

ANITA DAVIDSON

Davidson is 3rd in state contest

Anita Davidson, Heppner High School senior finished in third place in the state competition of the Elks Most Valuable Student Contest at Roseburg Saturday.

She is the first student from Heppner to finish among the top contenders.

There were seven districts from Oregon represented at the state finals, and each district sent both a boy and a girl to compete in the finals, with all students in direct competition with each other.

To date Miss Davidson has been awarded $2,300 in scholarships and will now compete in the national finals. The results will not be known until June. There is no traveling involved for the national honors.

The students will be judged on the recommendation of the state officials and also on their application submitted to qualify on the local level.

Marty Graham, Echo High School, finished in 10th place. He was sponsored by the Hermiston Elks Lodge.

Following the competition at Roseburg, the students were honored by an awards banquet and dance.

Dance to benefit posse

The Morrow County Search & Rescue Posse will hold a benefit dance March 29 at the Fair Pavilion.

Proceeds will go toward purchase of rescue equipment. So far, members of the unit have been purchasing their own tools and equipment for use when they are called into service to assist lost or injured people. The posse responds to calls for assistance by the sheriff's department.

Depot II, musical group, will play for the dance benefit. Dancing is from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

New doctors find housing

Drs. Joe Gifford and Richard Carpenter, Pendleton physicians who will head the new clinic facility in Heppner, have arranged housing here.

Dr. and Mrs. Gifford and family will move into the home on Gale Street now being remodeled by Bob Jones. It is located next door to the Laubham Apartments.

Dr. Carpenter, who is single, has leased the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Joiner at 615 E. Hager Street. The Joiners will divide their time between their newspaper interests in Heppner and Sebastopol, Ca. Dr. Carpenter is to move here April 1.

World Day of Prayer services are held

More than 60 persons from churches of South Morrow attended the World Day of Prayer celebration at St. Patrick's Church Friday.

Marian Brosnan presided at the coffeetime business session in the recreation hall and at the service held in the church.

During the business meeting the women heard a report of past activity of the group. They agreed to continue to divide the day's offering between a Pioneer Memorial Hospital project and the national office of Church Women of the World. Frances Parker Mitchell of the Heppner Christian Church was elected secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Brosnan asked Marge Kenny, St. Patrick's, Loa McElligott, St. William's, and Ruby Steers, Assembly of God, to investigate the needs of the hospital and to determine what project should be supported. Representatives of the Heppner Assembly of God Church invited the group to hold next year's celebration at its church.

After the group moved into St. Patrick's, Father John O'Brien welcomed them. Mrs. Brosnan lead the prescribed service for the day with assistance from several readers from various churches. Kathryn Hoskins of the Christian Church was at the organ. Lucy Peterson of St. Patrick's lead group singing, and vocal solos were presented by Deanna Struthers of the Assembly of God and by Carol Godin of the Church of The Nazarene.

Three girls to Japan

Thirty-six 4-H delegates from 12 counties and four adults are planning for a summer visiting in the homes of Japanese families.

Three girls from Morrow county, Janette Piper, Lexington, Alice Abrams and Cathy Palmer, Heppner, are among those awaiting the trip. The three will attend orientation meeting in Hood River to get more detailed information concerning the cultural exchange.

The Oregon 4-H, Japan Labo exchange is an on-going event with young people traveling both to Japan and the United States each summer to stay with host families. Morrow County hosted 12 young Japanese students previously, and will have the opportunity again in the future.

Any 4-H member in the correct age bracket may apply to visit in Japan in future years.

Morrow County was one of nine Oregon counties recording only one industrial fatality in 1974, according to a report released this week by the Accident Prevention Division, Workmen's Compensation Board.

Arthurs leaving lone

Pastor Bill Arthur and his wife Marg will be honored at a potluck dinner Thursday evening, March 20, in the social hall of the United Church of Christ in Lone beginning at 6:30 p.m.

A farewell dinner is being held because the Arthurs will be leaving the lone parish and begin serving the parish in Condon on April 1. The Arthurs came to the lone church four years ago. They have been active in community affairs in lone. He has also taken an active part in the South Morrow Ministerial Association.

The potluck dinner is open to the public. The beverage will be provided. Those attending are asked to bring a dish for the dinner. A program will follow the meal.

Members of the lone United Church of Christ are organizing the dinner.

UP scholarship winner named

Anita Davidson, Lexington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Davidson, has been named recipient of one of 10 $400 4-H scholarships awarded in Oregon by Union Pacific Railroad.

Anita, a senior at Heppner High School, has been involved in a variety of 4-H projects including tole painting, foods, clothing, junior leadership and Empire Builders. She has served as a camp counselor and been active in all 4-H events with outstanding presentations at both county and state level. She was selected as one of Oregon's four delegates to National 4-H Conference in Washington, D.C., last year, and has recently assisted with the Oregon 4-H Conference in Salem.

Selection of scholarship winner is made at state level from applications made by members.

Two style shows this weekend

Zodiak Fashions, a Spring 1975 fashion show presented by Morrow County 4-H and the Simplicity Pattern Company, will provide a look into the fashion future.

To help girls and women in planning spring fashions, the wardrobe will be shown in two locations and times.

The first showing will be at lone School Cafetorium, Friday, March 14, 7:30 p.m. Models will be 4-H and home ec girls. Special arrangements for the lone show have been made by Linda Williamson, home ec teacher, and her class.

Second style show will be at A.C. Houghton School, Saturday, March 15, at 1:30 p.m. The Irrigon show will include a special program, "Decorate Your Duds," by Cheri Smith, Pendleton Sew and Sew, and a tea by Francine Evan's 4-H club, in addition to modeling of the garments by local girls. Special arrangements for the Irrigon show have been made by Ms. Evans and her 4-H girls.

There is no charge to attend either of the style shows. All are welcome.

Evening classes offered

More than 50 adult evening classes have been scheduled through the district for spring quarter by Blue Mountain Community College.

Classes being offered in the Heppner-Hermiston area include tole painting, welding, national electrical code, quickhand, beginning golf, woodworking for women, basic and advanced sewing, preparation for expectant parents, china painting, figure control for women and oil painting.

A full schedule of classes will appear in the March 20 edition of the Gazette-Times. Classes will begin the week of March 31-April 3.

CAMP COUNSELOR RETREAT

Five older youth and two adults from Morrow County will attend a counselor training session at Tygh Valley, April 11-13. Theme for the event, "Feeling Good About Self," indicates an informative three days for those applying to attend the event, which will include delegates from all Eastern Oregon. Those wishing more information should contact the County Extension Office immediately.
