

Nikanders honored in California

Rev. and Mrs. Gustaf Nikander are among the 78 ministers of the Foursquare denomination named to receive a 25-year service pin during the annual International Foursquare Convention, Feb. 19-25, in Los Angeles at Angelus Temple, parent church.

The denomination, established 52 years ago by the late Aimee Semple McPherson, observes this month the 50th anniversary of her founding Life Bible College, adjacent to Angelus Temple.

Shower honors Mrs. Wright

Mrs. Dean Wright was honored at a baby shower at the home of Mrs. Elmer Palmer, Ione, on Feb. 1.

Hostesses were Mrs. Palmer, Mrs. Harold Wright, and Mrs. Walter Wright, Heppner. Twenty-five guests were present.

Mrs. John Currin and Mrs. David Wright assisted with the gifts. A special gift of a high chair was presented by the hostesses. Refreshments were served.

CUTTINGS IN PORTLAND CLASS NOT MEETING

The Rev. and Mrs. Edwin Cutting were in Portland this week. As a result there will be no meeting of the Lenten Bible study class on Wednesday night. The Rev. Cutting is attending a Board of Ministry meeting of the Oregon-Idaho Conference of the United Methodist Church.

Next Wednesday evening, Feb. 19, the Bible study class will meet at 7:30 p.m. at the Weatherford home on Court St.

Special book sale ends tonight

At the close of library hours tonight (9:30 Thursday) the special books offered for sale during this last week but still unsold will be resorted. Some may be sold to out-of-town dealers and collectors.

There are still some valuable children's books, a smaller assortment of adult books, and a group of out-of-print magazines on the sale tables. Some of the more valuable books and magazines are being sold at "silent auction." Persons who have already made bids on these may come to see if they have the highest bid and may then pay for and take their books home after 9 p.m. tonight. Those persons from out of Heppner who are high bidders will be notified by the librarian.

MR. & MRS. FRANK CONNOR

Connors celebrate 50th anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Connor were feted Sunday, Feb. 16, on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary, with a reception at the Elks Club dining room. They were hosted by their children and families: Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Connor, son Mike, and daughter Calla, Forest Grove; Mr. and Mrs. Skip Connor, sons Stephen and David, daughters Teresa and Debbie, Pilot Rock; Mr. and Mrs. Roger Connor, Forest Grove, their daughters, Carrie, Forest Grove, Mrs. Clyde Gamel and her daughters, Mary and Pauline, of Yamhill.

In keeping with the golden wedding tradition, the table was decorated with a centerpiece of yellow spider mums and a 3-tiered white wedding cake with gold letters and leaves.

The punch was served by Ilene Wyman, Patty Prock, Nadine O'Brien, and Betty McEwen. Daughters-in-law Helen and Yvonne Connor cut and served the cake, and sisters-in-law Letha Rippee and Mildred Connor poured.

assisted by Carrie and Debbie Connor. Teresa Connor was in charge of the guest book.

More than a hundred guests attended. Out of town guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Ross Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gentry, Pendleton; Carl Gossenbacher, Portland; Mrs. Doris Hodge and Mrs. Elma Hiatt, Richland, Wa.; Mr. and Mrs. Don Rippee, Sunnyside, Wa.; and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Rippee, Condon.

Mr. and Mrs. Connor were married in Walla Walla, Wa. on Jan. 16, 1925.

MOTHERS CLUB PLANS A SPRING LUNCHEON

The Mothers Club met Feb. 10 at the home of Nancy Brownfield, president, to plan a sweetheart progressive dinner. Instead, they set a Hawaiian luau to be held in the spring.

The organization is dedicated to getting women who are new in the area involved in social affairs. New members are welcome.

Carol Godin gave a demonstration on how to care for house plants.

Slides shown on Australia

World traveler and colored slide maker, Dorris Graves, appeared before two Heppner groups last week.

On Thursday she explained her Australian travels and showed colored slides at the Soroptimist luncheon. Sunday afternoon she appeared before about 40 persons at the family potluck in the United Methodist Church.

Mrs. Graves not only attended the 13th annual meeting of the Associated Country Women of the World at Perth, but she took extended tours while she was in that part of the world. She saw some of New Zealand, looked around the north and east coastal regions of Australia and flew over its huge "empty" middle area.
