ca. In their absence Pastor Don Smith of the Umatilla Assembly of God ministered at the Wednesday night service.

The meetings with the Dale Lidstrom-Jerry Gillock team continue through Friday night at 7 p.m. at the Irrigon Assembly of God. A women's luncheon is planned for 11:30 a.m. Friday.

Terri White, Irrigon, Craig Munkers, Lexington, and Mark Bogart, Kinzua, are among undergraduate students at Eastern Oregon State College whose names are on the honor list for the fall term.

Deborah K. Warren, Heppner, senior agriculture student at Oregon State University, has been named to the scholastic honor roll for the fall term.

Annual dance date set

Beta Omega Sorority met Jan. 9 at the home of Mrs. Paul Proudfoot. At the meeting, the Annual Spring Cotillion was confirmed by Dance Chairman Mrs. Del LaRue for Saturday, April 5, 9 p.m. to 1 a.m., at the Legion Hall in Ione.

Rod Esselstyn will provide the music again this year.

Tickets are $10 per couple and $5.50 single. Advance tickets will be available beginning Wednesday, Jan. 22, from sorority members and the R & W Drive-In, Heppner. Receipts from the dance are for charity.

The next meeting of Beta Omega will be Tuesday, Jan. 21, at the home of Mrs. John Edmundson for a "German" social.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETING

The regular meeting of the Morrow County School Board will be held Monday, Jan. 20, at the Ione High School beginning at 7:30 p.m. All meetings of the board are open to the public.

LEGION AUXILIARY UNITS TO MEET

The Heppner and Ione units of the American Legion Auxiliary will be co-hosts at a gathering honoring Mrs. Hugh (Juanita) Murchison, department president, and Mrs. Lois Chadwick, District No. 6 president, both of Pendleton, Monday, Jan. 20, 7 p.m., at the American Legion Hall.

At this time initiation of new members, both junior and senior, will be held, with Hazel Hamlin as chairman.

The regular potluck dinner, with the meat dish furnished, will be served before the program.

"WHO'S WHO IN MORROW COUNTY" CONTEST

Copyright, Gem Enterprises & Associates. All rights reserved.

Where to look for clues:

Clues may be hidden in any ad in this section of 30 merchants whose ads are printed below. When an additional ad from one of these sponsoring merchants appears elsewhere in the paper, they too may have clues hidden in them.

Clues will be scattered. There may be from one to five in any ad—or none. This is a contest of skill, and we intend to do our best to outwit you! We invite you to do your best to outwit us.

Contest rules:

1. This is a family fun contest. One entry per person (a family of four could submit four entries). Anyone may enter unless a member of your family is employed by the merchant whose ad is heavily bordered this week (this applies ONLY during the week this ad is bordered). Employees of other sponsoring merchants are eligible.
2. Nothing to buy. Use any slip of paper for entry blank. It is not necessary to be present to win. It is not necessary to be a subscriber to the Gazette-Times to enter.

3. The Mystery Person may be anyone in Morrow County. Clues for his or her identity will be hidden only in ads for sponsoring merchants. If by coincidence the name of the Mystery Person (or other facts about him or her) happens to appear in news items, editorial matter or other places in this newspaper, these will not count as clues in this contest.
4. To enter, write down the name you think to be the Mystery Person. Add the total number of clues you can find in ALL the ads of sponsoring merchants in this issue. You do not have to list all these clues, just give the total number of them. Don't forget to add your name and address. Then drop your entry in the box located at the sponsoring merchant whose ad is bordered with a dark border in the ads listed below in this issue.

5. There is no other place where entries will be accepted. Any member of the family may bring in all the entries for that family. Children under 12 must be accompanied by an adult.
6. This week's contest starts when you receive this issue and closes at 5 p.m. Friday of this week.

7. At that time (5 p.m., Friday) a drawing will be held at the store where entries have been received for this week's contest. The first entry drawn that correctly identifies the Mystery Person will win $20 in cash. If that entry also lists the correct number of clues hidden in all ads of sponsoring merchants, a bonus of $7.50 will be paid. Whenever this bonus is not won, it will be added to the following week's bonus, which will continue to grow until it is won.
8. Every precaution will be taken to prevent typographical errors that might be mistaken for clues, but erroneous typography cannot be guaranteed—by anybody. The publisher of the Gazette-Times will be the judge in all questions and his decision is final.

Family participation gives you a better chance to win the jackpot. Your wife, husband or some bright-eyed youngster may spot a clue that you miss!

Think you can outwit the contest? You can't win if you don't enter.
